Revival And Reform In Islam The Legacy Of Muhammad Al Shawkani:

Revival and Reform in Islam Bernard Haykel, 2003-05-27 Revival and Reform in Islam is at once an intellectual biography of Muhammad al Shawkani and a history of a transitional period in Yemeni history This was a time when a society dominated by traditional Zaydi Shiism shifted to one characterised instead by Sunni reformism The author traces the origins and outcomes of this transition presenting the first systematic account of the ways in which the eighteenth and nineteenth century reorientation of the Zaydi madhhab and consequent sunnification of Yemeni society were intricately linked to tensions within the political realm In advocating juridical systematization of religious belief and practice Shawkani espoused a socio religious order which in its dominant features echoed key aspects of Western modernity Yet he did so in a context bereft of Western ideational influence This study then presents a textured account of eighteenth century Islamic reformist thought and challenges the meaning of modernity in an Islamic context

Preserving Islamic Tradition Nathan Spannaus, 2019-07-09 The end of the eighteenth century was a transformational period for the Muslim communities of the Russian Empire and their relationship with the tsarist state Though they had been under Russian rule since the sixteenth century it was at this time that they were incorporated into the imperial bureaucracy most significantly through the founding of an official hierarchy for the Islamic religious scholars in 1788 The introduction of a state backed structure for Muslim religious institutions altered Islamic religious authority and in turn religious discourse One of the major figures to emerge from this new context was Abu Nasr Qursawi 1776-1812 A controversial figure who was condemned for heresy in Bukhara in 1808 Qursawi put forward a sweeping reform of the

Islamic scholarly tradition Focusing on taqlid the principle of conformity to established doctrine Qursawi argued that its overuse had weakened scholarship in the areas of Islamic law fiqh and theology kalam and undermined scholars ability to serve as religious guides In Preserving Islamic Tradition Nathan Spannaus presents the first detailed analysis of Qursawi s reformist project both in its contours and broad historical setting Spannaus shows how state control of Muslim institutions impacted religious discourse but also how it altered the entire religious environment into the twentieth century Addressing issues of modernity secularity tradition and intellectual history Preserving Islamic Tradition demonstrates how the interaction with a European imperial state transformed the Islamic tradition both directly and indirectly and elicited new forms of religious thought and discourse Guardians of Faith in Modern Times Meir Hatina,2009 This collective volume provides an integrative historical and contemporary discussion of Sunni EulamaE3 4 in the Middle East in both an urban and a semi tribal context The various chapters reinforce a renewed interest in the position of the EulamaE3 4 in modern times and offer new insights as to their ideological vitality and contribution to the public discourse on moral and sociopolitical issues Handbook of Islamic Sects and Movements ,2021-07-15 The Handbook of Islamic Sects and Movements offers a multinational study of Islam its variants influences and neighbouring movements from a multidisciplinary range of scholars These chapters highlight the diversity of Islam especially in its contemporary manifestations as a religion of many communities theologies and ideologies Over five sections on Sunni Shia Sufi fundamentalist and fringe Islamic movements the authors provide historical overviews analyses and in depth studies of large and small Islamic and related groups from all around the world The contents of this volume will be of interest to both newcomers to the study of Islam and established scholars of religion who wish to engage with the dynamic label of Islam and the many impactful movements of the Islamic world Economic Thinking of Arab Muslim Writers During the Nineteenth Century Abdul Azim Islahi,2016-01-20 Islahi explores the state of Arab Muslim economic thinking in the 19th century Investigating the works of nine distinguished Arab writers from various fields Islahi concludes that the intellectual economic and Islamic awakening seen in the 19th century paved the way for the development of Islamic economics in the 20th century Gender in Judaism and Islam Firoozeh Kashani-Sabet,Beth S. Wenger,2015 Lone Star Muslims offers an engaging and insightful look at contemporary Muslim American life in Texas It illuminates the dynamics of the Pakistani Muslim community in Houston a city with one of the largest Muslim populations in the south and southwestern United States Drawing on interviews and participant observation at radio stations festivals and ethnic businesses the volume explores everyday Muslim lives at the intersection of race class profession gender sexuality and religious sectarian affiliation to demonstrate the complexity of the South Asian experience Importantly the volume incorporates narratives of gay Muslim American men of Pakistani descent countering the presumed heteronormativity evident in most of the social science scholarship on Muslim Americans and revealing deeply felt affiliations to Islam through ritual and practice It also includes narratives of members of the highly skilled Shia Ismaili

Muslim labor force employed in corporate America of Pakistani ethnic entrepreneurs the working class and the working poor employed in Pakistani ethnic businesses of community activists and of radio program hosts Decentering dominant framings that flatten understandings of transnational Islam and Muslim Americans such as terrorist on the one hand and model minority on the other Lone Star Muslims offers a glimpse into a variety of lived experiences It shows how specificities of class Islamic sectarian affiliation citizenship status gender and sexuality shape transnational identities and mediate racism marginalities and abjection

The Postcolonial Moment in South and Southeast Asia Gyan Prakash, Nikhil Menon, Michael Laffan, 2018-02-22 By exploring themes of fragility mobility and turmoil anxieties and agency and pedagogy this book shows how colonialism shaped postcolonial projects in South and Southeast Asia including India Pakistan Burma and Indonesia Its chapters unearth the contingency and contention that accompanied the establishment of nation states and their claim to be decolonized heirs The book places key postcolonial moments a struggle for citizenship anxious constitution making mass education and land reform against the aftermath of the Second World War and within a global framework relating them to the global transformation in political geography from empire to nation The chapters analyse how futures and ideals envisioned by anticolonial activists were made reality whilst others were discarded Drawing on the expertise of eminent contributors The Postcolonial Moment in South and Southeast Asia represents the most ground breaking research on the region

The Caliphate Question Sean Oliver-Dee, 2009-08-13 The Caliphate Question combines the disciplines of theology history and international relations in order to approach the complex and sensitive issue of how Western governments_ in this case the British_ have historically engaged with foreign policy issues that have centered around questions of theology or faith The British government's approach to policy making in the field of Islamic governance from the First World War through to the early Cold War is the case study for this book both because of the extensive documentation that exists on the period and because of its relevance to the current geo political world While the book is not a critique of current British foreign policy it does seek to furnish policy makers and commentators with a framework within which such increasingly necessary policy making can be created

The Wiley Blackwell Concise Companion to The Hadith Daniel W. Brown, 2020-01-14 The most comprehensive and up to date English language guide on hadith scholarship The source of much of our knowledge of the first two centuries of Islamic history the hadith literature is made up of thousands of traditions collected during the formative years of Islam. Alongside the Qur'an, the hadith forms a second major body of Islamic scripture, and much of Islamic belief and practice rests on the hadith, including Islamic law, Islamic theology, Qur'anic interpretation, political thought, and personal behavior. Yet despite its importance to Muslims worldwide and its indispensable role as a source for early Islamic history, the hadith remains unexplored territory for many non-specialist readers. The Wiley Blackwell Companion to the Hadith is a concise yet comprehensive overview of both Islamic and Western traditions of hadith study, offering up-to-date scholarship and providing readers with an essential guide to this distinctive aspect of Islam. Written by a multidisciplinary team of distinguished scholars, the Companion discusses questions of authenticity, epistemology, and authority in the hadith, and explores the relationship of the hadith literature to other ways of transmitting knowledge and establishing authority. It covers the origins of hadith, the application of hadith within the Islamic intellectual tradition, and contemporary revaluations of hadith literature. It addresses developments in modern scholarship about the origins of Islam and Islamic law, which are rooted in a revaluation of hadith. It presents new and groundbreaking research from international scholars from divergent perspectives to present an accurate and lively overview of the field. It explores the emergence of skepticism about hadith among Western scholars, surveys the evolution of a wide range of approaches to hadith among modern Muslims, and fills a significant gap in current literature in the field. The Wiley Blackwell Companion to the Hadith is a valuable resource for students, scholars, and researchers in Islamic studies, Islamic law, history, and theology.

Islam in Historical Perspective Alexander Knysh, 2016-10-26. Islam in Historical Perspective provides readers with an introduction to Islam, Islamic history, and societies with carefully selected historical and scriptural evidence that enables them to form a comprehensive and balanced vision of Islam's rise and evolution across the centuries and up to the present day. Combining historical and chronological approaches, the book examines intellectual dialogues and socio-political struggles within the extraordinary rich Islamic tradition. Treating Islam as a social and political force, the book also addresses Muslim devotional practices, artistic creativity, and the structures of everyday existence. Islam in Historical Perspective is designed to help readers to develop personal empathy for the subject by relating it to their own experiences and burning issues of today. It contains a wealth of historical anecdotes and quotations from original sources that are intended to emphasize its principal points in a memorable way. This new edition features a thoroughly revised and updated text, new illustrations, expanded study questions, and chapter summaries.

Between God and the Sultan Knut S. Vikør, 2005. The contrast between religion and law has been continuous throughout Muslim history. Islamic law has always existed in a tension between these two forces: God, who gave the law, and the state, the sultan representing society and implementing the law. This tension and dynamic have created a very particular history for the law, in how it was formulated and by whom, in its theoretical basis and its actual rules, and in how it was practiced in historical reality from the time of its formation until today. That is the main theme of this book. Knut S. Vikør introduces the development and practice of Islamic law to a wide readership: students, lawyers, and the growing number of those interested in Islamic civilization He summarizes the main concepts of Islamic jurisprudence discusses debates concerning the historicity of Islamic sources of dogma and the dating of early Islamic law describes the classic practice of the law in the formulation and elaboration of legal rules and practice in the courts and sets out various substantive legal rules on such vital matters as the family and economic activity

The Presence of the Prophet in Early Modern and Contemporary Islam Rachida Chih, Stefan Reichmuth, David Jordan, 2021-11-15 This second collective volume of the series The Presence of the Prophet explores the growing importance of the figure of the Prophet Muhammad for questions of authority and power in early modern and modern times The authors provide a rich collection of case studies on how Muhammad's material spiritual and genealogical heritage has been claimed for the foundation of Muslim empires revolutionary movements the formation of modern nation states and ideologies as well as for communal mobilization and social reform This novel comparative and diachronic study which is unique for its wide coverage of regional cases and perspectives reveals diverse political representations of the Prophet in an increasingly globalised struggle over the control of his image between secularization and sacralization Contributors Gianfranco Bria Rachida Chih Christoph G nther Gottfried Hagen Jan Peter Hartung David Jordan Soraya Khodamoradi Jamal Malik Catherine Mayeur Jaouen Alix Philippon Martin Riexinger Stefan Reichmuth Dilek Sarmis Renaud Soler Jaafar Ben El Haj Soulamy Florian Zemmin
