Spare the Rod Richard Malm, 2016-01-08 Isn't spanking our children a rather barbaric form of discipline in our modern society Doesn't spanking teach children that violence is an appropriate way to solve problems Is spanking even effective in changing behavior There is no shortage of critics when it comes to the topic of spanking children but is it possible that spanking when done within Biblical guidelines is actually a controlled act of love that helps a child escape slavery to his own selfishness unrestrained emotions and unbridled self will Is it possible that spanking is actually less cruel than the methods parents usually are forced to resort to when they refuse to spank their children Spare the Rod looks at five times it's not appropriate to spank our children But while doing so it also provides guidelines for when it is appropriate and examines the heart attitude with which parents should approach it If you've had questions about this controversial form of discipline you definitely need to spare the rod until you've read Spare The Rod
