Ellinwood Jr Reversing the Gaze Geneviève Makaping, 2023-01-13 Tired of being scrutinized criticized and fetishized for her black skin Cameroon born scholar Geneviève Makaping turns the tables on Italy's white majority regarding them through the same unsparing gaze to which minorities have traditionally been subjected As she candidly recounts her experiences first across Africa and then as a migrant Black woman in Italy Makaping describes acts of racist aggression that are wearying and degrading to encounter on a daily basis She also offers her perspective on how various forms of inequality based on race color gender and class feed off each other Reversing the Gaze invites readers to confront the question of racism through the retelling of everyday occurrences that we might have experienced as victims perpetrators or witnesses Reversing the Gaze Amar Singh, Lloyd I. Babylonian Jews and Sasanian Imperialism in Late Antiquity Simcha Gross, 2024-02-29 From the image offered by the Babylonian Talmud Jewish elites were deeply embedded within the Sasanian Empire 224 651 CE The Talmud is replete with stories and discussions that feature Sasanian kings Zoroastrian magi fire temples imperial administrators Sasanian laws Persian customs and more quotidian details of Jewish life Yet in the scholarly literature on the Babylonian Talmud and the Jews of Babylonia the Sasanian Empire has served as a backdrop to a decidedly parochial Jewish story having little if any direct impact on Babylonian Jewish life and especially the rabbis Babylonian Jews and Sasanian Imperialism in Late Antiquity advances a radically different understanding of Babylonian Jewish history and Sasanian rule Building upon recent scholarship Simcha Gross portrays a more immanent model of Sasanian rule within and against which Jews invariably positioned and defined themselves Babylonian Jews realized their traditions teachings and social position within the political social religious and cultural conditions generated by Sasanian rule

Old Age and Agency Emmanuelle Tulle, 2004 This book is about rethinking the ways in which we make sense of social action or agency in later life The contributions in this collection challenge traditional academic approaches to the study of later life which arguably often deny older people agency Social gerontology and the wider society should be more reflexive and rather than contribute to the continued marginalisation of older people should draw attention to the extent to which the latter's actions may be understood within the set of normalising discourses which people have to manage and negotiate as they get old The purpose of this collection is to continue this process by providing philosophical theoretical conceptual and empirical direction for a reflexive social gerontology This book argues that the management of later life has become complex caught as it is within a broad discourse which continues to construct old age as a time of decline and dependency but has shifted the burden of responsibility for the avoidance of decline on individuals metropolitan prisons and schools shifted their attention from the body to the confined soul colonial disciplinary institutions ensured that race was firmly attached to the body and its habits They also engage the historiography that has sought to underline the challenges of reconciling Michel Foucault and Edward Said They ask whether the liberating possibilities of the racialized and embodied native self were confined to inversions and rearrangements of given normative hierarchies or if we can occasionally glimpse radical departures and alternative configurations of power
