Orthodoxy In Conversation Orthodox Ecumenical Engagements:

Orthodoxy in Conversation Emmanuel Clapsis, 2000 Here is a coherent creative set of essays by a well established Orthodox theologian who dares to address many of the critical and controversial issues of the day The author is an Orthodox ecumenist who has taken seriously the ecumenical commitment of his church and attempts to do theology in conversation with other Christian traditions and theologies in the context of the ongoing theological deliberations of the World Council of Churches and more specifically of the Faith and Order commission He deals with a wide range of issues including the Orthodox church and the ecumenical movement naming God papal primacy politics and the Christian faith population consumption and the environment violence what the Spirit says to the churches the challenge of contextual theologies and the eucharist as missionary event

Essays in Ecumenical Theology II Ivana Noble, 2022-06-08 In this volume of Essays in Ecumenical Theology Ivana Noble engages in conversations with Orthodox theologians and spiritual writers on diverse themes These include the discovery of the human heart what illumination by divine light means the relationship between prayer and attitudes and acts of social solidarity the problematic nature of sacrificial thinking as the way to express redemption through Christ the ecological dimension of theological anthropology the need for freedom to coexist with love for others and why institutions need to turn not only to their own traditions but also to the Spirit that blows where it wills

Global Eastern Orthodoxy Giuseppe Giordan, Siniša Zrinščak, 2020-02-19 This volume highlights three intertwined aspects of the global context of Orthodox Christianity religion politics and human rights The chapters in Part I address the challenges of modern human rights discourse to Orthodox Christianity and examine conditions for active presence of Orthodox churches in the public sphere of plural societies It suggests theoretical and empirical considerations about the relationship between politics and Orthodoxy by exploring topics such as globalization participatory democracy and the linkage of religious and political discourses in Russia Greece Belarus Romania and Cyprus Part II looks at the issues of diaspora and identity in global Orthodoxy presenting cases from Switzerland America Italy and Germany In doing so the book ties in with the growing interest resulting from the novelty of socio political economic and cultural changes which have forced religious groups and organizations to revise and redesign their own institutional structures practices and agendas

The Cambridge Companion to Orthodox Christian Theology Mary B. Cunningham, Elizabeth Theokritoff, 2008-12-18 This Companion focuses on the way Orthodox theological tradition is understood and lived today

Eastern Christianity and Politics in the Twenty-First Century Lucian N. Leustean, 2014-05-30 This book provides an up to date comprehensive overview of Eastern Christian churches in Europe the Middle East America Africa Asia and Australia Written by leading international scholars in the field it examines both Orthodox and Oriental churches from the end of the Cold War up to the present day The book offers a unique insight into the myriad church state relations in Eastern Christianity and tackles contemporary concerns opportunities and challenges such as religious revival after the fall of communism churches and democracy relations between

Orthodox Catholic and Greek Catholic churches religious education and monastic life the size and structure of congregations and the impact of migration secularisation and globalisation on Eastern Christianity in the twenty first century An Introduction to the Christian Orthodox Churches John Binns,2002-07-04 This clear and accessible introduction describes the life of the Orthodox Churches of the Christian East from the accession of the Emperor Constantine in 312 up to the year 2000 It explores the nature of the various churches of the Christian East both Chalcedonian and non Chalcedonian Orthodox the Church of the East and Greek Catholic Churches It explains both the common traditions and the different and sometimes divisive local characteristics The distinctive Orthodox approaches to the themes of liturgy theology monastic life and spirituality iconography popular religion mission politics and the schism between East and West are discussed in turn A final chapter examines the response of the Churches to their new freedom following the collapse of communism and the prospects for the future For Christians of the West a knowledge of Orthodoxy can open up fresh ways of looking at the Christian faith

The Ecumenical Movement Thomas E. FitzGerald,2004-04-30 What is Ecumenism How and when did it start What are its goals and how will they affect the future of the Christian churches This book answers these questions and examines the remarkable story of new encounters between Orthodox Roman Catholic Anglican Old Catholic and most Protestant churches Most of these churches have been divided for centuries over issues of theology faith and practice Ecumenism seeks to reconcile these differences and to bring the churches together into a new unity based on their commonalities and their understanding of Christian faith Here FitzGerald traces the history of the churches and their divisions and focuses on the ways in which the Ecumenical movement began and the efforts that have been made to assist the churches in overcoming age old strife animosity and misunderstanding For centuries Christian churches have remained divided over their doctrinal differences but beginning in the late nineteenth century churches and their members slowly began to emerge from their isolation They began to abandon competition mistrust and misunderstanding in an effort to seek out their common interests and faith through meetings and organizations meant to bring them together The encounters between the churches led to proposals for common prayers for unity and for common witness in society While not without difficulty these encounters have fostered a renewal in Christian theology worship and witness affecting all levels of church life The process has touched Christians all over the world in various ways FitzGerald carefully traces the history of the movement and its impact on the churches themselves as well as the believers who attend them making this important reading for all Christians and anyone interested in learning more about church division and efforts to restore unity The Gospel Among the Nations: A Documentary History of Inculturation Hunt, Robert A,2014-04-10 The Gospel Among the Nations brings together in a single volume the most important primary documents illustrating how Christians have dealt with the most fundamental issue of the churchs mission how to translate the gospel in new cultural settings The texts range from Pope Gregorys famous instructions to Augustine of Canterbury on his mission to England to W E Hockings fateful Attitudes toward People of Other Faiths

Beginning with a masterful introduction to the theme Robert Hunt assembles scores of texts that reveal the way that missionaries church leaders and local Christians have contributed to the extension of Christianity over two millennia and thus made it truly a world religion The Gospel Among the Nations is an essential resource for students researchers and practitioners in world Christian history and mission studies

John Calvin's Ecclesiology Gerard Mannion, Eduardus Van der Borgh, 2011-06-02 Many events were staged and a plethora of new books appeared to mark the quincentenary of the birth of John Calvin in 2009 But one area received considerably less attention in that anniversary year namely Calvin's ecclesiology This study explores the development and fundamental legacy of Calvin's perspectives on and relationship with the church Contributions are included which explore the later development and denominational variations of Calvin's ecclesiology along with ecumenical discussions responses to and implications of Calvin's understanding of the church There are further chapters which focus on particular aspects such as Calvin's ecclesiological method understanding of ministry the sacramental principle the invisible church etc Contributions on the use of Calvin's ecclesiology by later and modern contemporary ecclesiologists also feature This is a volume that brings together leading and emerging theological voices from Europe North America and Latino America and from across the different theological sub disciplines Significantly the book has a decidedly ecumenical perspective with writers from several different denominational traditions contributing

The Christ who Embraces Jacob Joseph, 2024-10-28 Jacob Joseph's book The Christ who Embraces An Orthodox Theology of Margins explores the intersection of Orthodox Christian mission and caste dynamics among St Thomas Syrian Orthodox Christians in India It defines a liturgical touch or embrace in the context of untouchability where people identify as equal without discrimination reflecting the inseparable unity of Christ's transcendental divine and immanent human nature

Religion and Violence Ednan Aslan, Marcia Hermansen, 2017-05-09 In this volume the authors attempt to speak freely about the potential in religions both for violence and peace I am confident that many impulses from this work will also impact the direction of churches and other religious communities such that religions all together will try to mobilize the members of their communities to actively contribute to world peace In this way religions will be perceived as part of the solution for world peace enabling them to move beyond the stigma of their damaged reputations

Anglicans and Orthodox Judith Pinnington, 2003 The story of the early Episcopal Orthodox encounter

God's Rule Suzanne Neusner, 2003-05-06 Resisting the tendency to separate the study of religion and politics editor Jacob Neusner pulls together a collection of ten essays in which various authors explain and explore the relationship between the world's major religions and political power As William Scott Green writes in the introduction Because religion is so comprehensive it is fundamentally about power it therefore cannot avoid politics Beginning with the classical sources and texts of Judaism Christianity Buddhism Islam Confucianism and Hinduism God's Rule begins to explore the complex nature of how each religion shapes political power and how religion shapes itself in relation to that power The corresponding attention to differing theories of politics and views towards non believers are important not only to studies in comparative religion but to foreign policy history and governance as well From early Christianity s relationship to the Roman Empire to Hinduism s relationship to Gandhi and the caste system God s Rule provides a basis of understanding from which undergraduates seminarians and others can begin asking questions of relationships both unavoidable and systematically uneasy Christianity, Democracy, and the Shadow of Constantine George E. Demacopoulos, Aristotle Papanikolaou, 2016-11-01 Winner of the 2017 Alpha Sigma Nu Award The collapse of communism in eastern Europe has forced traditionally Eastern Orthodox countries to consider the relationship between Christianity and liberal democracy Contributors examine the influence of Constantinianism in both the post communist Orthodox world and in Western political theology Constructive theological essays feature Catholic and Protestant theologians reflecting on the relationship between Christianity and democracy as well as Orthodox theologians reflecting on their tradition s relationship to liberal democracy The essays explore prospects of a distinctively Christian politics in a post communist post Constantinian age Christ and the Catholic Priesthood Matthew Levering, 2010 Struggle for Freedom Basilius J. Groen, 2024-12-15 The study presents ways of structuring civil codes on the basis of selected codifications from Central and Eastern Europe since the end of 18th century until the modern times In five chapters the author depicts the arrangement of an possible general part of the law of obligations of ius in re of family law and the law of persons as well as of inheritance law The focus of the study is searching the most common systematic patterns and the main differences between the socialist and bourgeois codifications Mission and Money Mari-Anna Auvinen-Pöntinen, Jonas Adelin Jørgensen, 2016-05-30 Mission and Money Christian Mission in the Context of Global Inequalities offers academic discussion about the mission of the Church in the context of contemporary economic inequalities globally challenging the reader to reconsider mission in the light of existing poverty and investigating how economic structures could be challenged in the light of ethical and spiritual considerations The book includes contributions on the subjects of poverty and inequality from the theologians economists and anthropologists who gave keynote presentations at the European Missiological Conference IAMS Europe that took place in April 2014 in Helsinki Finland This conference was a major step forward in terms of discussion between missiologists and economists on global economic structures and their influence on human dignity Contributors are Mari Anna Auvinen P ntinen Stephen B Bevans Jonathan J Bonk Ulrich Duchrow Jonas Adelin J rgensen Vesa Kanninen Veli Matti K rkk inen Tinyiko Sam Maluleke Gerrie Ter Haar Evi Voulgaraki Pissina Mika V h kangas Felix Wilfred The Freedom of God James Daryn Henry, 2018-05-30 The Freedom of God wrangles with the unfolding legacy of Christian theologian Robert Jenson and presents the first in depth study of his teaching on the Holy Spirit It is a specialist monograph that will entice those with interest in academic theology systematics and twentieth and twenty first century Christian thought especially the post Barthian historicist electionism and the post Rahnerian immanent and economic trinitarian project conversations Devoted readers of the works of Robert Jenson scholars of pneumatology third article theology or pentecostal renewal movements practitioners of liberation theology and supporters of ecumenical theology will all be particularly gripped by the analysis developed in this work As a text the Freedom of God could find a home in graduate seminars seminary classrooms and in classes for advanced undergraduates for those studying Jenson as a way into systematic theology and contemporary Christian thought or in any thematic doctrinal courses on the Holy Spirit or the Trinity Just Peace
