Siam And The West 1500 To 17:

Siam & the West, 1500-1700 Dirk Van der Cruysse, 2002-05-15 Ambassadors from Versailles in wigs and lace mounted on elephants crossing rice fields Siamese mandarins prostrate before the throne of Louis XIV a Greek adventurer a scheming French Jesuit these are just a few of the colourful characters that playa role in the early history of relations between Siam and the West In a lively and engaging style Professor Dirk Van der Cruysse traces the history of European Siamese relations from the arrival of the Portuguese around the beginning of the sixteenth century followed by the Dutch the British and the French Explorers merchants missionaries and ambassadors came and went across the oceans sometimes producing vivid accounts of lengthy voyages lavish courts and strange customs In these descriptions and anecdotes we observe the startling juxtaposition of fundamentally different worldviews arising from two distinct religious milieux Van der Cruysse expertly weaves together material from journals memoirs and other archival documents quoting from them extensively to construct a compelling historical account of a fascinating relationship Originally published as Louis XIV et le Siam Fayard 1991 this English version has been ably translated by Michael Smithies author of numerous books and articles on the French involvement in Siam during the seventeenth century Osiris, Volume 37 Tara Alberts, Sietske Fransen, Elaine Leong, 2021-06-21 Highlights the importance of translation for the global exchange of medical theories practices and materials in the premodern period This volume of Osiris turns the analytical lens of translation onto medical knowledge and practices across the premodern world Understandings of the human body and of diseases and their cures were influenced by a range of religious cultural environmental and intellectual factors As a result complex systems of translation emerged as people crossed linguistic and territorial boundaries to share not only theories and concepts but also materials such as drugs amulets and surgical tools The studies here reveal how instances of translation helped to shape and in some cases reimagine these ideas and objects to fit within local frameworks of medical belief Translating Medicine across Premodern Worlds features case studies located in geographically and temporally diverse contexts including ninth century Baghdad sixteenth century Seville seventeenth century Cartagena and nineteenth century Bengal Throughout the contributors explore common themes and divergent experiences associated with a variety of historical endeavors to translate knowledge about health and the body across languages practices and media By deconstructing traditional narratives and de emphasizing well worn dichotomies this volume ultimately offers a fresh and innovative approach to histories of knowledge Commercial Cosmopolitanism? Felicia Gottmann, 2021-03-30 This book showcases the wide variety of commercial cosmopolitan practices that arose from the global economic entanglements of the early modern period Cosmopolitanism is not only a philosophical ideal for many centuries it has also been an everyday practice across the globe The early modern era saw hitherto unprecedented levels of economic interconnectedness States societies and individuals reacted with a mixture of commercial idealism and commercial anxiety seeking at once to exploit new opportunities for growth whilst limiting its disruptive effects

In highlighting the range of commercial cosmopolitan practices that grew out of early modern globalisation the book demonstrates that it provided robust alternatives to the universalising western imperial model of the later period Deploying a number of interdisciplinary methodologies the kind of methodological cosmopolitanism that Ulrich Beck has called for chapters provide agency centred evaluations of the risks and opportunities inherent in the ambiguous role of the cosmopolitan who often playing on and mobilising a number of identities operated in between and outside of different established legal social and cultural systems The book will be important reading for students and scholars working at the intersection of economic global and cultural history The Kings of Ayutthaya Robert Smith, 2017-07-07 Part fact part fiction part myth and part legend this book brings to life the kingdom of Ayutthaya from its roots in the kingdom of Sukhothai to its eventual destruction by the Burmese in the year 1767 It is the turbulent story of both the kings and their kingdom from its birth to its downfall Robert Smith retells the history of Ayutthaya by reimagining and dramatizing the exploits of its rulers building his account around a framework of documentary evidence and hints in the historical record Intrigues honor and deception wind through the tale as do ingenuity determination and the will to greatness that made Ayutthaya a major regional power for centuries This account of the development of a nation and the myths and legends that have gone with it shows how Ayutthaya and its kings laid the foundation of modern day Thailand Highlights Engages readers with its presentation of the history myths and legends of the Ayutthaya kingdom Shows the development of cultural heritage kingship and governance of Thailand Narrates the stories of the kings and ruling dynasties of Ayutthaya Dramatizes famous figures and events in Ayutthaya history through dialogue narration and description King of the Waters H. ten Brummelhuis, 2021-10-25 King of the waters describes how a brilliant Dutch engineer ultimately failed to implement his plans for modern irrigation in Siam Homan van der Heide s identification with the interests of the rice farmers caused ambivalent reactions from his Siamese environment Interwoven with the detailed description of the actions of the Dutch engineer King Chulalongkorn and some of his ministers is the ambiguous performance of the Siamese state towards agriculture in the first decade of the twentieth century The book shows the weight of many contingencies in state affairs especially through the problematical interactions between the engineer Homan van der Heide and the minister of Agriculture chao phraya Thewet they seemed to form a kind of jolie deux King of the waters sketches a dramatic picture of clashing cultures comparable to many encounters in contemporary development cooperation The study is based on archival material in the National Archives in Bangkok and documents available in the Netherlands Confronting Christianity Sven Trakulhun, 2024-07-31 Confronting Christianity explores the history of religious encounters between Christian missionaries and Thai Buddhists during the nineteenth century a period of Western imperialism in Southeast Asia that fundamentally transformed Siamese society and religious institutions From about 1830 onward discussions on religion became a central arena of conflict between rival regimes of knowledge in Thailand confronting traditional Buddhist views on nature and man's existence with the ideals and practices of science and rationalism coming from the West Protestant missionaries mostly from the United States became important brokers of knowledge as one of their strengths was the ability to offer religion in tandem with modern science and technology Historian Sven Trakulhun explains why the intrusion of evangelical Christianity strengthened the position of Therav da Buddhism rather than undermining people's belief in traditional forms of worship Based on a wide range of Thai and Western primary sources the volume describes how Christian missionaries unwittingly contributed to the making of what scholars of Buddhism have later rendered as Buddhist modernism In response to Christian assaults on the traditional cosmology Buddhist reformers fashioned an orthodox version of Buddhism that acknowledged the findings of modern science and at the same time deemed even more rational than Christianity This new orthodoxy became a major source of moral authority for Thai kings and an important ideology for pushing their claims for religious leadership in the Theray da Buddhist world Trakulhun offers a thorough study of the encounter between Christianity and Buddhism and places the history of Siamese Theray da Buddhism within the broad context of global intellectual history Journal, Memorials and Letters of Cornelis Matelieff de Jonge Peter Borschberg, 2015-07-31 Admiral Cornelis Matelieff de Jonge was a Director in the Rotterdam chamber of the Dutch East Indies Company VOC for three decades in the early 17th century In May 1605 he set sail from the Dutch Republic with a fleet of 11 ships and in the following year launched an unsuccessful attack on Portuguese Melaka After visiting various locations in the region and signing landmark treaties with the rulers of Johor 1606 and Ternate 1607 he returned to the Netherlands in 1608 There he wrote a series of epistolary reports and memoranda that were carefully studied by leading policy makers in the Republic among them the renowned jurist Hugo Grotius and the politician and diplomat Johan van Oldenbarnevelt Early VOC policy for south eastern Asia drew heavily on Matelieff's submissions and the materials reproduced in this volume provide candid insights into key elements of VOC strategy trade security and regional diplomacy as well as Dutch relations with Spain and Portugal Here translated into English for the first time this collection of Matelieff's writings is an invaluable resource for students of business history early colonial history and the Collecting Across Cultures Daniela Bleichmar, Peter C. Mancall, 2011-03-17 In the early history of international law modern age more people traveled farther than at any earlier time in human history Many returned home with stories of distant lands and at least some of the objects they collected during their journeys And those who did not travel eagerly acquired wondrous materials that arrived from faraway places Objects traveled various routes personal imperial missionary or trade and moved not only across space but also across cultures Histories of the early modern global culture of collecting have focused for the most part on European Wunderkammern or cabinets of curiosities But the passion for acquiring unfamiliar items rippled across many lands The court in Java marveled at collected and displayed myriad goods brought through its halls African princes traded captured members of other African groups so they could get the newest kinds of cloth produced in Europe Native Americans sought colored glass beads made in Europe often trading them to other indigenous groups Items changed hands and crossed cultural boundaries frequently often gaining new and valuable meanings in the process An object that might have seemed mundane in some cultures could become a target of veneration in another The fourteen essays in Collecting Across Cultures represent work by an international group of historians art historians and historians of science Each author explores a specific aspect of the cross cultural history of collecting and display from the dawn of the sixteenth century to the early decades of the nineteenth century As the essays attest an examination of early modern collecting in cross cultural contexts sheds light on the creative and complicated ways in which objects in collections served to create knowledge some factual some fictional about distant peoples in an increasingly transnational world

The Memoirs and Memorials of Jacques de Coutre
Peter Borschberg, 2013-11-01 Jacques de Coutre was a Flemish gem trader who spent nearly a decade in Southeast Asia at the turn of the 17th century He left history a substantial autobiography written in Spanish and preserved in the National Library of Spain in Madrid Written in the form of a picaresque tale with an acute eye for the cultures he encountered the memoirs tell the story of his adventures in the trading centres of the day Melaka Ayutthaya Cambodia Patani Pahang Johor Brunei and Manila Narrowly escaping death several times De Coutre was inevitably drawn into dangerous intrigues between the representatives of European power myriad fortune hunters and schemers and the rulers and courtiers in the palaces of Pahang Patani Siam and Johor

Trading Companies and Travel Knowledge in the Early Modern World Aske Laursen Brock, Guido van Meersbergen, Edmond Smith, 2021-10-28 Trading Companies and Travel Knowledge in the Early Modern World explores the links between trade empire exploration and global information transfer during the early modern period By charting how the leaders members employees and supporters of different trading companies gathered processed employed protected and divulged intelligence about foreign lands peoples and markets this book throws new light on the internal uses of information by corporate actors and the ways they engaged with relied on and supplied various external publics. This ranged from using secret knowledge to beat competitors to shaping debates about empire and to forcing Europeans to reassess their understandings of specific environments due to contacts with non European peoples Reframing our understanding of trading companies through the lens of travel literature this volume brings together thirteen experts in the field to facilitate a new understanding of how European corporations and empires were shaped by global webs of information exchange The Growth and Development of Astronomy and Astrophysics in India and the Asia-Pacific Region Wayne Orchiston, Aniket Sule, Mayank Vahia, 2019-06-28 This book discusses the study of astronomy in different cultures applied historical astronomy and history of multi wavelength astronomy and the genesis of recent research It contains peer reviewed papers gathered from the International Conference on Oriental Astronomy 9 ICOA 9 held at the Indian Institute of Science Education and Research Pune India It covers the areas like megalithic and other prehistoric astronomy astronomical records in ancient texts astronomical myths and architecture astronomical themes in numismatics and rock art ancient astronomers and their
