From her father's bomb shelter to her mother's raspberry jam from a lost Georgian public library with narrow little streets of books to the memory of crossing by bridge the turbulent waters of the Tamar River to a revelatory picnic at Tasmania's Cataract Gorge in 1945 this is the most intimate of memoirs. It is one that never shies from the horrors of world history, the treatment of First Nations People or the literary misrepresentations of the past. Original, lyrical and hugely enjoyable, Telltale with its finely wrought insight and artful storytelling is destined to delight. A book about books that dreams you through a library of life. Bruce Pascoe. I have so loved this book. It walks us through the encounters of a lifetime, always with a delightful eye for strange connections and elusive memories. It is testimony to a life of great intellectual generosity and human compassion. It is irresistible. Michael McGirr
