Selected Letters:

Selected Letters Charles Olson, 2000 In this volume edited and annotated by Ralph Maud we see Olson at the height of his powers and also at his most human The nearly two hundred letters selected from a known three thousand demonstrate the wide range of Olson's interests and the depth of his concern for the future As we read through the letters which span the years from 1931 when Olson was an undergraduate in college to his death in 1970 a fascinating portrait of this complex poet and thinker emerges Jacket Jack Kerouac Jack Kerouac, 1995 It was in his letters that Jack Kerouac set down the raw material that he transmuted into his novels exploring and refining the spontaneous prose style that became his trademark The letters in this volume written between 1940 when Kerouac was a freshman at college and 1956 immediately before his breathless leap into celebrity with the publication of On the Road offer invaluable insights into Kerouac's family life his friendships with Neal and Carolyn Cassady Allen Ginsberg Gary Snyder and William S Burroughs his travels love affairs and literary apprenticeship At once fascinating reading and a major addition to Kerouac scholarship here is a rare portrait of the writer as a young adventurer of immense talent energy and ambition in the midst of writing and living an American legend

Selected Letters John Keats, 2014-11-27 I am certain of nothing but the holiness of the heart's affections and the truth of imagination Keats in a letter to his friend Benjamin Bailey in November 1817 In a period of great letter writing Keats's letters are outstanding They begin in summer 1816 as he approached his twenty first birthday and were written over the next four years until his early death Viewed together they give the fullest and most poignant record we have of Keats's ambitions and hopes as a poet his life as a literary man about town his close relationship with his brothers and young sister and later his passionate jealous and frustrated love for Fanny Brawne Keats enclosed many of his poems with his letters and read together they offer an incomparable insight into his creative process and development as a poet This major new edition edited by Professor John Barnard includes an introduction and notes as well as a map of Keats's Scottish walking tour and reproductions of his letters John Keats was born in October 1795 His Poems appeared in 1817 while Endymion was published in 1818 both to mixed reviews In 1819 he wrote The Eve of St Agnes La Belle Dame sans Merci the major odes Lamia and the Fall of Hyperion Keats was already unwell when preparing his 1820 volume for the press by the time it appeared in July he was desperately ill He died in Rome in 1821 in a rented apartment next to the Spanish Steps at the age of twenty five John Barnard is Emeritus Professor of English Literature at the University of Leeds and has edited The Complete Poems of Keats for Penguin Classics Love, Amy Amy Clampitt, 2007 This extraordinary collection of letters sheds light on one of the most important postwar American poets and on a creative woman's life from the 1950s onward Amy Clampitt was an American original a literary woman from a Quaker family in rural Iowa who came to New York after college and lived in Manhattan for almost forty years before she found success or before it found her at the age of 63 with the publication of The Kingfisher Her letters from 1950 until her death in 1994 are a testimony to her fiercely independent spirit and her quest for various kinds of truth religious spiritual political and artistic Written in clear limpid prose Clampitt's letters illuminate the habits of imagination she would later use to such effect in her poetry She offers with wit and intelligence an intimate and personal portrait of life as an independent woman recently arrived in New York City She recounts her struggle to find a place for herself in the world of literature as well as the excitement of living in Manhattan In other letters she describes a religious conversion and then a gradual religious disillusionment and her work as a political activist Clampitt also reveals her passionate interest in and fascination with the world around her She conveys her delight in a variety of day to day experiences and sights reporting on trips to Europe the books she has read and her walks in nature After struggling as a novelist Clampitt turned to poetry in her fifties and was eventually published in the New Yorker In the last decade of her life she appeared like a meteor on the national literary scene lionized and honored In letters to Helen Vendler Mary Jo Salter and others she discusses her poetry as well as her surprise at her newfound success and the long overdue satisfaction she obviously felt along with gratitude for her recognition
