Gilding the Market Susan Mosher Stuard, 2011-06-03 In the fourteenth century garish ornaments bright colors gilt and military effects helped usher in the age of fashion in Italy Over a short span of years important matters began to turn on the cut of a sleeve Fashion influenced consumption and provided a stimulus that drove demand for goods and turned wealthy townspeople into enthusiastic consumers Making wise decisions about the alarmingly expensive goods that composed a fashionable wardrobe became a matter of pressing concern especially when the market caught on and became awash in cheaper editions of luxury wares Focusing on the luxury trade in fashionable wear and accessories in Venice Florence and other towns in Italy Gilding the Market investigates a major shift in patterns of consumption at the height of medieval prosperity which more remarkably continued through the subsequent era of plague return of plague and increased warfare A fine sensitivity to the demands of le pompe that is the public display of private wealth infected town life The quest for luxuries affected markets by enlarging exchange activity and encouraging retail trades As both consumers and tradesmen local goldsmiths long distance traders bankers and money changers played

Out of Bounds Pamela A. Patton,Maria Alessia Rossi,2023-10-03 Where are the limits of medieval art as a field of study What happens when conventionally trained art historians disregard the chronological geographical or cultural parameters that both direct and protect their scholarship Beginning with Thelma K Thomas and Alicia Walker s acute assessment of the need for a medieval art history for now the essays in Out of Bounds ask what happens when the study of medieval art disregards boundaries that it once obeyed The volume focuses on questions surrounding the production of knowledge and on how scholarly investigation beyond the conventional thematic boundaries of medieval art history is changing demonstrating how the field can address the ethics of scholarship today by positing a global turn in response to growing demands for socially responsible medieval studies Collectively the contributors demonstrate how going out of bounds can transform modern understanding of the people traditions and relationships that gave rise to medieval works As such this book argues for the necessity of reshaping scholarly discourse about the nature and significance of medieval art and generates fresh scholarly interpretations and important new critical tools for teaching and researching the Middle Ages The contributors to this volume are Suzanne Conklin Akbari Michele Bacci Jill Caskey Eva Frojmovic Sarah M Gu rin Christina Maranci Alice Isabella Sullivan Thelma K Thomas Michele Tomasi and Alicia Walker
