John Frame's Selected Shorter Writings John M. Frame, 2016 Selected shorter writings Mark Twain, 1962 The Authority of Scripture in Reformed Theology Henk Van Den Belt, 2008-01-01 This book discusses the concept of the self convincing authority of Scripture in the historical development of Reformed theology and advocates an emphasis on the autopistia in a postmodern context because truth and trust are inseparable Selected Short Fiction Charles Dickens, 1976-07-30 More information to be announced soon on this forthcoming title from Penguin USA John Frame's Selected Shorter Writings John M. Frame, 2015 New Perspectives on Old Princeton, 1812-1929 Kevin DeYoung, Paul Kjoss Helseth, David P. Smith, 2024-12-03 This book focuses on Princeton Theological Seminary and the theologians who taught there from the time of its founding in 1812 to the time of its reorganisation in 1929 It confronts the standard assessment of Old Princeton in the historiography of North American evangelicalism and sets out why a new paradigm is needed The volume critically engages with the Ahlstrom thesis and other more recent scholarship concerning Old Princeton's relationship to the Scottish intellectual tradition The contributions seek to move beyond Old Princeton's alleged indebtedness to Enlightenment thought and advance a more constructive reading of the Old Princetonians their theology and their place in the American evangelical experience The book offers a fresh and more accurate assessment of the theological and philosophical assumptions that held sway at Old Princeton and through the seminary to the American continent and beyond It will appeal to scholars interested in theology religious history and intellectual history Select Short Fiction Charles Dickens, 2016-10-18 In his shorter fiction Dickens investigated hitherto unexplored themes and engaged in experiments with narrative techniques This collection focuses on his tales of the supernatural impressionistic sketches and dramatic monologues The Life I Now Live Rich S. Gresham Machen the founder of Westminster Theological Seminary 1929 the Orthodox Presbyterian Church 1936 and the Independent Board for Presbyterian Foreign Missions 1933 This book takes you on a journey back to the early twentieth century when historic Evangelical Christianity was met with intense opposition by the Theological Liberals known as Modernists The Presbyterian Church USA in the North split over the Fundamentalist Modernist divide and the leading institutions of the day did the same including Princeton Theological Seminary Many key leaders in the Protestant Church theologically criticized the person and redeeming work of Jesus Christ and the Bible which is the inerrant inspired and authoritative word of God J Gresham Machen led the Evangelical Church amidst much turmoil confusion and deconstruction with absolute integrity and a steadfast spirit Though he was well known and beloved within the Evangelical Church in his own day the story of how he defended the historic Christian Faith has been largely forgotten a century later The Life I Now Live explores Machen's defense of the gospel his teaching and preaching ministry and his evangelistic zeal It is also written in commemoration of his classic work Christianity and Liberalism 1923 But it is so much more than just a biography This book encourages ordinary Christians to see themselves as those who can indeed defend the Truth in today's age of Postliberalism Postmodernism unbiblical Gender Ideology Critical Race Theory and Deconstructionism The Evangelical Church is now in a moment of crisis in which we must choose today whom we will serve Will you serve the Lord God And if so how will you defend the Faith in today's culture Read this book to find out how Old School, New Clothes Ronald E. Hoch, David P. Smith, 2011-09-09 Is much of Christian education in America distinctly Christian Ron Hoch and David Smith say No Instead it is guilty of having adopted an ideology and methodology that strips it of the right to call itself Christian and the ability to fulfill a truly Christian mission The authors claim that the fundamentally humanistic ideology of the West conditions and controls much of what is labeled Christian education By talking about the need to integrate faith and learning focusing on teaching methodology and operating schools in virtually the same way as government run schools many Christian academics betray captivity to the dogma that humans are the measure of all things and need to do what God has already done As a result much of what controls the conversation and practices in Christian academia echoes the humanistic arrogance of the West and offers no substantive alternative to it In Old School New Clothes Hoch and Smith issue a call for Christian academics to own up to their own confession that all reality was created and integrated by God damaged by sin and has already been reintegrated in and by Jesus Thus the emphasis in Christian education ought not to be what Christian educators are doing to redeem the culture but on what God is bringing to the Church in order to redeem sinners Only by recognizing that all human knowledge claims in every sphere are inherently theological and that God is truly seen in and experienced through knowledge of all things will a distinctly Christian education be forged Christian education must primarily emphasize the reintegration or redemption of teachers brought through right knowledge of Jesus that comes through every subject discipline and expressed in a life balanced on Sabbath work and family Selected Short Stories Per

Sparks,2010-01-01 A fundamental requirement in an inclusivist understanding of the relationship between Christianity and other religions is evidence of God's salvific activity outside any knowledge of Christ This is commonly identified in the religion of Old Testament Israel On this basis an analogy the Israel analogy is drawn between the religion of the old covenant and contemporary non Christian religions Closely related is the parallel argument that as Christ has fulfilled the Old covenant he can also be seen as the fulfillment of other religious traditions and their scriptures This study outlines the use of the Israel analogy and the fulfillment model subjecting these concepts to a biblical and theological critique revealing that the exegetical and patristic data are misconstrued in support of these concepts Furthermore the Israel analogy and the fulfillment model undermine the sui generis relationship between the old and new covenants and fail to respect the organic progressive nature of salvation history They also misconstrue the old covenant and the nature of its fulfillment in the new covenant The Israel analogy and fulfillment model rely on a correspondence between the chronologically premessianic Israel and the epistemologically premessianic other religions and therefore consider the BC condition to continue today In so doing they undermine the significance of the Christ event by failing to appreciate the decisive effect of this event on history and the nature of existence It marks a radical turn in salvation history a crisis point rendering the BC period complete and fulfilled Therefore the concept of a continuing premessianic condition or state is seriously flawed as are the Israel analogy and fulfillment model Thus the inclusivist paradigm reliant in large part on these defective concepts is also problematic and proponents of this paradigm need to reconsider its basis

Charles Hodge Ryan M. McGraw,2023-01-23 Most scholars of Reformed orthodoxy devote little attention to the nineteenth century and most students of nineteenth century Reformed thought bypass the influence of Reformed orthodox ideas on their subjects Aligning himself with Reformed theology in nineteenth century America Charles Hodge's writings are an ideal place to bring such studies together Hodge's American context and Reformed identity illustrate the persistence and change of Reformed ideas in a post Enlightenment context Encompassing philosophy science and theology Ryan M McGraw traces the development of Hodge's ideas with an eye both to Reformed orthodoxy and to American thought The Sentimental Touch:The Language of Feeling in the Age of

Managerialism Aaron Ritzenberg,2013 The Sentimental Touch explores the strange enduring power of sentimental language in the face of a rapidly changing culture Reformed Orthodoxy and Philosophy, 1625-1750 Aza Goudriaan,2019-01-28

This book examines the thinking of several Reformed theologians on theological issues that are historically or by content related to philosophy Three Dutch authors from successive generations are considered in particular Gisbertus Voetius 1589 1676 Petrus van Mastricht 1630 1706 and Anthonius Driessen 1684 1748 A diversity of issues in Christian doctrine is discussed These include the relationship between theology and philosophy creation Divine providence the human being and Divine and natural law By reconstructing the views of these three theologians this book highlights similarities and differences within Reformed orthodoxy both in doctrine and in relation to philosophy The changes that thus become visible also suggest that biblical Christianity outlives the philosophical apparatus by whose assistance it is explained The Kuyper Center Review, Volume 2 John Bowlin, 2011 Includes papers presented at conferences sponsored by the Abraham Kuyper Center for Public Theology at Princeton Theological Seminary over the last two years Introduction
