all who need a home He is finding that becoming The World's Best Drummer in no time whatsoever is maybe not the easiest goal There are bullies ready to stomp him when all he has to defend himself with is a lunchbox And all this doesn't even include the freak swing set accident the fears inside his head or the funniest class presentation ever By keeping his cool some of the time banging on the drums a lot and keeping his sense of humor all the time Jordan's going to try to make it through the year and grow up to write a book about it

Younger-Generation Korean Experiences in the United States
Thomas Chung, Pyong Gap Min, 2014-06-11 Younger Generation Korean Experiences in the United States Personal Narratives on Ethnic and Racial Identities compares the formation of the ethnic identities of two distinct cohorts of Korean Americans Through personal essays the book explores four influential factors of ethnic identity retention of ethnic culture participation in ethnic social networks links to the mother country and its global power and influence and experiences with racial prejudice and discrimination The essays reflect certain major changes between the two cohorts the first growing up in the 1960s and early 1970s and the second growing up during the 1980s and early 1990s and proves how an increase in the Korean population and in the number of ethnic organizations helped the second cohort Korean Americans retain their cultural heritage in a more voluntary and therefore meaningful way This book's combination of first hand experiences and critical analysis makes it a valuable resource for studies of ethnicity culture identity formation and the Asian American experience

A Curious Life Thomas H. Haines, Mindy Lewis, 2019-08-06 A Curious Life chronicles the remarkable life of preeminent biochemist Thomas Haines Born in 1933 Haines was barely four when he was sent by court order to The Graham School an orphanage in Hastings on Hudson NY founded in 1806 by Isabella Graham and Elizabeth Schuyler Hamilton His trajectory is a series of radical reversals from penniless orphan to innovative scientist and educator from right wing McCarthyite to left wing activist founder of the Sophie Davis School of Biomedical Education of The City University of New York a medical school designed to bring in low income and minority students New York City landlord husband of a successful artist whom he nursed through a long illness father of a brilliant and prominent daughter Now eighty six Haines is Professor Emeritus at the Rockefeller Institute and the only alumnus of the Graham School to serve on its board A diminutive dynamo in a bow tie Dr Haines recently participated on a panel at the Smithsonian Museum of American History and jogs every morning at four a m in Central Park Above all a formidable storyteller Haines provides an intimate look at his relationships and conveys the excitement of a life in science Who could have possibly imagined that the four year old boy looking out at the sunset across the Hudson River from the grounds of the Graham School would have been able to live such an incredible and productive life From abandoned toddler to homeless vagabond to research chemist to husband and father to university professor to innovative educator to New York building landlord Tom has always placed a premium on personal connections and interactions He has benefitted from the kindness of strangers and mentorship and in turn he has mentored and helped countless others along the way on his amazing life's journey What a lucky life he has lived Thomas P Sakmar Foreword Tom combines a charming generous and curious demeanor with a fierce inner determination to understand the world and how it works Perhaps because of his unconventional childhood Tom has spent his life challenging conventional wisdom As you will experience in Mindy Lewis s fabulous telling of Tom s life the world is a more enchanting place with Dr Haines in it Jess Dannhauser Introduction Not Ready Player One Andy Nonamus,2025-09-16 A very unlucky kid who is notoriously bad at video games agrees to help a friend with her new virtual reality game Perfect Pixel Pups Understanding Sociology Earl R.
