Shurangama Sutra:

The Shurangama Sutra Ronald Epstein, PhD, David Rounds, 2012-08-06 For more than a thousand years the Shurangama Sutra has been held in high regard in the Mahayana Buddhist countries of East and Southeast Asia and has been as popular as the Lotus Heart and Diamond Sstras Its wealth of theoretical and practical instruction in living a spiritual life often made it the first major text studied by newly ordained monks particularly in the Chan tradition This Sutra is regarded as a complete and practical manual for spiritual practice that will lead to enlightenment It provides instruction on understanding one's own Buddha nature the potential within every being for becoming a Buddha The Sutra explains how and why this nature is hidden and how we can uncover it and recognize it as our own true mind The Sutra also explains why personal integrity and purity of conduct are prerequisites for spiritual awakening It presents the principles of meditation and provides guidelines for discerning correct practices from those which deviate into wrong ones It explains how our own intentional acts whether physical verbal or mental result in karmic experiences including rebirths into various levels of being both human and non human At the heart of the Sutra is the Shurangama Mantra The Sutra promises that the practice of reciting this mantra in the context of the other practices taught in the Sutra can successfully eliminate internal or external obstacles that block the path of spiritual progress

The Shurangama Sutra with Commentary Hsüan Hua, 2003 The Shurangama Sutra Hsüan Hua, 1997 The final section of the Sutra describes how in the breakdown of the five skandhas of form feelings thinking formations and consciousness various states occur When these will not be harmful if the practitioner remains unmoved But if one becomes attached to or arrogant about these experiences when they occur then demonic states arise This text is an invaluable manual for those who practice meditation

The Shurangama Sutra, Great Strength Bodhisattva's Perfect Penetration Through Mindfulness of the Buddha Hsüan Hua, Hsuan Hua, 1997 If we recite the Buddha's name single mindedly we can control the six sense faculties remain unmoved by states and put an end to random thoughts If our recitation becomes uninterrupted then we will surely be born in the Land of Ultimate Bliss Venerable Master Hua

The Shurangama Sutra HSUAN HUA., 1977 The Sutra Yutong, In exploring the essence function and role of religion in human societies we have to confront a complex and multifaceted issue Religion as an enduring cultural phenomenon has evolved in its connotations and denotations over time This profound exploration into religion reveals the secrets behind the enduring vitality of religious practices and the invisible ecological nature of religion itself It presents the power of enlightenment transcending the realms of monks and nuns making us realize that all beings possess Buddha nature and the potential to attain enlightenment Enlightenment is the foundation of faith and a pivotal moment in the course of scientifically disciplined spiritual practice In the vast river of the universe humanity is but a node with an enlightened society being its ultimate destination Through the right knowledge and insight we ensure the absolute authority of the Sutra approaching the original intent of the Buddha infinitely and materialistically Employing a scientific materialist perspective to understand Buddhism is the essential path to enlightenment and mastery of objective laws The reason religion continues to captivate people lies not only in its provision of spiritual solace but more importantly in fulfilling the pursuit of ultimate meaning Through its unique belief system religion offers believers a way to interpret the world and life often surpassing everyday experiences and logic Moreover religion plays a social function by propagating specific values thereby influencing society and maintaining social order to some extent The essence of religion can be regarded as an objectively existing invisible ecology This view considers religion as a manifestation of a special relationship between humans and nature and the universe representing humanity's attempt to understand and master the world The sacred reality in religion provides people with a spiritual refuge beyond reality enabling them to find strength and hope when facing difficulties and challenges in life Third enlightenment is the essence of Buddha nature it is not confined to monks or nuns This view highlights the importance of self-awakening in Buddhism Every individual has the potential to become enlightened It is not limited to monks or nuns but open to anyone willing and able to follow the correct practices This perspective encourages personal spiritual enhancement and self-improvement through inner cultivation and practice The belief that all beings possess Buddha nature signifies everyone's potential for enlightenment Grounded in a fundamental doctrine of Buddhism it suggests that all living beings inherently possess supreme Buddha nature which can be gradually unveiled by the correct practice removing ignorance and delusion ultimately achieving enlightenment This highlights Buddhism's affirmation of individual potential and the possibility of self-transcendence through practice In summary religion as a complex cultural phenomenon extends far beyond mere superstition or spiritual reliance It influences the development and future of human societies with correct knowledge and insight Religion serves both as an individual's spiritual pursuit and a societal value system Through a deep understanding and study of religion we can better recognize its significant status in human history and culture as well as its positive contributions to individual and societal development This journey of exploration is not only a reflection on religion itself but also an inquiry into human civilization transcending traditional religious boundaries Integrating science and faith and opening a path to enlightenment In this era of challenge and transformation this book offers a guiding light leading us towards a deeper reflection and cognition Illuminating a promising path for humanity's future
