David McAleavey

Shrine Shelter Cave:

Shrine, Shelter, Cave David McAleavey, 1980 From Mt. San Angelo William Smart, 1984 From Mt San Angelo is a book length anthology of new writing All of the fiction poetry and essays in this volume edited by William Smart director of the Virginia Center for the Creative Arts VCCA are being published here for the first time Aegaeum, 1987 Native American Landscapes Cheryl Claassen, 2024-01-12 This collection of essays focuses on what Cheryl Claassen terms the multi vocal landscape the idea that different groups and genders look upon the same natural features but perceive different meanings and potential in what they are seeing Through ten chapters various contributors showcase the ways in which native peoples see and interact with the natural world At the heart of this book is the idea that Europeans associated nature with the feminine and saw the natural world as a passive frontier to be dominated Native Americans however looked at landscape differently They saw nature as a place in which to engage in complex negotiations between spirits and humans This approach to nature cemented a relationship to the land based more on a partnership rather than subjugation These essays deepen our understanding of the interaction between native people and the land While other books focus on the gendered gaze of European men upon the landscape this collection emphasizes that native men and native women looked upon natural formations and constructed landscapes differently from one another a difference in perception that is important for archaeologists and anthropologists to understand While there have been advances toward admitting this more complex view in the rest of the world Native American Landscapes is the first to focus on how native men and women viewed the world around them Native American Landscapes is organized by region taking readers across the country from the rock shelters of the Cumberland Plateau in the east to the Mojave Desert and the Mexican Gulf Coast then north to what is now British Columbia and farther west to Hawaii Readers of this collection through a study of creation myths vision quests fertility shrines and other ritualized uses of landscape will learn more about the land and about humans perception of our natural surroundings which forms the bedrock of our present relationship with the natural world CHERYL CLAASSEN is professor of anthropology at Appalachian State University She is the author or editor of six books on Native American prehistory including Feasting with Shellfish in the Southern Ohio Valley Shells Rituals and Beliefs in Archaic North America and Women in Prehistory North America and Mesoamerica Buddhist Landscapes in Central India Julia Shaw, 2016-08-12 The monumental bias of Buddhist archaeology has hampered our understanding of the socio religious mechanisms that enabled early Buddhist monks to establish themselves in new areas To articulate these relationships Shaw presents here the first integrated study of settlement archaeology and Buddhist history carried out in the area around Sanchi a Central Indian UNESCO World Heritage site Her comprehensive data rich and heavily illustrated work provides an archaeological basis for assessing theories regarding the dialectical relationship between Buddhism and surrounding lay populations It also sheds light on the role of the introduction of Buddhism in changing settlement patterns This volume was Watching Lacandon Maya Lives R. Jon McGee, 2023-02-22 Although romanticized as the last of the ancient Maya living isolated in the forest several generations of the Lacandon Maya have had their lives shaped by the international oil economy tourism and political unrest Watching Lacandon Maya Lives is an examination of dramatic cultural changes in a Maya rainforest farming community over the last forty years including changes to their families industries religion health and healing practices and gender roles The book contains several discussions of anthropological theory in accessible jargon free language including how the use of different theoretical perspectives impacts an ethnographer's fieldwork experience While relating his own mishaps experiences of community strife and conflicts Jon McGee encourages students to shed the romantic veil through which ethnographies are usually viewed and think more deeply about how events in our own lives influence how we understand the behavior of people around us New to the Second Edition Revised Introduction incorporates the author's recent work with the Lacandon and discussions of anthropological writing culture theory and how events in the author's personal life have changed his approach to anthropological fieldwork Revised chapter Finding an Income in the Lacandon Jungle focuses on families who have shifted from a subsistence farming economy to earning revenue by renting facilities to tourists owning small community stores working as hired labor for archaeologists or make use of a variety of government rural aid programs created in the last two decades Chapter 5 New chapter Forty Years Among the Lacandon Some Lessons Learned discusses what the author's 40 years of experience as an ethnographer has taught him about the discipline of anthropology and the concept of culture Chapter 8 The Archaeology of Caves in Ireland Marion Dowd, 2015-01-31 The Archaeology of Caves in Ireland is a ground breaking and unique study of the enigmatic unseen and dark silent world of caves People have engaged with caves for the duration of human occupation of the island spanning 10 000 years In prehistory subterranean landscapes were associated with the dead and the spirit world with evidence for burials funerary rituals and votive deposition The advent of Christianity saw the adaptation of caves as homes and places of storage yet they also continued to feature in religious practice Medieval mythology and modern folklore indicate that caves were considered places of the supernatural being particularly associated with otherworldly women Through a combination of archaeology mythology and popular religion this book takes the reader on a fascinating journey that sheds new light on a hitherto neglected area of research It encourages us to consider what underground activities might reveal about the lives lived aboveground and leaves us in no doubt as to the cultural significance of caves in the past Pacific Anthropological Records, 1979 From Cave to Dolmen Domenica Gulli, 2014-12-31 Bringing together the scientific contributions of a wide panel of Sicilian and mainland Italian specialists in prehistory this book focuses on the Sciacca region and its landscape which is extraordinarily rich in natural geological phenomena and associated archaeological activity Votive Reliefs Carol L. Lawton, 2017-05-18 This volume includes all of the Classical Hellenistic and Roman votive reliefs found to date in the excavations of the Athenian Agora In addition to providing a catalogue of the reliefs arranged according to their subjects the author treats the history of their discovery their production and workmanship iconography and function A large part of the study is devoted to discussion of the original contexts of the reliefs in an attempt to determine their relationship to shrines in the vicinity and to investigate what they can tell us about the character of religious activity in the vicinity of the Agora The work will be an important reference for historians of Greek art as well as of Greek religion Beliefs and Rituals in Archaic Eastern North America Cheryl Claassen, 2015-06-15 Claassen's work focuses on the American Archaic period marked by the end of the Ice Age approximately 11 000 years ago and a geographic area bounded by the edge of the Great Plains Newfoundland and southern Florida This period and region share specific beliefs and practices such as human sacrifice dirt mound burial and oyster shell middens This interpretive guide serves as a platform for new interpretations and theories on this period For example Claassen connects rituals to topographic features and posits the Pleistocene Holocene transition as a major stimulus to Archaic beliefs She also expands the interpretation of existing data previously understood in economic or environmental terms to include how this same data may also reveal spiritual and symbolic practices Similarly Claassen interprets Archaic culture in terms of human agency and social constraint bringing ritual acts into focus as drivers of social transformation and ethnogenesis David McAllevey Greatest Hits David McAllevey, 2001 Marine Exploitation in Prehistoric Hawai'i Patrick Vinton Kirch, 1979 Cave Ralph Crane, Lisa Fletcher, 2015-04-15 Shortlisted for the Tratman Award 2015 To enter caves is to venture beyond the realm of the everyday From huge vaulted caverns to impassable water filled passages from the karst topography of Guilin in China to the lava tubes of Hawaii from tiny remote pilgrimage sites to massive tourism enterprises caves are places of mystery Dark spaces that remain largely unexplored caves are astonishing wonders of nature and habitats for exotic flora and fauna This book investigates the natural and cultural history of caves and considers the roles caves have played in the human imagination and experience of the natural world It explores the long history of the human fascination with caves across countries and continents examining their dual role as spaces of both wonder and fear It tells the tales of the adventurers who pioneered the science of caves and those of the explorers and cave divers still searching for new unmapped routes deep into the earth This book explores the lure of the subterranean world by examining caving and cave tourism and by looking to the mythology literature and art of caves This lavishly illustrated book will appeal to general readers and experts alike interested in the ecology and use of caves or the
