Selected Essays On German Literature

Kenneth Charles King, John L.
Flood, Arthur Thomas Hatto

Selected Essays On German Literature:

Selected Essays on German Literature Barker Fairley, 1984 Sponsored by the Canadian Association of University Teachers of German Selected Essays on Medieval German Literature Kenneth Charles King, 1975 Selected Essays on German Literature Hermann Boeschstein, 1986 Hermann B. Boeschstein born in Stein am Rhein Switzerland in 1900 did his doctorate in Rostock under Emil Utz and came to Canada in the 1920s first as a tourist and then as a permanent immigrant. He spent over fifty years in Canada as a teacher and scholar becoming Head of the University of Toronto's Department of German and one of Canada's leading Germanists. Among his many publications on German Literature his two volume Deutsche Geisteskultur 1954 and 1966 remains a unique attempt to chart the development of feeling as expressed in German Literature since the Enlightenment. This present volume gathers together his essays in English on German Literature which demonstrate his life-long endeavour to seek out and promote those humanistic values that are embodied in great literature.

Selected Essays on Medieval German Literature Kenneth Charles King, 1975 Selected Essays on Medieval German Literature Kenneth Charles King, John L. Flood, Arthur Thomas Hatto, 1975 The Author's Dimension Christa Wolf, 1995-12-08 Spanning the past three decades these essays focus on the roles of the writer and literature today. In the first half of this series of witty probing essays on reading and writing Wolf examines the individual's in particular the writer's relationship to society. The final sections On War and Peace and Politics and The End of the German Democratic Republic demonstrate the ways in which Wolf's political thinking has evolved and cast light on the political situation in East Germany prior to reunification. An important publication ably served by the editing of Alexander Stephan the knowledgeable translation by Jan Van Heurck and Grace Paley's sisterly introduction which claims at least the later Christa Wolf for a pacifist feminism. Peter Demetz New York Times Encyclopedia of German Literature Matthias Konzett, 2015-05-11 Designed to provide English readers of German literature the opportunity to familiarize themselves with both the established canon and newly emerging literatures that reflect the concerns of women and ethnic minorities the Encyclopedia of German Literature includes more than 500 entries on writers' individual work and topics essential to an understanding of this rich literary tradition. Drawing on the expertise of an international group of experts the essays in the encyclopedia reflect developments of the latest scholarship in German literature culture and history and society. In addition to the essays author entries include biographies and works lists and works entries provide information about first editions selected critical editions and English language translations. All entries conclude with a list of further readings.

Faith and Finality John Whiton, 1991 Important works of major German authors are given detailed in-depth analysis in this wide-ranging and original study. Going from Wieland and Lessing in the 18th to Thomas Mann in the 20th century the book encompasses representatives of the Enlightenment, Storm and Stress, Romanticism, Biedermeier and Realism. Emphasis is placed on religious aspects which impinge upon ultimate questions. Hence the book's title Encounters with Islam in German

Literature and Culture James R. Hodkinson, Jeffrey Morrison, 2009 German language writings about Islam not only reveal much about Islamic culture but also about the European home culture Islam has been a rich topic in German language literature since the middle ages and the writings about it not only reveal much about Islamic culture but also about the European home culture Many of the early essays in this chronologically arranged volume uncover fresh evidence of how German writers used images of Islam as other to define their individual subject positions as well as to define the German nation and the Christian religion The perspectives of many contemporary writers are however far removed from such a polar opposition of cultures Their experience of the German Islamic encounter is complicated by a crucial factor many of them emerge from Muslim migrant communities such as the German Turkish community The culturally hybrid origins of these writers and their expression of experiences and ideologies that cross boundaries of East and West Christendom and Islam strongly affect the findings of the essays as the volume moves toward the present The texts discussed include travelogues and other firsthand encounters with Islam reports for colonial authorities aesthetic treatises on Islamic art literary essayistic and theological writing on Islamic religious practice the incorporation of characters situations and settings from the Islamic world into fiction or drama and fictional and autobiographical writing by Muslims in German Contributors Cyril Edwards Silke Falkner James Hodkinson Timothy R Jackson Margaret Littler Rachel MagShamr in Frauke Matthes Yomb May Jeffrey Morrison Kate Roy Monika Shafi Edwin Wieringa W Daniel Wilson Karin E Yesilada James Hodkinson is Assistant Professor of German at Warwick University Jeffrey Morrison is Senior Lecturer at the National University of Ireland Maynooth The Writer's Dimension Christa Wolf, 1993
