Board of Supervisors,1913 Newspaper City Phillip Gordon Mackintosh,2017-04-24 In Newspaper City Phillip Gordon Mackintosh scrutinizes the reluctance of early Torontonians to pave their streets He demonstrates how Toronto s two liberal newspapers the Toronto Globe and Toronto Daily Star nevertheless campaigned for surface infrastructure as the leading expression of modern urbanity despite the broad resistance of property owners to pay for infrastructure improvements under local improvements by laws To boost paving newspapers used their broadsheets to fashion two imagined cities for their readers one overrun with animals dirt and marginal people the other civilized modern and crowned with clean streets However the employment of capitalism to generate traditional public goods such as concrete sidewalks asphalt roads regulated pedestrianism and efficient automobilism is complicated Thus the liberal newspapers promotion of a city of orderly infrastructure and contented people in actual Toronto proved strikingly illiberal Consequently Mackintosh s study reveals the contradictory nature of newspapers and the historiographical complexities of newspaper research Sidewalks Anastasia Loukaitou-Sideris, Renia Ehrenfeucht, 2011-12-09 Examines the evolution of an undervalued urban space and how conflicts over competing uses from the right to sit to the right to parade have been negotiated Urban sidewalks critical but undervalued public spaces have been sites for political demonstrations and urban greening promenades for the wealthy and the well dressed and shelterless shelters for the homeless On sidewalks decade after decade urbanites have socialized paraded and played sold their wares and observed city life These many uses often overlap and conflict and urban residents and planners try to include some and exclude others In this first book length analysis of the sidewalk as a distinct public space Anastasia Loukaitou Sideris and Renia Ehrenfeucht examine the evolution of the American urban sidewalk and trace conflicts that have arisen over its competing uses Drawing on historical and contemporary examples as well as case study research and archival data from five cities Boston Los Angeles New York Miami and Seattle they discuss the characteristics of sidewalks as small urban public spaces and such related issues as the ambiguous boundaries of their public status contestation over specific uses control and regulations and the implications for First Amendment speech and assembly rights Through Time: London Richard Platt, 2009-06-09 Follows historical events in London s history and the persons who had or have inhabited London The Exhibitor ,1940 Some issues include separately paged sections Better management Physical theatre extra profits Review Servisection Worlding the Western Neil Campbell, 2022-09-13 Worlding the Western views the fiction of the Western United States as a focal point for a reexamination of the consequences of the exceptionalism and closed borders of the Trump Era At a time of bounded individualism new nativism climate emergency and migration crises author Neil Campbell argues that fiction offers opportunities to challenge the dark side of globalization He proposes worlding as a different and more open form of politics Diversity disparity and opposition are central to the dynamic frictional fiction considered in this book The American West provides a powerful test case in which these features are present and yet historically have often been masked or denied in the rush toward unanimity and nation building Worlding is therefore a positive critical concept through which to view the notion of a single world under pressure Construction ,1911 Contract Record and Engineering Review ,1909
