The Covert Sphere Timothy Melley, 2012-10-23 In December 2010 the U S Embassy in Kabul acknowledged that it was providing major funding for thirteen episodes of Eagle Four a new Afghani television melodrama based loosely on the blockbuster U S series 24 According to an embassy spokesperson Eagle Four was part of a strategy aimed at transforming public suspicion of security forces into something like awed respect Why would a wartime government spend valuable resources on a melodrama of covert operations The answer according to Timothy Melley is not simply that fiction has real political effects but that since the Cold War fiction has become integral to the growth of national security as a concept and a transformation of democracy In The Covert Sphere Melley links this cultural shift to the birth of the national security state in 1947 As the United States developed a vast infrastructure of clandestine organizations

it shielded policy from the public sphere and gave rise to a new cultural imaginary the covert sphere One of the surprising consequences of state secrecy is that citizens must rely substantially on fiction to know or imagine their nation's foreign policy The potent combination of institutional secrecy and public fascination with the secret work of the state was instrumental in fostering the culture of suspicion and uncertainty that has plagued American society ever since and Melley argues that would eventually find its fullest expression in postmodernism The Covert Sphere traces these consequences from the Korean War through the War on Terror examining how a regime of psychological operations and covert action has made the conflation of reality and fiction a central feature of both U S foreign policy and American culture Melley interweaves Cold War history with political theory and original readings of films television dramas and popular entertainments from The Manchurian Candidate through 24 as well as influential writing by Margaret Atwood Robert Coover Don DeLillo Joan Didion E L Doctorow Michael Herr Denis Johnson Norman Mailer Tim O'Brien and many others Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1974 Publishing Gail Godwin, 2015-01-13 A three time National Book Award finalist and New York Times best selling author reflects on her writing experiences with such teachers as Kurt Vonnegut and Robert Coover mapping out the publishing industry over the last 50 years during a time of great upheaval and ingenuity Apocalyptic Transformation Elizabeth K. Rosen, 2008-01-01 Apocalyptic Transformation explores how one the oldest sense making paradigms the apocalyptic myth is altered when postmodern authors and filmmakers adopt it It examines how postmodern writers adapt a fundamentally religious story for a secular audience and it proposes that even as these writers use the myth in traditional ways they simultaneously undermine and criticize the grand narrative of apocalypse itself Novels and Arguments Zahava Karl McKeon, 1982 In this absorbing study the first comprehensive exploration of the rhetoric of the novel Zahava Karl McKeon investigates the complex interrelations of critical poetics grammars dialectics and rhetorics to devise a systematic means of dealing with the structure of prose works as communicative objects Using the vocabulary and conceptual resources of Aristotle and Cicero she pursues this exploration to discover the kinds of arguments that characterize novels to find a way of distinguishing novels from other discursive wholes and to discriminate different genres of the novel McKeon's arguments are supplemented by readings of a variety of texts including the novels and stories of Gunter Grass John Fowles Robert Coover and Flannery O'Connor New American Stories Ben Marcus, 2015-07-21 In New American Stories the beautiful the strange the melancholy and the sublime all come together to show the vast range of the American short story In this remarkable anthology Ben Marcus has corralled a vital and artistically singular crowd of contemporary fiction writers Collected here are practitioners of deep realism mind blowing experimentalism and every hybrid in between Luminaries and cult authors stand side by side with the most compelling new literary voices Nothing less than the American short story renaissance distilled down to its most relevant daring and unforgettable works New American Stories puts on wide display the true art of an American idiom Dissident Postmodernists Paul Maltby, 2016-11-11

Critics who hold that postmodernist art is essentially adversarial and apolitical have ignored the historical context of the postmodern focus on the problems of language Paul Maltby examines a major current of postmodernist fiction that can be read as a dissident response to developments of late capitalism that have transformed the field of language and communication
