Risk Assessment and Management at Deseret Chemical Depot and the Tooele Chemical Agent Disposal

Facility National Research Council, Division on Engineering and Physical Sciences, Commission on Engineering and Technical Systems, Committee on Review and Evaluation of the Army Chemical Stockpile Disposal Program, 1997-10-04 Municipal Benchmarks David N. Ammons, 2012-03-06 Completely updated with new listings and statistics throughout this comprehensive resource goes beyond the current literature on local government performance measurement and provides benchmarks on more than 40 key topics against which performance can be assessed in all areas of operation Ammons has assembled a remarkable volume of benchmark data for a comprehensive range of municipal government services Municipal Benchmarks will be of considerable help for municipalities in laying the groundwork for an accountable government Harry Hatry The Urban Institute I am delighted to see that ideas for advancing our industry are alive and thriving Ammons's collection does an incredible service to every municipal manager in the country and perhaps the world These benchmarks clearly set standardized ways of looking at measuring the performance of municipal service delivery Ted Gaebler City Manager Rancho Cordoba CA co author of Reinventing Government Haliw v. City of Sterling Heights, 464 MICH 297 (2001), 2001 115686 Chemical Demilitarization Albert J. Mauroni, 2003-04-30 For more than 15 years the Army's chemical demilitarization program has been criticized and castigated as a potentially dangerous effort poorly executed without concern for the public By reviewing the chemical demilitarization program as a public policy area Mauroni offers a different perspective on how the Army worked with Congress and the public to offer the safest program possible The Army was forced to delay its own schedule and increase the breadth and depth of the program to address political demands and idealistic environmental concerns Mauroni contends that Army and Department of Defense leadership's insistence on treating this program as a strictly technical effort rather than as a public policy concern is in part responsible for the public's misunderstanding of the Army's execution of the program Despite its challenges the Army is well on its way to accomplishing its goal of destroying the U S chemical weapons stockpile with no impact on the public or environment They have stumbled through however rather than planned their exit According to Mauroni the Army needs to examine this program carefully to identify how to address public policy questions better in the future to include responding to chemical and biological terrorism developing a biological warfare vaccine program and addressing future Gulf War illness questions Their failure to learn will otherwise result in a continued inability to address critical questions on how they respond to chemical and biological warfare issues Glacy v. City of Roseville; Ashton v. City of Hazel Park, 457 MICH 580 (1998), 1998 106283 United States Reports United States.
