Resounding Pasts Drago Momcilovic,2020-05-15 The field of memory studies has long been preoccupied with the manner in which events from the past are commemorated forgotten re fashioned or worked through on both the individual and collective level Yet in an age when various modes of artistic and cultural commemoration have begun to overlap with and respond to one another the dynamics of cultural remembering and forgetting become bound up in an increasingly elaborate network of representations that operate both within and outside temporal cultural and national borders As publicly circulating texts that straddle the line between cultural artifact and artistic object both musical and literary works both individually and often in conjunction with one another help shape cultural memories and individual experiences of those events Troping their cultural milieux through specific aesthetic and social forms genres and modes of dissemination music and literature become part of a growing global panoply of raw materials upon which we might begin to pose questions regarding the way we remember the consequences of sharing and passing on those memories and the aesthetic and cultural pressures attendant upon the circulation and interpretation of texts that re sound the past

The Kinks' The Kinks Are the Village Green Preservation Society Andy Miller, 2003-09-01 Ignored by virtually everyone upon its release in November 1968 The Kinks Are the Village Green Preservation Society is now seen as one of the best British albums ever recorded Here Andy Miller traces the perilous circumstances surrounding its creation and celebrates the timeless perfectly crafted songs pieced together by a band who were on the verge of disintegration and who refused to follow fashion EXCERPT Big Sky contains some of the most beautiful thunderous music The Kinks ever recorded aligned to a vulnerability and warmth no other group and I mean no other group could ever hope to equal It is a perfectly balanced production On the one hand the mesh of clattering drums and electric guitar never threatens to overwhelm the melody on the other the gossamer light harmonies Ray and Dave s vocal line traced by Rasa Davies wordless falsetto are bursting with emotion When most of the instruments drop away at 1:20 the effect is effortlessly vivid two lines where Davies performance is both nonchalant and impassioned The result is wonderfully enchantingly sad made more so perhaps by the knowledge that The Kinks will never again sound so refined or so right
