Throughout his plays the patriarchal space of the American home and family is shown to victimize and oppress two of society's most marginalized groups women and queer people in Williams's plays the experiences of one group often mirror and intersect with those of the other From his earliest plays such as Candles to the Sun and Fugitive Kind to the masterpieces of his major phase including Battle of Angels Orpheus Descending The Rose Tattoo Cat on a Hot Tin Roof Period of Adjustment Suddenly Last Summer and Sweet Bird of Youth through to the much maligned but equally rich works of his late period such as Vieux Carré and Something Cloudy Something Clear Williams depicts the home as a place which restricts and suffocates those who fail to perform their expected gender role in the wider patriarchal framework of American life In its extended full length treatment of homes families and familial exiles in his theatrical output this book adds a new perspective to Williams scholarship by examining the desperate and at times futile search for love relationality and belonging that his marginalized and alienated characters frequently pursue in alternative avenues of existence
