Os Hipogues Prehistoricos Da Quinta Do Anjo Palmela E As Economias Do Simbolico:

Os hipogeuos pré-históricos da Quinta do Anjo (Palmela) e as economias do simbólico Joaquina Soares,2003

The Megalithic Architectures of Europe Luc Laporte,Chris Scarre,2015-12-31 Megalithic monuments are among the most striking remains of the Neolithic period of northern and western Europe and are scattered across landscapes from Pomerania to Portugal Antiquarians and archaeologists early recognized the family resemblance of the different groups of tombs attributing them to maritime peoples moving along the western seaways More recent research sees them rather as the product of established early farming communities in their individual regions Yet the diversity of the tombs their chronologies and their varied cultural contexts complicates any straightforward understanding of their origins and distribution Megalithic Architectures provides new insight by focusing on the construction and design of European megalithic tombs on the tomb as an architectural project It shows how much is to be learned from detailed attention to the stages and the techniques through which tombs were built modified and enlarged and often intentionally dismantled or decommissioned The large slabs that were employed often unshaped may suggest an opportunistic approach by the Neolithic builders but this was clearly far from the case Each building project was unique and detailed study of individual sites exposes the way in which tombs were built as architectural social and symbolic undertakings Alongside the manner in which the materials were used it reveals a store of knowledge that sometimes differed considerably from one structure to another even between contemporary monuments within a single region The volume brings together regional specialists from Scandinavia Germany Britain France Belgium and Iberia to offer a series of uniquely authoritative studies Results of recent fieldwork are fully incorporated and much of the material is published here for the first time in English It provides an invaluable overview of the current state of research on European megalithic tombs

The Archaeology of the Iberian Peninsula Katina T. Lillios,2019-12-05 In this book Katina Lillios provides an up to date synthesis of the rich histories of the peoples who lived on the Iberian Peninsula between 1 400 000 the Paleolithic and 3 500 years ago the Bronze Age as revealed in their art burials tools and monuments She highlights the exciting new discoveries on the Peninsula including the evidence for some of the earliest hominins in Europe Neanderthal art interbreeding between Neanderthals and modern humans and relationships to peoples living in North Africa the Mediterranean and Western Europe This is the first book to relate the ancient history of the Peninsula to broader debates in anthropology and archaeology Amply illustrated and written in an accessible style it will be of interest to archaeologists and students of prehistoric Spain and Portugal

Between the 3rd and 2nd Millennia BC: Exploring Cultural Diversity and Change in Late Prehistoric Communities Susana Soares Lopes,Sérgio Alexandre Gomes,2021-04-01 This collection of studies on the cultural reconfigurations that occurred in western Europe between the 3rd and 2nd millennium BCE focuses on the evidence from the West of the Iberian Peninsula and one on the South of England They explore regional diversity and challenge grand narratives regarding Chalcolithic and Bronze Age communities

Reimagining Regional Analyses Tina L.

Thurston,2009-10-02 Reimagining Regional Analysis explores the interplay between different methodological and theoretical approaches to regional analysis in archaeology The past decades have seen significant advances in methods and instrumental techniques including geographic information systems the new availability of aerial and satellite images and greater emphasis on non traditional data such as pollen soil chemistry and botanical remains At the same time there are new insights into human impacts on ancient environments and increased recognition of the importance of micro scale changes in human society These factors combine to compel a reimagining of regional archaeology The authors in this volume focus on understanding individual trajectories and the historically contingent relationships between the social the economic the political and the sacred as reflected regionally Among topics considered are the social construction of landscape use of spatial patterning to interpret social variability paleoenvironmental reconstruction and human impacts and social memory and social practice This book opens a discourse around the spatial patterning of the contingent recursive relationships between people their social activities and the environment

La Prehistoria en la península Ibérica Pilar López

García,2020-11-23 El presente volumen es el resultado de la colaboración interdisciplinar de un grupo de los más destacados especialistas en el estudio de la Prehistoria peninsular que han combinado los más actuales conocimientos científicos sobre el tema para ofrecer una visión holística de un pasado que no siempre se interpreta exclusivamente a través de la cultura material El resultado es una obra completamente distinta a las hasta el momento publicadas que se aleja de una presentación meramente cronológica al permitir una lectura más temática sin necesidad de tener que leer capítulo tras capítulo para la comprensión de un periodo tan amplio como el que nos ocupa A lo largo de sus páginas se analizan aspectos como la evolución humana el paisaje la alimentación el desarrollo de la agricultura y la ganadería así como el arte desde el Paleolítico hasta el Bronce Medio
