Orion Blinded Essays On Claude Simon:

Orion Blinded Randi Birn, 1981 Not in catalog Orion Blinded Claude Simon Jean H. Duffy, Alastair B. Duncan, Formerly Reader in History and Philosophy of Science and Technology Alastair Duncan, 2002-01-01 This collection of essays celebrates the work of the French Nobel prize winning novelist Claude Simon Scholars reconsider the fifty years of Simon's fiction in the light of his large scale autobiographical novel Le Jardin des Plantes 1997 From a variety of perspectives postmodernist psychoanalytic aesthetic chapters reflect on the central paradox of Simon's work his writing and rewriting of an experience of war so disruptive and traumatic that words can never be adequate to communicate it Claude Simon Alastair Duncan, 2003-04-19 This book introduces novels by the Nobel Prize for Literature author Claude Simon giving emphasis to peaks in his literary achievement Claude Simon M³/₄ria Minich Brewer, 1995-01-01 Reputed to be a conservative group the Nobel Prize committee astonished the world in 1985 by giving its prize to Claude Simon one of the most adventurous and challenging of modern authors whose writing defies easy classification This study shows exactly how inventive and challenging he is Simon's works run the gamut from first person narratives to narratives without a stable perspective His novels deal with minute details of the grand stages of history world war for instance and with the historical dimensions of everyday life M³/₄ria Minich Brewer demonstrates that Simon has reformulated the standard forms of fiction to expose the logic of narrative a complex and powerful legacy populated with stereotypes too easily accepted as natural Her book brings into focus the cultural legacies embedded in narrative as well as the narrative dimensions of culture and history Simon has voiced suspicion of narrative order He never underestimates however either its pervasiveness or its powers In his novels he never dismisses narrative order as being merely a matter of formal conventions On the contrary he reveals narrative representation to be a powerful agent of some of the most violent events to which an individual is subject

Claude Simon Celia Britton, 2014-09-19 This is a major study of the Nobel prize winning French novelist Claude Simon Simon is a complex figure for all that he writes in a distinctively modern fictional tradition exemplified by Proust Joyce Beckett and Robbe Grillet his novels contain strong elements of visual representation alongside a very different kind of free floating anti realist writing Reading Between the Lines Jean H. Duffy, 1998-01-01 This is the first extended analysis of Simon's novels examining the relationship between the work of the French Nobel prize winning novelist Claude Simon and that of a number of visual artists whose work he has used as stimuli in the production of his novels Encyclopedia of Modern French Thought Christopher John Murray, 2004 This work covers not only philosophy but also all the other major disciplines including literary theory sociology linguistics political thought theology and more The 240 analytical entries examine individuals such as Bergson Durkheim Mauss Sartre Beauvoir Foucault Levi Strauss Lacan Kristeva and Derrida specific disciplines such as the arts anthropology historiography psychology and sociology key beliefs and methodologies such as Catholicism deconstruction feminism Marxism and phenomenology themes and concepts such as freedom language media and sexuality and historical political social and intellectual context From publisher's description The Avant-Postman David Vichnar, 2023-11-01 The Avant Postman explores a broad range of innovative postwar writing in France Britain and the United States Taking James Joyce's revolution of the word in Ulysses and Finnegans Wake as a joint starting point David Vichnar draws genealogical lines through the work of more than fifty writers up to the present including Alain Robbe-Grillet B S Johnson William Burroughs Christine Brooke-Rose Georges Perec Kathy Acker Iain Sinclair Hélène Cixous Alan Moore David Foster Wallace and many others Centering the exploration around five writing strategies employed by Joyce narrative parallax stylistic metempsychosis concrete writing forgery and neologising the logos the book reveals the striking continuities and developments from Joyce's day to our own

Pictures Into Words Ari J. Blatt, 2012-05-01 The explosive proliferation of pictures in advertising and pop culture mass media and cyberspace following World War II along with the profusion of critical thinking that tries to make sense of it has had wide ranging implications for cultural production as such Pictures into Words explores how this proliferation of graphic images has profoundly affected narrative writing in France especially as Ari J Blatt argues the structure content and symbolic logic of contemporary French fiction By examining a specific corpus of narratives by authors Claude Simon Georges Perec Pierre Michon and Tanguy Viel books that originate amid conjure up and indeed are essentially about pictures Blatt addresses the most salient questions pertaining to the relationship between literature and visual culture today Each of the novels considered here engages the work of several postwar artists from Robert Rauschenberg Andy Warhol Vincent van Gogh and Orson Welles to Jeff Koons Joseph L Mankiewicz Pierre Huyghe and Marcel Duchamp As Blatt's cross disciplinary readings show despite their gleeful raiding of the visual archive to generate and enrich their stories many contemporary narratives that tell tales about pictures simultaneously express a cautious skepticism toward vision and visual representation Pictures into Words examines how such novels while seemingly complicit with the visual simultaneously write back against the images they exploit reclaiming some of literature's lost ground in our visually inundated world

Robert Rauschenberg and Surrealism Gavin Parkinson, 2023-03-23 The art of Robert Rauschenberg 1925-2008 is usually viewed as quite distinct from Surrealism a movement which the artist himself displayed some hostility towards However Rauschenberg had a very positive reception among Surrealists particularly across the period 1959-69 In the face of Rauschenberg's avowals of his own literalism and insistence on his art as facts this book gathers generous evidence of the poetic metaphorical allusive associative and connotative dimensions of the artist's oeuvre as identified by Surrealists and thus extrapolates new readings from Rauschenberg's key works on that basis By viewing Rauschenberg's art against the expansion of the cultural influence of the United States in Europe in the period after the Second World War and the increasingly politicized activities of the Surrealists in the era of the Algerian War of Independence 1954-62 Robert Rauschenberg and Surrealism shows how poetic inference of the artist's work was turned towards political interpretation By analysing Rauschenberg's art in the context of Surrealism and drawing from it new interpretations and perspectives this volume simultaneously situates the Surrealist movement in 1960s American art criticism and history Encyclopedia of the Novel Paul Schellinger,2014-04-08 The Encyclopedia of the Novel is the first reference book that focuses on the development of the novel throughout the world Entries on individual writers assess the place of that writer within the development of the novel form explaining why and in exactly what ways that writer is important Similarly an entry on an individual novel discusses the importance of that novel not only from analyzing the particular innovations that novel has introduced and the ways in which it has influenced the subsequent course of the genre A wide range of topic entries explore the history criticism theory production dissemination and reception of the novel A very important component of the Encyclopedia of the Novel is its long surveys of development of the novel in various regions of the world MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures ,1981

Of Words and the World David R. Ellison,1993-03-22 Here David Ellison explores the problems encountered by France's best experimental authors writing between 1956 and 1984 when faced with the question What should my writing be about These years are characterized by the rise of the new novelists who questioned the representational function of writing as they created works of imagination that turned in upon themselves and away from exterior reality It became fashionable at one point to affirm that literature was no longer about the world but uniquely about the words on a page the signifying surface of the text Ellison tests this assumption showing that even in the most seemingly self referential fictions the words point to the world from which they can never completely separate themselves Through close readings Ellison examines the novels and theoretical writings of authors whose works are fundamental to our perception of contemporary French writing and thought Camus Robbe Grillet Simon Duras Sarraute Blanchot and Beckett The result is a new understanding of the link between the referential function of literary language and the problematic of the ethics of fiction Routledge Library Editions: Lacan Various,2021-07-28 A major influence on French intellectuals in the twentieth century Jacques Lacan has been referred to as the most controversial psychoanalyst since Freud Routledge Library Editions Lacan offers a selection of titles which examine the influence of Lacan's theories in a number of disciplines and includes an annotated bibliography of his works It brings together as a set or individual volumes a series of previously out of print titles originally published between 1983 and 1991 Jacques Lacan (Volume II) (RLE: Lacan) Michael Clark,2014-01-23 This bibliography in two volumes originally published in 1988 lists and describes works by and about Jacques Lacan published in French English and seven other languages including Japanese and Russian It incorporates and corrects where necessary all information from earlier published bibliographies of Lacan's work Also included as background works are books and essays that discuss Lacan in the course of a more general study as well as all relevant items in various bibliographic sources from many fields The Nouveau Roman Celia Britton,1992-11-15 The Nouveau Roman writers have been actively involved in the theory as well as the practice of fiction participating in a series of vigorous debates on issues such as the political significance of literature formalism and structuralism the status of the author etc This study discusses Robbe Grillet Sarraute Simon Butor and Ricardou analysing both the interaction of their own theory and fiction and their reactions to the work of figures such as Sartre Barthes Lvi Strauss Sollers and Kristeva Women by Women Roseanna Lewis Dufault,1997 While some of the featured works seem dark and pessimistic they express collectively a certain hope for a brighter more egalitarian future This anthology brings together cogent critical studies in a way that identifies and illuminates trends among Quebec s contemporary women writers

Writing in the Feminine Karen Gould,1990 Gould women s studies and French Bowling Green State U analyzes four feminist rebels all major Quebec women writers These women Nicole Brossard Madeline Gagnon Louky Bersianik and France Theoret are attempting to explode male dominated language and to construct a new language and literature of women Gould studies their work and also provides historical political and theoretical background Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Foregrounded Description in Prose Fiction José M. Lopes,1995-12-15 In this wide ranging study Jos Manuel Lopes proposes a theoretical framework for analysing the role of description in prose fiction He offers readings of texts drawn from four national literatures French Spanish Portuguese and Brazilian testing his model across a cultural and temporal spectrum This critical breadth also illustrates the significance of description in disparate contexts the postmodern novel which implicitly challenges conventional notions of foreground and background as well as the naturalist and realist fiction of the nineteenth century Lopes applies his model to detailed readings of Emile Zola s Une Page d amour Claude Simon s Histoire Benito P rez Gald s La de Bringas Corn lio Penna s A Menina Morta and Carlos de Oliveira s Finisterra In addition to exploring the interplay of description and narration these readings pay particular attention to spatial descriptions and analyse the diverse roles of description in different contexts After subjecting each fictional text to a detailed analysis which seeks to bring out the crucial aspects that contribute towards the foregrounding of descriptive passages e g mise en abyme parody modes of representation and which establishes on occasion certain relations that literary description may entertain with the other arts he attempts to isolate the primary functions of foregrounding descriptions What he seeks to demonstrate is that description constitutes a major textual component necessary for the analysis and understanding of both nineteenth and twentieth century fictional texts

Contemporary Authors: 1945 to the Present Britannica Educational Publishing,2013-06-01 Contemporary literature encompasses so many genres literary forms and themes that it would seem almost impossible to identify a unifying thread between them Yet in the tradition established by literary heavyweights who came before modern writers of all stripes and backgrounds have continued to entertain and to confront the social cultural and psychological realities of the times including everything from racial identity to war to technology with their own flair and insight The diversity of authors profiled herein from Toni Morrison to Sylvia Plath to Stephen King to David Foster Wallace attests to the scope and complexity of modern society
