Seek My Face Speak My Name A Contemporary Jewish Theology:

Seek My Face, Speak My Name Arthur Green, 1994 Rabbi Arthur Green leads us on a journey of discovery to seek God the world and ourselves One of the most influential Jewish thinkers of our time Green has created a roadmap of meaning for our lives in the light of Jewish mysticism A personal and honest framework of understanding for the seeker this revised and updated edition of a classic sheds new light on our search for the divine presence in our everyday lives Leaves from the Garden of Eden, 2010-09-23 In Leaves from the Garden of Eden Howard Schwartz a three time winner of the National Jewish Book Award has gathered together one hundred of the most astonishing and luminous stories from Jewish folk tradition Just as Schwartz s award winning book Tree of Souls collected the essential myths of Jewish tradition Leaves from the Garden of Eden collects one hundred essential Jewish tales As imaginative as the Arabian Nights these stories invoke enchanted worlds demonic realms and mystical experiences The four most popular types of Jewish tales are gathered here fairy tales folktales supernatural tales and mystical tales taking readers on heavenly journeys lifelong quests and descents to the underworld There is a dybbuk lurking in a well a book that comes to life and a world where Lilith the Queen of Demons seduces the unsuspecting Here too are Jewish versions of many of the best known tales including Cinderella Snow White and Rapunzel Schwartz s retelling of one of these stories The Finger inspired Tim Burton s film Corpse Bride On God and Dogs Stephen H. Webb, 1998-01-15 Many of us keep pet animals we rely on them for companionship and unconditional love For some people their closest relationships may be with their pets In the wake of the animal rights movement some ethicists have started to re examine this relationship and to question the rights of humans to own other sentient beings in this way In this engaging and thought provoking book Stephen Webb brings a Christian perspective to bear on the subject of our responsibility to animals looked at through the lens of our relations with pets especially dogs Webb argues that the emotional bond with companion animals should play a central role in the way we think about animals in general and against the more extreme animal liberationists defends the intermingling of the human and animal worlds He tries to imagine what it would be like to treat animals as a gift from God and indeed argues that not only are animals a gift for us but they give to us we need to attend to their giving and return their gifts appropriately Throughout the book he insists that what Christians call grace is present in our relations with animals just as it is with other humans Grace is the inclusive and expansive power of God s love to create and sustain relationships of real mutuality and reciprocity and Webb unfolds the implications of the recognition that animals too participate in God s abundant grace Webb s thesis affirms and persuasively defends many of the things that pet lovers feel instinctively that their relationships with their companion animals are meaningful and important and that their pets have value and worth in themselves in the eyes of God His book will appeal to a broad audience of thoughtful Christians and animal lovers Embodiment, Morality, and Medicine L.S. Cahill, M.A. Farley, 2013-04-17 Embodiment Morality and Medicine deals with the relevance of embodiment to bioethics considering both the historical development and contemporary perspectives on the mind body relation The emphasis of all authors is on the importance of the body in defining personal identity as well as on the role of social context in shaping experience of the body Among the perspectives considered are Christian Jewish Islamic Buddhist and African American Feminist concerns are important throughout Between Man and God Martin Sicker,2001-06-30 Sicker presents a personal attempt to come to grips with the awesome question Where was God at Auschwitz and with it some of the related central issues of Jewish thought and belief There is a tendency among many writers of contemporary work of theology to argue that the very fact of the Holocaust invalidates traditional Jewish theory and that its long held ideas about God must therefore be revised radically However Jewish thinkers have long asked the equivalent of this troubling question albeit in reference to other places and times in Israel s history and have offered possible answers just as we do today The big difference between then and now is not the enormity of the Holocaust but the readiness of earlier thinkers to search for meaning without almost cavalierly discarding traditionally cherished ideas and beliefs The author argues that modern advocates of radical theological revision actually have little to add to our understanding of the ways of God and even less to a meaningful Judaic perspective on the universe and the relationship between man and God A second concern is the contemporary argument that because there is no universally accepted theology of Judaism one is not bound by any particular conception of God whether of biblical or rabbinic origin Jewish theology has thus come to be viewed essentially as an equal opportunity field of intellectual endeavor an approach Sicker considers fundamentally and fatally flawed Traditional non dogmatic thought does not require radical revision What is required is a sympathetic understanding of the theological assumptions and ideas of the past coupled with a sincere and respectful attempt to reformulate them in terms more attuned to the modern temper A New Hasidism: Roots Arthur Green,Ariel Evan Mayse,2019-10-01 Neo Hasidism applies the Hasidic masters spiritual insights of God s presence everywhere of seeking the magnificent within the everyday in doing all things with love and joy uplifting all of life to become a vehicle of God s service to contemporary Judaism as practiced by men and women who do not live within the strictly bounded world of the Hasidic community This first ever anthology of Neo Hasidic philosophy brings together the writings of its progenitors five great twentieth century European and American Jewish thinkers Hillel Zeitlin Martin Buber Abraham Joshua Heschel Shlomo Carlebach and Zalman Schachter Shalomi plus a young Arthur Green The thinkers reflect on the inner life of the individual and their dreams of creating a Neo Hasidic spiritual community The editors introductions and notes analyze each thinker s contributions to Neo Hasidic thought and influence on the movement Zeitlin and Buber initiated a renewal of Hasidism for the modern world Heschel s work is quietly infused with Neo Hasidic thought Carlebach and Schachter Shalomi re created Neo Hasidism for American Jews in the 1960s and Green is the first American born Jewish thinker fully identified with the movement Previously unpublished materials by Carlebach and Schachter Shalomi include an interview with Schachter Shalomi about his decision to leave Chabad Lubavitch and embark on his own Neo Hasidic path Philo of Alexandria Douwe (David) Runia,2015-12-22 This volume is a continuation of Philo of Alexandria an Annotated Bibliography 1937 1986 published by Roberto Radice and David Runia in 1988 second edition 1992 Prepared with the collaboration of the International Philo Bibliography Project it contains a complete listing of all scholarly writings on Philo in all languages for the period 1987 to 1996 Part One lists texts translations commentaries etc 75 items Part Two contains critical studies 880 items In part Three additional works for the years 1937 1986 are presented 170 items In all cases a brief description of the contents of the contribution is given Seven indices including a detailed Index of subjects complete the work Torah of the Earth Vol 2 Rabbi Arthur O.
