Practical Music Education Technology Richard Dammers, Marjorie LoPresti, 2020-02-26 Today's music teachers are caught in a conundrum about technology while all are interested in it and told to utilize it in music instruction a lack of equipment and funding act as enormous barriers to technology access In fact studies indicate that the mere perception of these obstacles may be partly responsible for the gap between these teachers interest in technology and the lack of technology integration in the classroom As a result students potentially miss out on active hands on music technology instruction at school In Practical Music Education Technology veteran music educators Rick Dammers and Marjorie LoPresti help music teachers introduce technology into the classroom by providing accessible strategies to support and enrich students musical learning The authors highlight a plethora of free online tools at teachers disposal and provide options that can be flexible for all school environments and types of teachers from those with large budgets to those operating on a shoestring from those well versed in technology to non experts Each chapter outlines pedagogically appropriate resources and strategies that facilitate support and enhance music learning performance and creation Additionally model lesson plans featuring classroom tested uses of technology aim to empower student engagement while also keeping music learning goals at the forefront All teaching ideas presented can be tailored to individual teachers needs and preferences making Practical Music Education Technology an essential guide to music technology for the everyday music teacher

Patriotism and Nationalism in Music Education David G. Hebert, Alexandra Kertz-Welzel, 2016-05-13 Music has long served as an emblem of national identity in educational systems throughout the world Patriotic songs are commonly considered healthy and essential ingredients of the school curriculum nurturing the respect loyalty and good citizenship of students But to what extent have music educators critically examined the potential benefits and costs of nationalism Globalization in the contemporary world has revolutionized the nature of international relationships such that patriotism may merit rethinking as an objective for music education The fields of peace studies and education for international understanding may better reflect current values shared by the profession values that often conflict with the nationalistic impulse This is the first book to introduce an international dialogue on this important theme nations covered include Germany the USA South Africa Australia Finland Taiwan Singapore and Canada

Collaborative Learning in Higher Music Education Helena Gaunt,Heidi Westerlund,2016-05-23 In higher music education learning in social settings orchestras choirs bands chamber music and so on is prevalent yet understanding of such learning rests heavily on the transmission of knowledge and skill from master to apprentice This narrow view of learning trajectories pervades in both one to one and one to many contexts This is surprising given the growing body of knowledge about the power of collaborative learning in general underpinned by theoretical developments in educational psychology the social dimensions of learning situational learning and concepts of communities of learners Collaborative Learning in Higher Music Education seeks to respond to the challenge of becoming more conscious of the creative and multiple dimensions of social interaction in learning music in contexts ranging from interdisciplinary projects to one to one tuition and not least in the contemporary context of rapid change in the cultural industries and higher education as a whole It brings together theoretical papers and case studies of practice Themes covered include collaborative creativity communities of practice peer learning co teaching as co learning assessment and curriculum structures Chapters illuminate reasons for enabling collaborative learning and provide exemplars of innovative practice and designs for collaborative learning environments in higher music education A central purpose of the book is to scaffold change to help in meeting the rapid changes in society and to find constructive stepping stones or signposts for teachers and students

Discovering Classical Music Ian Christians, 2016-04-01 A newbie's comprehensive guide to the joys of classical music including introductions to forty of its greatest composers Musical tastes may change but the great classical composers maintain a devoted fan base for centuries For anyone who's interested in classical music but finds it a bit intimidating or confusing passionate fan and former music industry executive Ian Christians has developed a unique approach to the genre designed to make it as easy as possible for new listeners to explore with confidence With a distinctly unsnobbish air Discovering Classical Music concentrates on the most legendary composers taking you step by step into their most approachable music and in some cases boldly into some of the greatest works traditionally considered too difficult for newcomers Rarely does a book offer such potential for years of continued discovery and enjoyment I recommend this book wholeheartedly to new music lovers everywhere Sir Charles Groves CBE from the Foreword

Revolutions in Music Education Leon de Bruin, Jane Southcott, Andrew Sutherland, 2022-06-27 The teaching and learning of music around the world have evolved in diverse ways as social industrial and cultural developments have influenced the ways humans understand organize and collectivize music education Revolutions in Music Education Historical and Social Explorations chronicles major changes in music education that continue to shape practices in the twenty first century The contributors investigate the organizational pedagogical and strategic approaches to teaching music across the ages The universality of music is manifest in the chapters of this book providing meaning and insight from all geographic socio political and economic contexts

Finnish Early Childhood Education and Care Heidi Harju-Luukkainen, Jonna Kangas, Susanne Garvis, 2022-06-02 This book highlights contemporary questions around Early Childhood Education in Finland It explores a range of issues relating to policies and practices in Early Childhood Education and Care ECEC The book features many aspects of the so called Nordic model that is evident in different practices and policies of the Finnish ECEC system Among others topics it discusses playful learning storycrafting scientific literacy pedagogical leadership family related variables and Sami language learning The findings provide important insights into the Finnish ECEC model and illustrate relevant issues facing Finland All of the 14 chapters present unique research and give the reader the opportunity to understand how the ECEC services during children's early years are defined and implemented Each chapter includes a discussion of the educational outcome and highlights critical perspectives In Finland ECEC is seen as an investment in the future The Finnish ECEC system is one of the most equal in the world The high quality education is available to both private and public sectors National curriculum and laws for early education have gone through a significant reform during the last decade with the quality practices and teachers' competences being defined in order to support children's future learning skills ECEC in Finland is a unique combination of international influences and local intentions to put each child and family at the centre of the services The systematic and goal oriented ECEC system consists of upbringing education and care with an emphasis on pedagogy in order to produce excellence for the future Its overall planning guidance and monitoring system is one of a kind The Politics of Diversity in Music Education Alexis Anja Kallio, Heidi Westerlund, Sidsel Karlsen, Kathryn Marsh, Eva Sæther, 2021-03-19 This open access book examines the political structures and processes that frame and produce understandings of diversity in and through music education Recent surges in nationalist fundamentalist protectionist and separatist tendencies highlight the imperative for music education to extend beyond nominal policy agendas or wholly celebratory diversity discourses Bringing together high level theorisation of the ways in which music education upholds or unsettles understandings of society and empirical analyses of the complex situations that arise when negotiating diversity in practice the chapters in this volume explore the politics of inquiry in research examine music teachers navigations of the shifting political landscapes of society and state extend conceptualisations of diversity in music education beyond familiar boundaries and critically consider the implications of diversity for music education leadership Diversity is thus not approached as a label applied to certain individuals or musical repertoires but as socially organized difference produced and manifest in various ways as part of everyday relations and interactions This compelling collection serves as an invitation to ongoing reflexive inquiry to deliberate the politics of diversity in a fast changing and pluralist world and together work towards more informed and ethically sound understandings of how diversity in music education policy practice and research is framed and conditioned both locally and globally Proceedings of the 2022 International Conference on Science Education and Art Appreciation (SEAA 2022) Zehui Zhan, Fong Peng Chew, Marcus T. Anthony, 2022-12-28 This is an open access book 2022 International Conference on Science Education and Art Appreciation SEAA 2022 was held on June 24-26 2022 in Chengdu China It aims to encourage exchange of information on research frontiers in different fields connect the most advanced academic resources in China and abroad turn research results into industrial solutions bring together talents technologies and capital to boost development The purpose of the conference is to provide an international platform for experts scholars engineers and technicians and technical R D personnel engaged in related fields such as Science Education and Art Appreciation to share scientific research results broaden research ideas collide with new ideas and strengthen academic research and to explore the key challenges and research directions faced by the development of this field and promote the industrialization cooperation of academic achievements Experts scholars business people and other relevant personnel from universities and research institutions at home and abroad are cordially invited to attend and exchange Technology and the Gendering of Music Education Victoria Armstrong, 2016-03-09 Critical of technologically determinist assumptions underpinning current educational policy Victoria Armstrong argues that this growing technicism has grave implications for the music classroom where composition is often synonymous with the music technology suite The use of computers and associated compositional software in music education is frequently decontextualized from cultural and social relationships thereby ignoring the fact that new technologies are used and developed within existing social spaces that are always already delineated along gender lines Armstrong suggests these gender technology relations have a profound effect on the ways adolescents compose music as well as how gendered identities in the technologized music classroom are constructed Drawing together perspectives from the sociology of science and technology studies STS and the sociology of music Armstrong examines the gendered processes and practices that contribute to how students learn about technology the repertoire of teacher and student talk its effect on student confidence and the issue of male control of technological knowledge Even though girls and female teachers have technological knowledge and skill the continuing material and symbolic associations of technology with men and masculinity contribute to the perception of women as less able and less interested in all things technological In light of the fact that music technology is now central to many music making practices across all sectors of education from primary secondary through to higher education this book provides a timely critical analysis that powerfully demonstrates why the relationship between gender and music technology should remain an important empirical consideration Competitions for Talented Kids Frances A. Karnes, Tracy L. Riley, 2005 Offers an up to date listing of national competitions available for students and families seeking scholarship money and national recognition for abilities in the arts leadership academics and community involvement The American Music Teacher, 2005

Visions for Intercultural Music Teacher Education Heidi Westerlund, Sidsel Karlsen, Heidi Partti, 2019-10-08 This open access book highlights the importance of visions of alternative futures in music teacher education in a time of increasing societal complexity due to increased diversity There are policies at every level to counter prejudice increase opportunities reduce inequalities stimulate change in educational systems and prevent and counter polarization Foregrounding the intimate connections between music society and education this book suggests ways that music teacher education might be an arena for the reflexive contestation of traditions hierarchies practices and structures The visions for intercultural music teacher education offered in this book arise from a variety of practical projects intercultural collaborations and cross national work conducted in music teacher education The chapters open up new horizons for understanding the tension fields and possible discomfort that music teacher educators face when becoming change agents They highlight the importance of collaborations resilience and perseverance when enacting visions on the program level of higher education institutions and the need for change in re imagining music teacher education programs Sociology and Music Education Ruth Wright, 2017-07-05 Sociology and Music Education addresses a pressing need to provide a sociological foundation for understanding music education The music education community academic and professional has become increasingly aware of the need to locate the issues facing music educators within a broader sociological context This is required both as a means to deeper understanding of the issues themselves and as a means to raising professional consciousness of the macro issues of power and politics by which education is often constrained The book outlines some introductory concepts in sociology and music education and then draws together seminal theoretical insights with examples from practice with innovative applications of sociological theory to the field of music education The editor has taken great care to select an international community of experienced researchers and practitioners as contributors who reflect current trends in the sociology of music education in Europe and the UK The book concludes with an Afterword by Christopher Small
