Review of Developments in Transport in the ESCAP Region, 2003 United Nations. Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific, 2003 Review of Developments in Transport in the ESCAP Region, 2003 United Nations. Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific, 2003 Review of Developments in Transport in Asia and the Pacific, 2005 Review of Developments in Transport in the ESCAP Region ..., 2007 Review of Developments in Transport and Communications in the ESCAP Region, 1996-2001 United Nations. Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific, 2001 This publication provides a review of progress made in the transport sector in the ESCAP region since 1996 Over this period the development of roads railways shipping ports inland waterways and the air transport sector has shown significant though uneven progress in the region While the financial crisis of 1977 1998 has to a degree eased the strains on transport infrastructure to meet rapidly rising demand the increasing scarcity of financial resources appears to have accelerated institutional changes and changes in infrastructure financing Economic and social survey of Asia and the Pacific, 2008, 2008 Review of Developments in Transport in Asia and the Pacific 2007, 2009-10 The biennial publication Review of Developments in Asia and the Pacific provides a review of progress made in the transport sector in the ESCAP region This year the Review is published in two complementary books Special Issue on the Busan Ministerial Conference on Transport and Data and Trends This is the book on data and trends and provides updates for the transport related data that has been published in the Review since 1993 Part I describes the environment within which the transport sector is developing Part II focuses on tracing transport infrastructure development in the region Part III examines the transport related aspects of trade agreements transport regionalism and intermodal transport in the region Regional Integration in South Asia: What Role for Trade Facilitation? Tsunehiro Otsuki, East Asia Integrates Kathie Krumm, Homi Kharas, 2004-01-01 Emerging East Asian economies have seen their share of world exports more than triple during the past quarter century and intraregional trade has driven this growth Broad measures of development in East Asia have improved at the same headlong pace Why push further integration now Two economic events of historic proportions provide the context strategic thinking of development in the region following the East Asian financial crisis of 1997 98 and the accession of China to the World Trade Organization Policymakers interested in a stable prosperous region are concerned by mildly rising inequality within countries and a widening gap between richer economies and the poorest economies Increasingly the development agenda in the region with its focus on growth jobs and social stability and the trade policy agenda with its focus on market access and competitiveness have become intertwined East Asian policymakers seek to develop a coherent set of economic policies that can deliver stability growth and regional integration Without attempting to be comprehensive East Asia Integrates offers fundamental strategies that promote cross border flows of trade along with domestic policies on logistics trade facilitation standards and institutions to maximize the impact of these flows on development and distribute the gains from trade widely As the authors demonstrate multilateral and regional trade initiatives must provide a compelling vision of how integration can deliver broadly shared growth and prosperity if they are to succeed In addition they must use the momentum offered by trade agreements to address the links between trade on the one hand and social stability poverty reduction and growth on the other Down the Drain Chris Wood,Ralph Pentland,2013 An incisive critique of Canada s drinking water gatekeepers Canada is celebrated for its abundance of fresh water and few Canadians question the safety of the water that comes from our taps But is this trust justified One study estimates that contamination of drinking water causes 90 000 cases of illness and ninety deaths every year In this authoritative review of decades of legislation research and independent regulatory critiques accompanied by riveting stories of the many failures of our water supply award winning journalist Chris Wood and Canadian water policy expert Ralph Pentland expose how governments at every level have failed to protect our drinking water The authors review the history of water management in Canada and approaches to the problem in Europe and the United States then analyze our own approach in recent times and finally propose a strategy to protect our water including a new charter that will hold our government to account

Handbook of International Trade and Transportation Bruce A. Blonigen,Wesley W. Wilson,2018-01-26 International trade has grown rapidly over the past half century accommodated by the transportation industry through concomitant growth and technological change But while the connection between transport and trade flows is clear the academic literature often looks at these two issues separately This Handbook is unique in pulling together the key insights of each field while highlighting what we know about their intersection and ideas for future research in this relatively unexamined but growing area of study

Southeast Asian Regional Port Development Chia Lin Sien,Mark Goh,Jose L. Tongzon,2003 This book provides an understanding of the dynamic regional play in terms of port development in Southeast Asia in the medium term It presents a computer based comparative analysis of container flows and transshipment within this region The study provides a well considered statistical dissection of the key port players in this part of the world an analysis of value to businessmen policy makers and observers of Southeast Asian affairs Enhancing Regional Cooperation in Infrastructure Development Including that Related to Disaster Management Hiren Sarkar,United Nations. Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific,2006 2011 Updated Reprint Updated Annually Estonia Air Force Handbook Infrastructure and Productivity in Asia J. Kidd,F. Richter,2005-02-11 There is a feeling that Asia is at a crossroad and is facing a new crisis The earlier crisis of 1997 98 showed that effective systems were missing Afterwards governments foreign investors and foreign managers initiated more holistic infrastructures but corruption poorly connecting systems and a lack of transparent management have ensured that these are under performing In this book well informed authors offer insights on Asia s political educational and physical infrastructures and indicate the routes leading to better integrated futures Promoting Efficient and Competitive Intra-ASEAN Shipping Services ,2005 Tourism in Central Asia Kemal Kantarci,Muzaffer Uysal,Vincent P.

Magnini,2014-09-05 This book will be a major resource for all academic researchers and practitioners interested in issues dealing with the development of tourism its potential and challenges and policy and regulatory issues in the Central Asian countries of Kazakhstan Uzbekistan Turkmenistan Kyrgyzstan and Tajikistan These countries are gaining more attention

Economic and Social Survey of Asia and the Pacific 2006 United Nations. Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific,2006 This edition of the yearly survey examines regional economic and social developments in the Asia and the Pacific region during 2005 The growth rate slowed moderately in 2005 mainly as a result of high oil prices and softening of growth in global trade For 2006 it is expected that growth maintains its current momentum providing that oil prices do not increase significantly and global external imbalances do not unwind suddenly Projects for the region would also be affected if avian influenza develops into a human pandemic Efforts are needed to ensure all benefits of high growth are passed on to the poor via good employment opportunities for all

Annual Report of the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific United Nations,2009-03 This is the annual report of the United Nations ESCAP

Global Economic Prospects 2005 ,2004 This annual publication analyses the global and national dimensions of the investment climate for developing countries in terms of the policy and institutional environment This edition examines the growth of regional trade agreements which have risen eight fold in two decades with currently as much as 40 percent of global trade taking place among countries that have some form of reciprocal regional trade agreement Issues discussed include regional trading trends effects of regional agreements on trade creation trade facilitation and services investment intellectual property rights and labour mobility whether the proliferation of agreements poses risks for multilateral trading system and if so options for managing them The report finds that agreements leading to open regionalism that is deeper integration of trade as a result of low external tariffs increased services competition and efforts to reduce cross border and customs delays costs are effective as part of a larger trade strategy to promote growth Although regional agreements can prove beneficial to member countries they can have adverse effects on excluded countries and the lowering of border barriers around the world is crucial to minimising these effects The completion of the Doha Development Agenda by all WTO countries will reduce the risk of trade diversion associated with regional agreements and will decrease trade losses of countries excluded from agreements
