Seeing Green:

Racketty-packetty House Frances Hodgson Burnett, 1927 Change Your Life in 30 Days Rhonda Britten, 2005-02-01
Rhonda Britten Life Coach on NBC's hit show Starting Over guides readers on a 30 day step by step journey to help define goals and make extraordinary life changes in their lives using practical insights exercises and inspiring wisdom For those who want to make a major life change but have been too locked in fear to start the answers lie within this book Color Blindness Robin Twiddy, 2021-07-15 What is color blindness and how does it affect a person's everyday life Readers discover the answers to these questions and more as they follow a narrative about what it's like to live with color blindness and what it's like to have a friend who has this condition Clear and concise text provides relatable examples and fact boxes add helpful information In addition full color photographs enhance this reading experience which provides a valuable exercise in developing empathy and understanding different perspectives The sensitive tone and age appropriate language make this a valuable resource for young readers Mind John R. Searle, 2004-11-01 The philosophy of mind is unique among contemporary philosophical subjects writes John Searle in that all of the most famous and influential theories are false One of the world's most eminent thinkers Searle dismantles these theories as he presents a vividly written comprehensive introduction to the mind He begins with a look at the twelve problems of philosophy of mind which he calls Descartes and Other Disasters problems which he returns to throughout the volume as he illuminates such topics as materialism consciousness the mind body problem intentionality mental causation free will and the self The book offers a refreshingly direct and engaging introduction to one of the most intriguing areas of philosophy Color Kenneth L. Kelly, Deane Brewster Judd, 1976 Greening in the Red Zone Keith G. Tidball, Marianne E. Krasny, 2013-07-22 Creation and access to green spaces promotes individual human health especially in therapeutic contexts among those suffering traumatic events But what of the role of access to green space and the act of creating and caring for such places in promoting social health and well being Greening in the Red Zone asserts that creation and access to green spaces confers resilience and recovery in systems disrupted by violent conflict or disaster This edited volume provides evidence for this assertion through cases and examples The contributors to this volume use a variety of research and policy frameworks to explore how creation and access to green spaces in extreme situations might contribute to resistance recovery and resilience of social ecological systems

Catalogue of Music British Museum, 1884 For the Love of Mary Christopher Meades, 2016-05-01 Fifteen year old Jacob feels almost on the inside almost smart almost funny almost good looking almost worthy of falling in love His sister is too busy dating guys in Whitesnake jackets to notice and his best friend is occupied with his own painful pubescent crisis Jacob's mother has just started a curious and rather un-Christian holy war with the church across the street while his father has secretly moved into the garage Everything changes when Jacob meets Mary Jacob thinks Mary is the most beautiful girl in the world If only Mary's father wasn't the minister at the enormous rival church If only she wasn't dating a youth pastor with pristine white teeth and impeccably trimmed hair If only Jacob could work up the courage to tell Mary how he feels As the conflict between the churches escalates a peeping Tom prowls the neighborhood a bearded lady terrorizes unsuspecting Dairy Queen customers a beautiful young girl entices Jacob into a carnal romp in a car wash and the church parishioners prepare their annual re enactment of Operation Desert Storm For the Love of Mary is sidesplitting satire with a surprising amount of heart

The Metaphysics of Self-realisation and Freedom Colin Tyler, 2017-03-22 This first part of Colin Tyler s new critical assessment of the social and political thought of T H Green 1836 1882 explores the grounding that Green gives to liberal socialism Tyler shows how for Green ultimately personal self realisation and freedom stem from the innate human drive to construct a bedrock of fundamental values and commitments that can define and give direction to the individual s most valuable potentials and talents This book is not only a significant contribution to British idealist scholarship It highlights also the enduring philosophical and ethical resources of a social democratic tradition that remains one of the world s most important social and political movements and not least across Britain Europe North America India and Australia Dr Colin Tyler is Reader in Politics at the University of Hull and joint convenor of the Centre for British Idealism

Scotland's Harvest Richie McCaffery, 2023-07-24 This study is the first exploration of the impact of World War Two on Scottish poets of both the front line and the home front World War One has always been thought of as a poet s war one of horror and futility The poetry of World War Two by contrast has long languished in its shadow though there was a much greater amount of it written This book asks whether these poets felt they were grown for war or rather that they grew through war experience with an emphasis on the possibilities of the future instead of cataloguing the senseless horror of the battlefield How were the hopes of Scottish poets different from their English counterparts How was their poetry different and how did it impact on their later lives
