Meri, 2006 Examines the socio cultural history of the regions where Islam took hold between the 7th and 16th century This two volume work contains 700 alphabetically arranged entries and provides a portrait of Islamic civilization It is of use in understanding the roots of Islamic society as well to explore the culture of medieval civilization Shrine and Cult of Mu'in Al-din Chishti of Aimer P. M. Currie, 1993 Urban Histories of Rajasthan Elizabeth M. Thelen, 2022-06-20 An exploration of religious conflicts in premodern urban India Diverse peoples intermingled in the streets and markets of premodern Indian cities This book considers how these diverse residents lived together and negotiated their differences Which differences mattered when and to whom How did state actions and policies affect urban society and the lives of various communities How and why did conflict occur in urban spaces Through these questions this book explores the histories of urban communities in the three cities of Ajmer Nagaur and Pushkar in Rajasthan between the sixteenth and eighteenth centuries The focus of this study is on everyday life contextualizing religious practices and conflicts by considering patterns of patronage and broader conflict patterns within society The book examines various archival documents from family and institutional records to state registers and uses these documents to demonstrate the complex and sometimes contradictory ways religion intersected with politics economics and society The author shows how many patronage patterns and processes persisted in altered forms and how the robustness of these structures contributed to the resilience of urban spaces and society in precolonial Rajasthan Nonviolent Resistance, and the New Struggle for Social Justice ,2019-11-26 In Civility Nonviolent Resistance and the New Struggle for Social Justice Amin Asfari brings together scholarly contributions addressing the causes of injustice in its many forms Predicated on the idea that violence and injustice are systemic and historical this collection includes chapters that examine the antecedents and effects of prejudice state sponsored violence policies of exclusion and the social forces that shape and solidify their existence Moving beyond ad hoc ahistorical and descriptive explanations of violence and injustice this volume provides a scholarly multidisciplinary approach to confronting them Contributions reflect the many ways in which injustice manifests and civil nonviolent means of engagement are emphasized challenging the very systems that give Sufi Rituals and Practices Kashshaf Ghani, 2024 This book explores the institution of Sufism the most rise to these notions dynamic face of Islam in the Indian subcontinent as it sets out to study the mystical rituals and devotional practices that characterize Sufism s beliefs and traditions Routledge Handbook on Sufism Lloyd Ridgeon, 2020-08-09 This is a chronological history of the Sufi tradition divided in to three sections early middle and modern periods The book comprises 35 independent chapters with easily identifiable themes and or geographical threads all written by recognised experts in the field The volume outlines the origins and early developments of Sufism by assessing the formative thinkers and practitioners and investigating specific pietistic themes The middle period contains an examination of the emergence of the Sufi Orders and illustrates the diversity of the tradition This middle period also analyses the fate of Sufism during the time of the Gunpowder Empires Finally the end period includes representative surveys of Sufism in several countries both in the West and in traditional Islamic regions This comprehensive and up to date collection of studies provides a guide to the Sufi tradition The Handbook is a valuable resource for students and researchers with an interest in religion Islamic Studies and South Asian Islam Nasr M Arif, Abbas Panakkal, 2023-10-06 This volume explores the historical Middle Eastern Studies trajectory of the spread of Islam in South Asia and how the engagements of the past have played a crucial role in the making of the present outfits of South Asian Islam in South Asia has maintained a distinct role while imbibing cultural social ethnic folk and artistic networks of the subcontinent in diverse echelons In an unequivocal analysis this volume showcases the visible varieties of Islam from an array of regional cultural ethnic and vernacular groups While many characteristics remain distinct in different provinces or regions of South Asia similarities are palpable in etiquettes customary laws art and architecture More than regional differences various ethnic groups from all poles of the Indian subcontinent have paved the way for the dissimilar landscapes of Islam in tandem with differences in language culture and festivals The case studies in this book exhibit forms of cultural pluralism in the communities which have helped in building a cohesive community Part of the Global Islamic Cultures series that looks at integrated and indigenized Islam this book will be of interest to students and researchers of religion religious history theology study of Islamic law and politics cultural studies and South Asian Studies It will also be useful to general readers who are interested in world religions and cultures Sufism, Culture, and Politics Raziuddin Aguil, 2012-09-24 This book provides a political history of north India under Afghan rulers in the late fifteenth and early sixteenth centuries Focusing on interconnections between religion and politics it also raises questions of paramount concern to an understanding of Islam in medieval north India The book is divided into three sections The first section explores the Afghan attempts at empire building under the leadership of Sher Shah Sur Discussing the incorporation of the Rajputs in the Afghan imperial project the second part deals with the prevalent ideals and institutions of governance The last segment investigates the social and political role of the Sufis Questioning the overemphasis on the Sultanate and Mughal periods in Indian history writing Aquil projects a dynamic view of the Afghan period The Shrine and Cult of Mu'in Al-Din Chishti of Ajmer P. M. Currie, 1993-04 One of the most revered mystics of the Indian subcontinent was the fourteenth century Shaykh Mu in al Din Chishti whose tomb in Rajasthan is a center of pilgrimage to the present day This study defines the role of the Sufi mystics in Islam and places Mu in al Din in a historical context attempting to disentangle the Mu in of history from the legendary creation of later hagiographical chronicles. The author then considers why the legend arose at all and took the form that it assumed Later chapters describe the history of the shrine and the customs and hierarchy of attendants that have grown up around it in the last 500 years Hajj across Empires Rishad Choudhury, 2024-02-08 Rishad Choudhury presents a new history of imperial connections across the Indian Ocean from 1739 to 1857 a period that witnessed the decline and collapse of Mughal rule and the consolidation of British colonialism in South Asia In this highly original and comprehensive study he reveals how the hajj pilgrimage significantly transformed Muslim political culture and colonial attitudes towards it creating new ideas of religion and rule Examining links between the Indian Subcontinent and the Ottoman Middle East through multilingual sources from first hand accounts to administrative archives of hajj Choudhury uncovers a striking array of pilgrims who leveraged their experiences and exchanges abroad to address the decline and decentralization of an Islamic old regime at home Hajjis crucially mediated the birth of modern Muslim political traditions around South Asia Hajj across Empires argues they did so by channeling inter imperial crosscurrents to successive surges of imperial revolution and regional regime change Timurids in Transition Maria Subtelny, 2007 Applying the Weberian concept of the routinization of charisma the book examines the transformation of the nomadic empire of Tamerlane into a sedentary polity based on the Perso Islamic model by focusing on the reign of the last Timurid ruler Sul n usain Baygara in fifteenth century Iran Islam in South Asia Jamal Malik, 2008-10-31 Islamic South Asia has become a focal point in academia Where did Muslims come from How did they fare in interacting with Hindu cultures How did they negotiate identity as ruling and ruled minorities and majorities Part I covers early Muslim expansion and the formative phase in context of initial cultural encounter app 700 1300 Part II views the establishment of Muslim empire cultures oscillating between Islamic and Islamicate centralised and regionalised power app 1300 1700 Part III is composed in the backdrop of regional centralisation territoriality and colonial rule displaying processes of integration and differentiation of Muslim cultures in colonial setting app 1700 1930 Tensions between Muslim pluralism and singularity evolving in public sphere make up the fourth cluster app 1930 2002 Discovering Islam Akbar S. Ahmed, 2024-11-01 Now reissued with a new introduction Discovering Islam is a classic account of how the history of Islam and its relations with the West have shaped Islamic society today Islam is often caricatured as aggressive and fanatic Written in the tradition of Ibn Khaldun this readable and wide ranging book balances that image uncovers the roots of Islamic discontent and celebrates the sources of its strength From the four ideal Caliphs who succeeded the Prophet to the refugee camps of Peshawar an objective picture emerges of the main features of Muslim history and the compulsions of Muslim society The Faiths of Others Thomas Albert Howard, 2021-05-25 The first intellectual history of interreligious dialogue a relatively new and significant dimension of human religiosity In recent decades organizations committed to interreligious or interfaith dialogue have proliferated both in the Western and non Western worlds Why How so And what exactly is interreligious dialogue These are the touchstone questions of this book the first major history of interreligious dialogue in the modern age Thomas Albert Howard narrates and analyzes several key turning points in the history of interfaith dialogue before examining in the conclusion the contemporary landscape While many have theorized about and practiced interreligious dialogue few have attended carefully to its past connecting its emergence and spread with broader developments in modern history Interreligious dialogue grasped in light of careful critical attention to its past holds promise for helping people of diverse faith backgrounds to foster cooperation and knowledge of one another while contributing insight into contemporary global religious pluralism The Millennial Sovereign A. Azfar Moin, 2012-10-16 At the end of the sixteenth century and the turn of the first Islamic millennium the powerful Mughal emperor Akbar declared himself the most sacred being on earth The holiest of all saints and above the distinctions of religion he styled himself as the messiah reborn Yet the Mughal emperor was not alone in doing so In this field changing study A Azfar Moin explores why Muslim sovereigns in this period began to imitate the exalted nature of Sufi saints Uncovering a startling yet widespread phenomenon he shows how the charismatic pull of sainthood wilayat rather than the draw of religious law sharia or holy war jihad inspired a new style of sovereignty in Islam A work of history richly informed by the anthropology of religion and art The Millennial Sovereign traces how royal dynastic cults and shrine centered Sufism came together in the imperial cultures of Timurid Central Asia Safavid Iran and Mughal India By juxtaposing imperial chronicles paintings and architecture with theories of sainthood apocalyptic treatises and manuals on astrology and magic Moin uncovers a pattern of Islamic politics shaped by Sufi and millennial motifs He shows how alchemical symbols and astrological rituals enveloped the body of the monarch casting him as both spiritual guide and material lord Ultimately Moin offers a striking new perspective on the history of Islam and the religious and political developments linking South Asia and The Book Review ,1990 Extreme Right Wing Political Violence and Terrorism Max Iran in early modern times Taylor, P.M. Currie, Donald Holbrook, 2013-02-14 In this collection senior experts explore all aspects of extreme right wing political violence from the nature of the threat processes of engagement and ideology to the lessons that can be drawn from exiting such engagement Further right wing activism and political violence are compared with Jihadi violence and engagement Also the European experience is placed within a greater framework including that of the United States and the Arab Spring The book opens with an essay on U S far right groups investigating their origins and processes of recruitment It then delves into violence against UK Mosques and Islamic centers the relationship between Ulster loyalism and far right extremism the Dutch extremist landscape and the July 2011 Norway attacks Also discussed are how narratives of violence are built and justified at what point do individuals join into violence and how differently states respond to left wing vs right wing extremism This comparative work offers a unique look into the very nature of right wing extremism and will be a must read for anyone studying political violence and terrorism Pakistan's Drift into Extremism Hassan Abbas, 2015-03-26 This book examines the rise of religious extremism in Pakistan particularly since 1947 and analyzes its connections to the Pakistani army s corporate interests and U S Pakistan relations It includes profiles of leading Pakistani militant groups with details of their origins development and capabilities The author begins with an historical overview of the introduction of

Islam to the Indian sub continent in 712 AD and brings the story up to the present by describing President Musharraf s handling of the war on terror He provides a detailed account of the political developments in Pakistan since 1947 with a focus on the influence of religious and military forces He also discusses regional politics Pakistan's attempt to gain nuclear power status and U S Pakistan relations and offers predictions for Pakistan's domestic and regional prospects God Raziuddin Aguil, 2020-01-24 This book addresses some of the fiercely contested issues about religion and politics in medieval India especially with regard to the crucial presence of Sufis who styled themselves as friends and lovers of God Enjoying widespread veneration even in situations of hostility with regard to Islam and Muslims in general Sufis are central to an understanding of religious interactions and community relations historically The chapters included in the book can be read as stand alone pieces focusing on some of the most fascinating as well as contentious themes in medieval Indian history subjects and issues which are otherwise either left untouched by historians because of their sensitive nature from the point of view of modern day secularism or abused by interested parties in their communal propaganda When read as a monograph the volume as a whole attempts to combat all kinds of intellectual absurdities which mar our understating of the place of Islam in medieval Indian history especially the significant presence of Sufis who were devoted to the love of God and service to humanity Historiographically important issues which are also topical in these times of interdependence of religion and politics the latter exploiting religion for legitimacy and justification of violence and religion needing political support for expansion and imposition on the gullible have been dealt in detail neither bounded by a particular ideology nor by identity politics with its separate blinkers Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka
