Self Portrait Of Hero:

Self As Super Hero Amana Harris, 2011-01-31 Behold the Hero Alan McNairn, 1997-11-10 McNairn analyses representations of Wolfe in both popular culture and high art from mass produced ceramics to Benjamin West's famous painting of the death of Wolfe from popular songs to the writings of Oliver Goldsmith Horace Walpole Tobias Smollett Thomas Godfrey Benjamin Franklin and William Cowper He argues that Wolfe became the embodiment of British patriotism and the superiority of the English way of life and that the multitude of literary and visual works about Wolfe which primarily focus on his death were created in an environment in which legends of inspiring politically persuasive heroics were much in demand Behold the Hero will be of interest to historians of eighteenth century England and America art historians material historians and students of eighteenth century English literature and drama The Self-Portrait: A Cultural History James Hall, 2016-02-16 Hall provides a lively cultural interpretation of the genre from the Middle Ages to today Rather than provide a series of greatest hits he is more concerned with the reasons why artists create self portraits The Weekly Standard The self portrait may be the visual genre most identified with our confessional era but modern artists are far from the first to have explored its power and potential In this broad cultural survey of the genre art historian and critic James Hall brilliantly maps the history of self portraiture from the earliest myths of Narcissus and the Christian tradition of bearing witness to the prolific self image making of today's contemporary artists Hall's intelligent and vivid account shows how artists' depictions of themselves have been part of a continuing tradition that reaches back centuries Along the way he reveals the importance of the medieval mirror craze the explosion of the genre during the Renaissance the confessional self portraits of Titian and Michelangelo the biographical role of serial self portraits by artists such as Courbet and van Gogh themes of sex and genius in works by Munch Bonnard and Modersohn Becker and the latest developments of the genre in the era of globalization Comprehensive and beautifully illustrated the book features the work of a wide range of artists including Alberti Caravaggio Durer Emin Gauguin Giotto Goya Kahlo Koons Magritte Mantegna Picasso Raphael Rembrandt and Warhol Francis Parkman, Historian as Hero Wilbur R. Jacobs, 1991-01-01 A historian who lived the kind of history he wrote Francis Parkman is a major and controversial figure in American historiography His narrative style while popular with readers wanting a good story has raised many questions with professional historians Was Parkman writing history or historical fiction Did he color historical figures with his own heroic self image Was his objectivity compromised by his unbending conservative Brahmin values These are some of the many issues that Wilbur Jacobs treats in this thought provoking study Jacobs carefully considers the apprenticeship of Francis Parkman first spent in facing the rigors of the Oregon Trail and later in struggling to write his histories despite a mysterious frequently incapacitating illness He shows how these events allowed Parkman to create a heroic self image which impelled his desire for fame as a historian and influenced his treatment of both the noble and the savage characters of his histories In addition to assessing the influence of Parkman's development and personality on his histories Jacobs comments on Parkman's relationship to basic social and cultural issues of the nineteenth century These include the slavery question Native American issues expansion of the suffrage to new groups including women and anti Catholicism

How to See the World Nicholas Mirzoeff, 2016-04-12 Every two minutes Americans alone take more photographs than were printed in the entire nineteenth century every minute people from around the world upload over 300 hours of video to YouTube and in 2014 we took over one trillion photographs From the funny memes that we send to our friends to the disturbing photographs we see in the news we are consuming and producing images in quantities and ways that could never have been anticipated In the process we are producing a new worldview powered by changing demographics one where the majority of people are young urban and globally connected In How to See the World visual culture expert Nicholas Mirzoeff offers a sweeping look at history's most famous images from Velezquez's Las Meninas to the iconic Blue Marble to contextualize and make sense of today's visual world Drawing on art history sociology semiotics and everyday experience he teaches us how to close read everything from astronaut selfies to Impressionist self portraits from Hitchcock films to videos taken by drones Mirzoeff takes us on a journey through visual revolutions in the arts and sciences from new mapping techniques in the seventeenth century to new painting styles in the eighteenth and the creation of film photography and x rays in the nineteenth century In today's networked world mobile technology and social media enable us to exercise visual activism the practice of producing and circulating images to drive political and social change Whether we are looking at pictures showing the effects of climate change on natural and urban landscapes or an fMRI scan demonstrating neurological addiction Mirzoeff helps us to find meaning in what we see A powerful and accessible introduction to this new visual culture How to See the World reveals how images shape our lives how we can harness their power for good and why they matter to us all

Heretics and Heroes Thomas Cahill, 2014-08-12 The New York Times bestselling author of How the Irish Saved Civilization reveals how the innovations of the Renaissance and the Reformation changed the Western world Cahill is our king of popular historians The Dallas Morning News This was an age in which whole continents and peoples were discovered It was an era of sublime artistic and scientific adventure but also of newly powerful princes and armies and of unprecedented courage as thousands refused to bow their heads to the religious pieties of the past In these exquisitely written and lavishly illustrated pages Cahill illuminates as no one else can the great gift givers who shaped our history those who left us a world more varied and complex more awesome and delightful more beautiful and strong than the one they had found

The Haunting of Hero's Bay Amanda Block, 2025-10-09 The sea doesn't forget It knows all of this has happened before And will happen again 1840 As a vast ship loses its way in the night time mist shattering against the cliffs of Crescombe North Devon a daring young artist dives into the murky sea But it's not for heroism he is risking all something or someone is drawing him into those dark perilous waters By dawn only his legacy will survive Now When Finley arrives in Crescombe for the summer he suspects he's not alone in his attic bedroom Before long he is uncovering secrets the remote seaside town has kept for almost two centuries about ghosts and curses about a ruthless old smuggling family and about the young women whose bodies have washed up along the town's rocky shoreline just below his porthole window Yet the more Finley learns the further he's bonded to those who have gone before him and the closer he comes to meeting the same watery end But this is not just a story about death It's about love It's about fate And how ultimately the past can pull you under Praise for The Lost Storyteller A powerful novel about how stories connect us all Jenny Colgan A warm immersive read that weaves folklore through a story of self discovery Kate Sawyer A moving story and vivid characters But it also has that special indefinable something One of my books of the year Tracy Rees More Butch Heroes Ria Brodell, 2025-04-29 The much anticipated sequel to Butch Heroes an ingenious retelling of history that combines portraits and texts to recover and celebrate queer subjects from around the world Ingeniously conceived Ria Brodell's Butch Heroes books recover and celebrate queer subjects obscured or misrepresented within the dominant narratives of history More Butch Heroes presents 15 original paintings and biographies in the style of the first volume Butch Heroes slyly subverted Catholic holy cards featuring individuals who were assigned female at birth but who presented as masculine In this book we meet queer individuals in their everyday lives relaxing or working enduring their struggles which sometimes led to death or punishment or simply living their lives with their partners or pets Esther Eng stands with her camera in front of the Mandarin Theatre in San Francisco where she worked in the box office as a child Tom fishes on the Fraser River in British Columbia Joe sits astride his horse ready for a day's work in southwestern Idaho Brodell uses the format of the holy card in its traditional sense as a means of remembrance and reverence but also as a way to memorialize those who were often unjustly persecuted by the church Each deeply researched portrait draws from social class occupation clothing and environmental details of the time period as well as artifacts maps journals drawings prints or photos For Brodell who was raised Catholic these queer holy figures act as retrospective replacements for the role models they wish they had known The Hero's Life Choice.

Studies on Heracles at the Crossroads, the Judgement of Paris, and Their Reception Malcolm Davies, 2023-09-04 Two allegorical ancient Greek stories about a young hero's career defining choice are shown in this book to have later been appropriated to radically differing effects E.g. a male's choice between female personifications can morph into a female's choice between the same or between various male personifications Never before have so many instances of this process from art literature music even landscape gardening been culled Illustrations mainly colour many brought into this context for the first time are conveniently incorporated into the text thus mimetically mirroring a central theme of the book the process of visualising the verbal verbalising the visual
