Displaced Memories M. Edurne Portela, 2009 Displaced Memories analyzes the representation of traumatic memories political imprisonment torture survival and exile in the literary works of Alicia Kozameh Alicia Partnoy and Nora Strejilevich survivors of Argentina's Dirty War 1976-1983 Beginning with an examination of the history of Argentina's last dictatorship the conditions that led the authors to exile and the contexts in which the texts were published Portela provides the theoretical tools for the understanding of narratives of trauma and displacement caused by political violence The author proposes a theory that critiques post structuralist paradigms of trauma which present trauma as an unclaimed experience impossible to apprehend as she argues for an analysis of the symbolic uses of language presenting trauma as a claimed experience that can be brought into representation and therefore create the conditions of possibility for working through

Disappearing Acts Diana Taylor, 1997 Taylor uses performance theory to explore how public spectacle both builds and dismantles a sense of national and gender identity Here nation is understood as a product of communal imaginings that are rehearsed written and staged and spectacle is the desiring machine at work in those imaginings Taylor argues that the founding scenario of Argentineness stages the struggle for national identity as a battle between men fought on over and through the feminine body of the Motherland She shows how the military's representations of itself as the model of national authenticity established the parameters of the conflict in the 70s and 80s feminized the enemy and positioned the public limiting its ability to respond Cambridge English Prepare! After Exile Amy K. Kaminsky,1999 Can an exiled writer ever really go home again What of the writers of Argentina Uruguay and Chile whose status as exiles in the 1970s and 1980s largely defined their identities and subject matter After Exile takes a critical look at these writers at the effect of exile on their work and at the complexities of homecoming a fraught possibility when democracy was restored to each of these countries Both famous and lesser known writers people this story of dislocation and relocation among them Jose Donoso Ana Vasquez Luisa Valenzuela Cristina Peri Rossi and Mario Benedetti In their work and their predicament Amy K Kaminsky considers the representation of both physical uprootedness and national identity or more precisely an individual s identity as a national subject Here national identity is not the double abstraction of identity and nation but a person s sense of being and belonging that derives from memories and experiences of a particular place Because language is crucial to this connection Kaminsky explores the linguistic isolation miscommunication and multilingualism that mark late exile and post exile writing She also examines how gender difference affects the themes and rhetoric of exile how for example traditional projections of femininity such as the idea of a mother country are used to allegorize exile Describing exile as a process sometimes of acculturation sometimes of alienation this work fosters a new understanding of how writers live and work in relation to space and place particularly the place called home

Historical Dictionary of the Dirty Wars David Kohut,Olga Vilella,2016-11-16 The Historical Dictionary of the Dirty Wars coversthe period 1954 1990 in South America when authoritarian regimes waged war on subversion both real and imagined The term dirty war guerra sucia though originally associated with the military dictatorship in Argentina from 1976 to 1983 has since been applied to neighboring dictatorships in Paraguay 1954 1989 Brazil 1964 1985 Bolivia 1971 1981 Uruguay 1973 1985 and Chile 1973 1990 Although the concept is by no means peculiar to Latin America the term has become a byword for state sponsored repression anywhere in the world

Taking Risks Julie Shayne, 2014-06-16 Taking Risks offers a creative interdisciplinary approach to narrating the stories of activist scholarship by women. The essays are based on the textual analysis of interviews, oral histories, ethnography, video, storytelling, and theater. The contributors come from many disciplinary backgrounds including theater, history, literature, sociology, feminist studies, and cultural studies. The topics range from the underground library movement in Cuba, femicide in Ju rez, community radio in Venezuela, video archives in Colombia, exiled feminists in Canada, memory activism in Argentina, sex worker activists in Brazil, rural feminists in Nicaragua, to domestic violence organizations for Latina immigrants in Texas. Each essay addresses two themes: telling stories and taking risks. The authors understand women activists across the Americas as storytellers who, along with the authors themselves, work to fill the Latin American and Caribbean studies archives with histories of resistance. In addition to sharing the activists' stories, the contributors weave in discussions of scholarly risk-taking to speak to the challenges and importance of elevating the storytellers and their histories.

Negative Emotions and Transitional Justice Mihaela Mihai, 2016-03-22
 Vehement resentment and indignation are pervasive in societies emerging from dictatorship or civil conflict. How can institutions channel these emotions without undermining the prospects for democracy? Emphasizing the need to recognize and constructively engage negative public emotions, Mihaela Mihai contributes theoretically and practically to the growing field of transitional justice. Drawing on an extensive philosophical literature and case studies of democratic transitions in South Africa, South America, and Eastern Europe, her book rescues negative emotions from their bad reputation and highlights the obstacles and the opportunities such emotions create for democracy. By valorizing negative emotions either through the judicial review of transitional justice bills or the criminal trials of victimizers, institutions realize the value of respect and concern for all while contributing to a culture that is hospitable to democracy.

Communal Feminisms Gabriella Gutierrez y Muhs, 2009-12-01 Communal Feminisms explores identity and exile from three different perspectives: theory, interviews, and imaginative literature. The first part of this book describes and defines exile within identity; the second part delivers ten interviews and examines the socio-historical construction of exile through feminine Chicano literature and Chilean literature created and circulated during the Pinochet regime; and the third part contains a collection of unpublished original works from each author interviewed. Including the interviews and creative works in both English and Spanish, Dr. Gabriella Gutierrez y Muhs emphasizes the need to publish bilingual works without alienating English readers. This uniquely crafted collection will appeal to scholars across disciplines.
