Return Afghanistan:

Return Migration to Afghanistan Marieke van Houte, 2017-02-08 This book overcomes the dichotomies generalizations and empirical shortcomings that surround the understanding of return migration within the migration development peace building nexus Using the concept of multidimensional embeddedness it provides an encompassing view of returnees identification with and participation in one or multiple spaces of belonging It introduces Afghan return migration from Europe as a relevant case study since the country's protracted history of conflict and migration shows how the globally changing political discourses of recent decades have shaped migration strategies The author's findings highlight the fact that policy is responding inadequately to complex issues of migration conflict development and return since the expectations on which it is based only account for a small minority of returnees This thought provoking book will appeal to scholars of migration and refugee studies as well as a wider audience of sociologists anthropologists demographers and policy makers

Return Migration and Psychosocial Wellbeing Zana Vathi, Russell King, 2017-03-27 Return migration is a topic of growing interest among academics and policy makers Nonetheless issues of psychosocial wellbeing are rarely discussed in its context Return Migration and Psychosocial Wellbeing problematises the widely held assumption that return to the country of origin especially in the context of voluntary migrations is a psychologically safe process By exploding the forced voluntary dichotomy it analyses the continuum of experiences of return and the effect of time the factors that affect the return process and associated mobilities and their multiple links with returned migrants wellbeing or psychosocial issues Drawing research encompassing four different continents Europe North America Africa and Asia to offer a blend of studies this timely volume contrasts with previous research which is heavily informed by clinical approaches and concepts as the contributions in this book come from various disciplinary approaches such as sociology geography psychology politics and anthropology Indeed this title will appeal to academics NGOs and policy makers working on migration and psychosocial wellbeing and undergraduate and postgraduate students who are interested in the fields of migration social policy ethnicity studies health studies human geography sociology and anthropology

Afghanistan's Endless War Larry P. Goodson,2011-07-01 Going beyond the stereotypes of Kalashnikov wielding Afghan mujahideen and black turbaned Taliban fundamentalists Larry Goodson explains in this concise analysis of the Afghan war what has really been happening in Afghanistan in the last twenty years Beginning with the reasons behind Afghanistan s inability to forge a strong state its myriad cleavages along ethnic religious social and geographical fault lines Goodson then examines the devastating course of the war itself He charts its utter destruction of the country from the deaths of more than 2 million Afghans and the dispersal of some six million others as refugees to the complete collapse of its economy which today has been replaced by monoagriculture in opium poppies and heroin production The Taliban some of whose leaders Goodson interviewed as recently as 1997 have controlled roughly 80 percent of the country but themselves have shown increasing discord along ethnic and political lines Countering the Threat of Failure in Afghanistan United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Foreign Relations,2010 Endgame for the West in Afghanistan? Charles A. Miller,2010 Analyses of the War in Afghanistan frequently mention the declining or shaky domestic support for the conflict in the United States and among several U S allies This paper dates the beginning of this decline back to the resurgence of the Taliban in 2005 06 and suggests that the deteriorating course of the war on the ground in Afghanistan itself along with mounting casualties is the key reason behind this drop in domestic support for the war Reconstructing Afghanistan International Monetary Fund,2005-04-15 This book which reflects the IMF staff s work in Afghanistan from early 2002 through the first quarter of 2004 provides an overview of the institutional and economic achievements in Afghanistan in the post Taliban period that is from late 2001 to early 2004 During this period the staff focused on helping often under difficult circumstances the Afghan authorities quickly establish a basic framework for economic management and policies including rebuilding key institutions Reconstructing Afghanistan describes the strong economic recovery that took place during 2002 and 2003 traces the formulation and implementation of the government s budgetary policy discusses the progress made in rebuilding fiscal institutions and outlines the challenges and issues that the authorities faced in the area of monetary and exchange rate policy

Whose Freedom, Security and Justice? Anneliese Baldaccini, Elspeth Guild, Helen Toner, 2007-06-28 This book brings together contributions from some of the leading authorities in the field of EU immigration and asylum law to reflect upon developments since the Amsterdam Treaty and particularly the Tampere European Council in 1999 At Tampere Heads of State and Government met to set guidelines for the implementation of the powers and competences introduced by the Amsterdam Treaty and make the development of the Union as an area of freedom security and justice a reality Since 1999 a substantial body of law and policy has developed but the process has been lengthy and the results open to critique This book presents a series of analyses of and reflections on the major legal instruments and policy themes with the underlying question to what extent the ideals held out of freedom security and justice accessible to all are in fact reflected in these legislative and policy developments Has freedom from terrorism and the spectre of illegal or irregular migration and increasingly strict border securitisation and surveillance overshadowed the freedom of the migrant to seek entry or residence for legitimate touristic work study or family reasons a secure refuge from persecution and effective access to justice In 2004 the Heads of State and Government presented a programme for the next stage of development in these areas the Hague Programme and the Directives and Regulations that have been agreed are now being transposed and applied in Member States legal systems What are the main challenges in the years ahead as the Hague Programme and the existing legislative acquis are implemented
