The Native Tribes of South West Africa Carl Hugo Linsingen Hahn, Heinrich Vedder, Louis Fourie, 1928 Published by the South African colonial administration in the late 1920s the purpose of this book was to present to the League of Nations a short sketch of each of the principal tribes in Namibia Three of the chapters were written by Heinrich Vedder The Herero The Namas The Berg Damara while the chapters on The Owambos and The Bushmen were written by C H L Hahn and L Fourie two South African colonial officials The articles are mainly concerned with anthropological zoöism and are quite interesting as a distillation of the prejudices of colonial officials and as a reflection of the knowledge they thought they had on the historical ethnological background of the peoples in the territory The interest of the authors lie in magico religious beliefs and superstition physical characteristics puberty and initiation rites laws and customs the holy fire and marriage and courtship while there is less information on social conditions material culture production and trade The contributions by Vedder contain some sections on history based on premises such as that the history of the Berg Damaras commences with the history of missionary activities amongst them There are several photos and a brief bibliography at the end of each chapter Eriksen Moorsom 1989
