Cree, 2013-10-31 What are the key ideas that underpin social work practice This inspiring Reader brings together some of the most significant ideas which have informed social work practice over the last forty years Exploring these fundamental ideas the book includes commentaries that allow the reader to understand the texts on their own terms as well as to be aware of their relations to each other and to the wider social work context An accessible introduction contextualises the reader summarising the main themes and highlighting key issues The book is then divided into three main sections each presenting key texts which have contributed to the development of the profession of social work social work knowledge and values social work skills and practice There is no settled view or easy consensus about what social work is and should be and the ideas reflected in this volume are themselves diverse and complex The contributions are drawn from a wide range of perspectives psychological sociological philosophical educational and political as well as perspectives which are grounded in the experiences of practitioners and those who use services This important resource is essential reading for all social work students The SAGE Encyclopedia of African Cultural Heritage in North America Mwalimu J. Shujaa, Kenya J. Shujaa, 2015-07-13 The Encyclopedia of African Cultural Heritage in North America provides an accessible ready reference on the retention and continuity of African culture within the United States Our conceptual framework holds first that culture is a form of self knowledge and knowledge about self in the world as transmitted from one person to another Second that African people continuously create their own cultural history as they move through time and space Third that African descended people living outside of Africa are also contributors to and participate in the creation of African cultural history Entries focus on illuminating Africanisms cultural retentions traceable to an African origin and cultural continuities ongoing practices and processes through which African culture continues to be created and formed Thus the focus is more culturally specific and less concerned with the broader transatlantic demographic political and geographic issues that are the focus of similar recent reference works We also focus less on biographies of individuals and political and economic ties and more on processes and manifestations of African cultural heritage and continuity FEATURES A two volume A to Z work available in a choice of print or electronic formats 350 signed entries each concluding with Cross references and Further Readings 150 figures and photos Front matter consisting of an Introduction and a Reader's Guide organizing entries thematically to more easily guide users to related entries Signed articles concluding with cross references North-south Linkages and Connections in Continental and Diaspora African Literatures African Literature Association. Meeting, 2005 This volume collects some of the best lectures at the African Literature Association's 25th annual conference held in 1999 The conference brought together for the first time a large number of scholars creative writers and artists from Northern Africa and their counterparts from Sub Saharan Africa The conference and this collection highlight the inspiring and stimulating dialogue between two literary and cultural areas that have often been artificially compartmentalised The essays draw surprising connections and illustrate the breadth and dynamism of African literature
