

REVIVING THE FOURTH ESTATE

Democracy, Accountability and the Media

The news media is traditionally the watchdog of democracy. Today, it is also one of the most pervasive global industries. In this lively and accessible book, Schultz systematically analyses the role of journalism in Australia and the scope of its democratic purpose. She examines key news stories, and looks at the attitudes of Australian journalists themselves. The fourth estate remains the ideal of most journalists, but the reality has been impaired by the increasing concentration of media ownership and by political, ethical and career interests. While Australian journalism has become bolder and more investigative, increasing commercialism and decreasing ethical standards have left the public sceptical. Schultz argues for a revival of the fourth estate based on journalistic independence and political autonomy, together with increased accountability and responsiveness.

Julianne Schultz is a journalist, academic, writer and librettist. She has unique experience as both a journalist and a journalism academic. She has been Associate Professor of Journalism at the University of Technology, Sydney. She has worked for a number of media organisations and has been published in a wide range of newspapers and magazines, most recently as a contributing editor with the Brisbane Courier-Mail. Her books include Not Just Another Business and Accuracy and Australian Newspapers.
