Media and Religion Daniel A.

Stout,2013-06-17 This text examines the history theory cultural context and professional aspects of media and religion While religion has been explored more fully in psychology sociology anthropology and the humanities there is no clear bridge of understanding to the communication discipline Daniel A Stout tackles this issue by providing a roadmap for examining this understudied area so that discussions about media and religion can more easily proceed Offering great breadth this text covers key concepts and historical highlights world religions denominations and cultural religion and religion and specific media genres The text also includes key terms and questions to ponder for every chapter and concludes with an in class learning activity that can be used to encourage students to explore the media religion interface and review the essential ideas presented in the book Media and Religion is an ideal introduction for undergraduate students in need of a foundation for this emerging field

Knowledge and Ignorance Folke Dovring,1998-03-25 Dovring explores the limits of science as causes of ignorance Some topics examined in these essays are problems with our ways of knowing and the impact of emotion on objectivity He argues that reality consists of designs of things and processes While most designs we might think of cannot exist those that can exist add up to a tool box of creation which contains the detailed laws of nature many of them synergisms Reality must conform to this web of necessities hence the danger of unchecked virtual reality These lines of thought are then applied to evolution as creation and history In a final essay Dovring explores topics upon which science should concentrate This book will be of interest to scientists as well as the lay public interested in the theory of science and questions of truth and faith
