A retreat, 33 discourses, with meditations John Cuthbert Hedley (bp. of Newport.),1894 A Retreat John Cuthbert Hedley,1894 Catalogue of All Catholic Books in English Benziger Brothers,1912 The English Catalogue of Books [annual]. ,1911 Vols 1898 include a directory of publishers The English Catalogue of Books ...: 1801-1836. Ed. and comp. by R.A. Peddie and Q. Waddington. 1914 ,1911 The English Catalogue of Books ...: 1801-1836. Ed. and comp. by R.A. Peddie and Q. Waddington. 1914 Sampson Low,1911 Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal ,1910 A Retreat Consisting of 33 Discourses with Meditation for the Use of the Clergy, Religious and Others John C. Hedley,19?? A Retreat John Cuthbert Hedley,1894 Abiding in Emptiness Bhikkhu Analayo,2024-03-12

Abiding in Emptiness presents a practice related exploration of emptiness in daily life and formal meditation based on instructions found in the Buddha's Greater and the Smaller Discourses on Emptiness This presentation provides translations of the relevant textual portions followed by explanations a summary of the main points covered in each chapter and practice instructions The presentation in what follows is firmly grounded in early Buddhist thought contextualized within the doctrinal framework provided by the early discourses in clear awareness that this differs in some respects from perspectives underlying the Chan and the Mah mudr Dzogchen traditions Versions of the Greater and the Smaller Discourses on Emptiness exist in P li Chinese and Tibetan Nevertheless meditation on emptiness in its various forms has not garnered as much attention from Therav dins as it has from practitioners of Chinese and Tibetan Buddhism In an attempt to build a bridge between these different traditions and to facilitate an adoption of emptiness practices by contemporary practitioners operating within the framework of Therav da thought the translations are based entirely on P li discourse passages The author's annotations provide a comparative perspective on such quotations The main part of each chapter in this book consists in practice related explorations of quotations from the P li version of the Greater and the Smaller Discourses on Emptiness the Mah su atasutta and the C a su atasutta Toward the end of each exploration the author presents a verse translated from some other P li text which in one way or another captures in a poetical manner some of the main points to be kept in mind and a summary of the main points covered in the exploration The first part of the verse taken up in the first chapter entirely dedicated to daily life dimensions of emptiness practice as the indispensable foundation for going deep in formal sitting can also serve to convey the main theme underlying this whole book The Bookseller ,1910 The English Catalogue of Books Sampson Low,1911 Volumes for 1898 1968 include a directory of publishers The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1910 Nectar #33 Swami Brahmeshananda,Annapurna Sarada,Rabbi Rami Shapiro,Swami Bhuteshananda,Babaji Bob Kindler,Lex Hixon,Llewellyn Vaughn-Lee,Swami Aseshananda,2018-01-01 In an issue dedicated almost entirely to the spiritual artform of meditation Nectar of Nondual Truth explores and presents this most needed and necessary facet of spiritual life through the lighted windows of various religious traditions in conscious operation in today's world Yogic based eight limbed meditation upon everything from objects in matter to the realization of a yogi's conscious Essence is taken up Meditation on the timeless beneficial utterance of divine names in a tradition that also favors Reality as nameless is studied thoroughly by a Rabbi via the Jewish tradition Then even the very breath that utters the divine names is inspected in an article on meditation by a teacher in the Sufi tradition The striking and sobering question asked in several traditions of India that of Who Am I is looked at first hand by an advanced meditator on personal retreat in the Chan Zen tradition who then also takes his place as an interviewer to question a Japanese Roshi about meditation practice in the Soto Zen tradition Three revered Swamis of the Ramakrishna Order offer up their insights into this superlative examination of meditation and meditator from different perspectives Specifically the very purpose of sitting still and looking within to find the purpose of the entire practice is presented by a long time practitioner and finally an article scrutinizing this most subtle of all yogas from the succinctly nondual position is pondered via the noble Advaita Vedanta perspective Thus does this age old and crucial principle of inmost practice known in Raja Yoga as the singular doorway to Samadhi or Nirvana receive a thorough observation from all angles of sensitive experienced human awareness

The Publisher, 1910 Understanding the Consecrated Life in Canada Jason Zuidema, 2015-12-21 The story of the consecrated life in Canada since the 1960s should be about much more than numerical decline Although the falling numbers are significant among Catholic religious in communities that pre date Vatican II many communities continue to show stability and even growth This book provides nuance to that story by adding detailed portraits of movements communities and institutions In four parts this book presents essays from the leading scholars on religious life in Canada that seek to address the state of religious communities dedicated to religious virtuosity normally characterized by formal promises of chastity poverty and obedience The essays examine a broad range of topics related to the general state of consecrated or religious or monastic life in contemporary Canadian Christian and Buddhist traditions In the first section the contributors trace the demographics and definitions of religious life in Canada The second section examines Canadian developments in Catholic religious life during the Vatican II and the post Vatican II eras A third section explores trends in contemporary Canadian religious life while the fourth section describes the consecrated life in other Canadian religious traditions

Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1905 Reconstructing Early Buddhism Roderick S. Bucknell, 2022-10-20 Addresses key and contested questions regarding early Buddhism revealing the path of meditative practice most likely followed by the Buddha Practical Pursuits Janine Anderson Sawada, 2004-05-31 The idea that personal cultivation leads to social and material well being became widespread in late Tokugawa Japan 1600-1868 Practical Pursuits explores theories of personal development that were diffused in the early nineteenth century by a network of religious groups in the Edo Tokyo area and explains how after the Meiji Restoration of 1868 the leading members of these communities went on to create ideological coalitions inspired by the pursuit of a modern form of cultivation Various engaged in divination Shinto purification rituals and Zen practice these individuals ultimately used informal political associations to promote the Confucian style assumption that personal improvement is the basis for national prosperity This wide ranging yet painstakingly researched study represents a new direction in historical analysis Where previous scholarship has used large conceptual units like Confucianism and Buddhism as its main actors and has emphasized the discontinuities in Edo and Meiji religious life Sawada addresses the history of religion in nineteenth century Japan at the level of individuals and small groups She employs personal cultivation as an interpretive system crossing familiar boundaries to consider complex linguistic philosophical and social interconnections

The Making of the New Negro Anna Pochmara, 2011 The Making of the New Negro examines black masculinity in the period of the New Negro Harlem Renaissance which for many decades did not attract a lot of scholarly attention until in the 1990s many scholars discovered how complex significant and fascinating it was Using African American published texts American archives and unpublished writings and contemporaneous European discourses this book focuses both on the canonical figures of the New Negro Movement and African American culture such as W E B Du Bois Booker T Washington Alain Locke and Richard Wright and on writers who have not received as much scholarly attention despite their significance for the movement such as Wallace Thurman Its perspective combines gender sexuality and race studies with a thorough literary analysis and historicist investigation an approach that has not been extensively applied to analyze the New Negro Renaissance
