Reunion Healing Our Victim Offender:

Controversies in Victimology Laura J. Moriarty, 2008-10-01 Controversies in Victimology features original works of noted scholars and practitioners aiming to shed light on the debates over the media attention on and the psychology behind victimization This book discusses the controversies from all sides of the debate and attempts to reconcile the issues in order to move the field forward Organized around topical areas focusing on 10 specific issues Academic experts and professionals in varied fields examine controversial issues

Forget Them Not Joanne M. Hemenway, 2010-07-09 To witness effectively and powerfully to Christian testimonies of care and compassion of justice and mercy of healing and wholeness it is necessary to foster awareness of the realities of the present system of retributive justice if there is to be any hope of transformation to a system of justice which is restorative Forget Them Not provides a history of the prison system as a means of punishment contrasting it with the relatively recent but growing practice of restorative justice Joanne Hemenway explores the concept of disconnection as radical evil as a separation from God who is the source of our being and shows how our present approach to punishment fosters this evil The present system with its motif of retributive justice generates shame rejection and loneliness which stokes the fires of anger and rage This breeds deep disconnection which only serves to fuel further cycles of violence Hemenway presents three vignettes designed to help explore forgiveness in the context of both retributive and restorative justice To promote healing and connection Forget Them Not introduces compassionate witnessing in prison ministry as a way to develop awareness and empowerment

No Place for Abuse Catherine Clark Kroeger, Nancy Nason-Clark, 2001-01-01 Representing the International Task Force on Abuse Catherine Clark Kroeger and Nancy Nason Clark help us hear the cries of abused women and find concrete ways for the church to respond so that no home will be a place of abuse

Transformative Moments in Chaplaincy Donald Stoesz, Joan Palardy, 2024-05-06 The book celebrates Rev Dr Pierre and Judy Allard s fifty years of reconciliation ministry by weaving their life experiences within broader initiatives started within Canada and overseas Three quality moments of time referred to as kairotic events within the contemporary history of corrections and chaplaincy are identified The rise of prison visitation and ex offender reintegration organizations across Canada in the 1960s and 70s represents the first quality moment of time Rev Dr Pierre Allard s collaboration with Correctional Service Canada Commissioner Ole Ingstrup in the early 1980s in developing a new Mission Statement for the Service represents a second kairotic moment Pierre and Judy Allard s establishment of Just Equipping in 2006 as a response to an international call to bring about reconciliation between offenders and victims in Rwanda and other countries in Africa represents a third quality moment of time The book analyses these three historical occasions and weaves them together with nine other Canadian chaplains stories of prison ministry

Freeing the Oppressed Ron Clark, 2009-09-01 When Jesus spoke at his local synagogue he boldly proclaimed that he was the one sent to free those who were oppressed He came to provide hope peace and safety to those suffering in the world When he left this earth his followers were left with the task of continuing this ministry Statistics suggest that in America one in four women has experienced physical violence in an intimate relationship Dating violence intimate partner violence and child abuse rank as some of our nation s largest problems Men are also being abused by intimate partners parents or care providers at increasing rates The statistic is even more alarming worldwide Unfortunately these statistics represent only reported incidents The rates of verbal emotional and spiritual abuse are even higher In addition countless women are encouraged by clergy to return to their abusive spouses The faith community while called by God to free the oppressed has been slow to respond to this sin against humanity Few seminaries offer quality domestic violence prevention training for clergy However clergy still continue to be sought for help from the community and as advocates for victims of domestic violence A partnership between the church and community locally and abroad is necessary if we wish to transform humans caught in this form of oppression In Setting the Captives Free Ron Clark proposed a theology of addressing domestic violence and its application for clergy Freeing the Oppressed is a book that seeks to condense Clark s previous work into a readable form for those seeking spiritual answers concerning abuse and batterer intervention and for helpers of those caught in the cycle of family violence It is also designed as an outreach for those seeking help from the faith community

Called to Forgive Anthony B. Thompson, Denise George, 2019-06-04 While the murder of his wife devastated Anthony Thompson he and three other relatives of victims chose to privately and publicly forgive the shooter Years later the church and community still struggle to understand the family members deliberate choice to forgive the racist murderer But as Charlestonians have witnessed these incredible acts of forgiveness something significant has happened to the community black and white leaders and residents have united coming together peaceably and even showing acts of selfless love This book is the account of Anthony s wife s murder the grief he experienced and how and why he made the radical choice to forgive the killer But beyond that Anthony goes on to teach what forgiveness can and should look like in each of our lives both personally in our communities and even in our nation After much pain reflection and study Thompson shares how true biblical love and mercy differ from the way these ideas are reflected in our culture Be inspired by this remarkable story and discover how the difficult decision to forgive can become the key to radical change      Parent-Child Reunion Yona Kreiger,AI,2025-02-17 Parent Child Reunion offers a beacon of hope for those navigating the challenging terrain of parent child estrangement It tackles the complex dynamics of fractured family relationships providing insights into rebuilding bonds that may seem irreparably broken The book emphasizes that estrangement is a process not a single event influenced by individual histories and societal expectations Factors such as unresolved conflicts differing values and communication breakdowns can lead to distance Interestingly the book highlights how evolving societal norms around parental roles and individual autonomy can inadvertently contribute to these rifts This book uniquely emphasizes actionable advice steering clear of generalizations to offer specific strategies for reconciliation It explores the psychological barriers hindering reconnection and provides practical steps for initiating and sustaining a reunion process Using case studies research and interviews the book progresses from defining estrangement and its impact to offering strategies for initiating reconciliation The book underscores the importance of understanding empathy and open communication empowering readers to take proactive steps toward healing and mending broken bonds

The Ascent of Humanity Charles Eisenstein,2013-02-05 The author of The More Beautiful World Our Hearts Know Is Possible explores the history and potential future of civilization tracing the converging crises of our age to the illusion of the separate self Our disconnection from one another and the natural world has mislaid the foundations of science religion money technology economics medicine and education as we know them It has fired our near pathological pursuit of technological Utopias even as we push ourselves and our planet to the brink of collapse Fortunately an Age of Reunion is emerging out of the birth pangs of an earth in crisis Our journey of separation hasn t been a terrible mistake but an evolutionary process and an adventure in self discovery Even in our darkest hour Eisenstein sees the possibility of a more beautiful world not through the extension of millennia old methods of management and control but by fundamentally reimagining ourselves and our systems We must shift away from our Babelian efforts to build ever higher towers to heaven and instead turn out attention to creating a new kind of civilization one designed for beauty rather than height      Pleiadian Perspectives on Human Evolution Amorah Quan Yin,1996-05-01 The Pleiadian Emissaries of Light provide this fascinating chronicle of human spiritual evolution from a galactic perspective This wider history of our solar system restores the long forgotten connection of humankind with Venus Mars Maldek and Earth The truth about our ancient past is uncovered helping us to remember the experiences that have caused us to function dualistically and guiding us toward karmic wholeness as unified and divine beings      Forgiveness and the Healing Process Cynthia Ransley,Terri Spy,2004-03 Many people come for help because they remain stuck in a destructive relationship job or legal battle or with painful memories of child abuse But does it necessarily help to forgive      A Time for Healing David E. Morgan PhD,2013-01-30 Today in real families only a very small portion of the population comes from nurturing and supportive homes most individuals have been products of dysfunctional families instead In A Time for Healing author Dr David E Morgan provides a study of a dysfunctional family and presents principles necessary for sustaining a healthy family unit Through the interplay of the fictional four generation Gardner family A Time for Healing illustrates some events that can cause a family to be dysfunctional reveals the carnage left from the pain and discusses how to eradicate it The Gardners story shows how unhealthy family rules of behavior are passed down from parents to children and what a devastating effect this process has on families relationships organizational lives and society With ideas gleaned from more than forty years as an educator in the Chicago public schools including both part time and full time in higher education Morgan shows how we can envision and create a better way forward and avoid the imperfections of family dysfunction in the future A Time for Healing offers help for reclaiming the family by creating real effective positive change Cleaning up the family is about character communication forgiveness healing integrity love redemption respect understanding and the ownership of our acts      Free in Deed Craig L. Nesson, 2022 Free in Deed provides an imaginative and succinct introduction to Lutheran ethics which the author contends is finally neighbor ethics The gospel of Jesus Christ sets us free to serve neighbors including all creation and their well being This Lutheran framework provides a distinctive approach for navigating social issues in tumultuous times      Forgiven but Not Forgotten Ambrose Mong, 2020-12-09 This work explores issues of forgiveness and reconciliation in countries that had experienced political conflicts civil war and even genocide It attempts to move beyond mere discussion by examining case studies and the initiatives taken in dialogue and reconciliation In many cases religion can be a force for peace and play a significant role in resolving conflicts This work also examines the relationship between justice and forgiveness emphasizing that there will be no peace without justice and no justice without forgiveness Human justice is fragile Thus respect for rights and responsibilities must include forgiveness in order to heal and restore relationships      Dimensions Of Forgiveness Everett L. Worthington, 2009-06-14 The scientific study of forgiveness is a new approach to an age old problem For thousands of years people have practiced forgiveness within religious systems Now the new field of scholarly research of forgiveness reveals the beneficial aspects of the process This volume draws from papers presented by research scientists and theologians at a conference on forgiveness sponsored by the John Templeton Foundation Contributors include Elliot Dorff and Martin Marty discussing religious interpretations followed by social implications explained by Kenneth Pargament and Mark Rye Roy Baumeister Julie Exline and Kristin Sommer present the victim s point of view Other contributors focusing on the forgiveness research are Everett Worthington Robert Enright Catherine Coyle Carl Thoresen Frederic Luskin and Alex Harris An annotated bibliography by Michael McCullough Julie Exline and Roy Baumeister covers the empirical literature on the subject Lewis Smedes concludes with the four steps necessary for forgiveness moving from estrangement to forgiveness to reconciliation to hope The flames of violence engulfing the world have prompted social scientists to look for fresh solutions one of which is forgiveness Although theologians and philosophers have written much on the subject social scientists subjected it to benign neglect until 1985 when some empirical research began This is a collection of papers from a symposium convened to define the field and lay the foundation for future research The authors are major contributors in the field and they have succeeded admirably in their mandate Library Journal      Recovering from Incest Evangeline Kane,1989      Restorative justice & Violent Radicalisation in criminal justice settings The RDAVR Partnership,2022-05-01 This training handbook aims to provide insights into the topic of violent radicalisation and the usage of restorative dialogue for its prevention and reduction combat It is part of the ERASMUS project RDaVR Restorative Dialogue against Violent Radicalisation and it was written by the partner organisations involved RJ4All BOSEV I F CPIP Sinergia Tuzla and Casa Eslava The purpose of the handbook is to provide more in depth information about restorative justice for professionals working with offenders ex offenders or people at risk of violent radicalisation and group violence Restorative justice is not in opposition to current criminal justice practices but complementary It has proven to provide the justice system with alternative approaches that when implemented properly can increase victim satisfaction reduce re offending and increase community cohesion Throughout the handbook different aspects of violent radicalisation and restorative justice are presented from a general introduction of the topic to example of trauma informed practice This information is presented in six modules each of which concludes with a brief quiz Thus it is believed that through this handbook and the project overall the existing competences of personnel who support criminal justice professionals will be extended On the other side those who lack this type of knowledge can develop skills that will allow them to work better and more effectively with the target group Co funded by the Erasmus Grant Agreement number 2020 1 UK01 KA204 079115 and coordinated by Dr Theo Gavrielides To cite this ebook Gavrielides T 2022 Restorative justice Violent Radicalisation in criminal justice settings A training handbook London RJ4All Publications ISBN 978 1 911634 61 4 DOI 10 13140 RG 2 2 22380 44166

Christian Theism and Moral Philosophy Michael D. Beaty,Carlton D. Fisher,Mark Nelson,1998 These seminal essays will be of interest to scholars and students of religious ethics but also of interest to those of mainstream moral philosophy who work from a Christian worldview as well as to non Christians with an interest in the relation between Christian theism and moral philosophy      Healing Violent Men David J. Livingston, Violence forgiveness and healing Domestic violence is a widespread though largely invisible problem often exacerbated by the pastoral urge to keep the family together at all costs Yet if that is not a solution how should the church relate to batterers I believe that the Christian community if it is to be genuinely a community of healing and hope must attend to both the victims and the perpetrators of domestic violence says David Livingston Addressing the complex phenomenon of intimate violence against wives lovers and children Livingston profiles batterers and battering and traces it to larger cultural pathologies He explores the ambiguous role of religion and then offers practical advice of pastoral and programmatic efforts to embrace simultaneously the twin Christian imperatives of forgiveness and responsibility      Restorative Justice and Civil Society Heather Strang,John Braithwaite,2001-05-02

Advocates of restorative justice question the state's ability to deliver satisfactory justice to the community both in criminal and other cases. This collaborative 2001 volume looks at the burgeoning restorative justice movement and considers the relationship between restorative justice and civil society, examining debates and exploring ideas about who should control restorative justice: the state or civil society. A diverse range of chapters written by leaders in the field engage with different aspects of restorative justice. Genuinely international, the book addresses aspects of civil society including schools, families, churches, and private workplaces; the women's movement; victims of crime; and indigenous groups. It also considers broader issues such as democracy, human rights, access, and equity. A dynamic and provocative volume, this book attempts to bring the ideals of restorative justice to life so that victims, offenders, their families, and communities have more of a say in the justice process.
