

A scenic landscape at sunset or sunrise. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm, golden glow over the scene. A winding road leads from the foreground into the distance, flanked by dry grass and shrubs. In the background, there are rolling hills and mountains under a cloudy sky. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

assume that punishment is criminal punishment carried out by the State Punishment is however a richer phenomenon and it occurs in many contexts This book contains a general account of punishment which overcomes the difficulties of competing accounts Recognizing punishment's manifoldness is valuable not merely in contributing to conceptual clarity but in that this recognition sheds light on the complicated problem of punishment's justification Insofar as they narrowly presuppose that punishment is criminal punishment most apparent solutions to the tension between consequentialism and retributivism are rather unenlightening if we attempt to apply them in other contexts Moreover this presupposition has given rise to an unwieldy variety of accounts of retributivism which are less helpful in contexts other than criminal punishment Treating punishment comprehensibly helps us to better understand how it differs from similar phenomena and to carry on the discussion of its justification fruitfully

Should You Judge This Book By Its Cover? Julian Baggini, 2009-09-03 A philosopher takes a second look at sayings proverbs and bits of homespun wisdom Every society needs its guardian of good sense Baggini is ours The Financial Times These short stimulating and entertaining capsules of philosophy delve into the familiar words that live in our consciousness yet are rarely examined Should you really do as the Romans do when in Rome and practice what you preach Is the grass always in fact greener on the other side of the fence and is there ever smoke without fire Is beauty always in the eye of the beholder and is it actually better to be safe than sorry From the popular author of The Pig That Wants to Be Eaten cofounder of The Philosophers Magazine and academic director of the Royal Institute of Philosophy this is a witty deeply thought provoking reminder that we should never stop asking questions
