Professional success at work sensual congress at play the Burk brothers are men with insatiable appetites for the women they desire Their sister's ambition and passion are equally strong These siblings devote their energies to satisfying their lovers bodies with erotic creativity but the devotion of their hearts is more challenging to claim Who will lure the hearts of these modern warriors to love Constructions of Female Homoeroticism in Early Modern Drama D. Walen, 2005-09-16 This book explores representations of love and desire between female characters in nearly seventy plays written between 1580 and 1660 The work argues that playwrights of late sixteenth and early seventeenth century England recognized and constructed richly diverse tropes of female homoerotic desire Writers place female characters in erotic situations with other female characters in playful scenarios of mistaken identity in anxious moments of amorous intrigue in predatory situations and in enthusiastic utopian representations of romantic love These plays indicate an awareness of female homoeroticism in early modern England and belie statements that literary evidence of homosexuality was concerned primarily with men

Seduction, Sophistry, and the Woman with the Rhetorical Figure Michelle Ballif, 2001 Ballif questions why the profession wants to retain these beliefs in the face of vociferous arguments from new rhetorics that the discipline no longer posits a foundational self or truth and in the face of the poststructuralist critique which has demonstrated that founding truth is always accomplished by first positing and then negating an other As an alternative to this negative and violent rhetorical process Ballif suggests a turn to sophistry as embodied in the figure of Woman one with the power to seduce us literally to lead astray from our truth and our demand for it BOOK JACKET
