Selected And Collected Poems:

The Collected Poetry of Robinson Jeffers Tim Hunt, 1988 Robinson Jeffers 1887-1962 is not only the greatest poet that California and indeed the American West has produced but a major poet of the twentieth century who occupies a prominent place in the tradition of American prophetic poetry. Jeffers consciously set himself apart from the poetry of his generation by physical isolation at his home in Carmel by his unusual poetic form and by his stance as an anti-modernist. Yet his work represents a profound and profoundly original artistic response to problems that shaped modernist poetry and that still perplex poets today: how to reconcile scientific and artistic discourses and modes of vision; how to connect present-day experience to myths perceived as lying at the origins of human culture; how to renew the poetic language and how or whether to present art's claim to moral, spiritual, or epistemological seriousness within representations of modern phenomena. For Jeffers, as for no other important modern American poet, there has never been a collected poems, not even a truly representative selection. The current Selected Poetry, first published in 1938, contains no work from the last three volumes published during Jeffers' lifetime or from his posthumous volume. Now, for the first time, all of Jeffers' completed poems, both published and unpublished, are presented in a single comprehensive and textually authoritative edition. The first three volumes of this four-volume work will present chronologically all of Jeffers' published work from 1920 to 1963. The present volume consists of poems published between 1920 and 1928 and includes some of his greatest and best-known poems: "Tamar," "Roan," "Stallion," "The Women at Point Sur," and "Cawdor," as well as a recently discovered long poem, "Home." There is also an Editorial Note and a General Introduction.

Collected Poems C. K. Williams, 2006-10-31 Collects nearly four decades of the author's work featuring poems from "Tar With Ignorance," "Flesh and Blood," "A Dream of Mind Repair," and "The Singing."

Selected Poems Hilda Doolittle, 1988 Like every major artist, she challenges the reader's intellect and imagination.

The Selected Poems of Ted Berrigan Ted Berrigan, 2011-02-07 Following the highly acclaimed Collected Poems of Ted Berrigan, poets Alice Notley, Anselm Berrigan, and Edmund Berrigan have collaborated again on this new selection of poems by one of the most influential and admired poets of his generation. Reflecting a new editorial approach, this volume demonstrates the breadth of Ted Berrigan's poetic accomplishments by presenting his most celebrated, interesting, and important work. This major second-wave New York School poet is often identified with his early poems, especially "The Sonnets," but this selection encompasses his full poetic output, including the later sequences "Easter Monday" and "A Certain Slant of Sunlight," as well as many of his uncollected poems. The Selected Poems of Ted Berrigan provides a new perspective for those already familiar with his remarkable wit and invention and introduces new readers to what John Ashbery called the "crazy energy" of this iconoclastic, funny, brilliant, and highly innovative writer.

Praise for The Collected Poems of Ted Berrigan: "This is a great, great book for all seasons of the mind and heart." Robert Creeley. Thanks to this invaluable Collected Poems, one can hear as never before Ted Berrigan dreaming his dream. The

the question of how to represent the work of a poet so skillful and singular giving a portrait of the range of her voice and of the modernist culture she helped create William Carlos Williams remarking on the impeccable precision of Moore's poems praised the aesthetic pleasure engendered when pure craftsmanship joins hard surfaces skillfully It is only in New Collected Poems that we can understand her later achievements see how she refashioned her earlier work and get a more complete understanding of her consummate craftsmanship innovation and attention to detail Presented and collected by Heather Cass White the foremost scholar of Moore's work this new collection at last allows readers to experience the untamed force of these dazzling poems as the author first envisioned them
