Sideways Look At Time:

Pip Pip Jay Griffiths, 1999 An enthusiastic piece of pop anthropology on the one subject that has ousted sex and money from the top of the obsessions league Jay Griffiths takes the subject of time in her teeth and chews at it until it's a far more palatable item Her exploration of the passage of time includes our obsession with speed with overtaking motorways and their link to fascism war Mercury god of flight and the mythology of time and speed Diana and Marilyn Monroe flawed women who through their violent deaths have become timeless icons history and the heritage industry the meanness of Greenwich Mean Time the fast language we now have to go with fast food Aborigine dreamtime the difference between festivals and pageants May Day and the New Year

A Sideways Look at Time Jay Griffiths, 2004-03-08 A brilliant and poetic exploration of the way that we experience time in our everyday lives Why does time seem so short How does women's time differ from men's Why does time seem to move slowly in the countryside and quickly in cities How do different cultures around the world see time In A Sideways Look at Time Jay Griffiths takes readers on an extraordinary tour of time as we have never seen it before With this dazzling and defiant work Griffiths introduces us to dimensions of time that are largely forgotten in our modern lives She presents an infectious argument for other more magical times the diverse cycles of nature of folktale or carnival when time is unlimited and on our side This is a book for those who suspect that there's more to time than clocks Irresistible and provocative A Sideways Look at Time could change the way we view time forever

The Postnormal Times Reader

Spitzberg,2025-10-24 Never Enough Time discusses the directional and irreversible nature of time its relationship to information and entropy the deep time history of communication from the genesis of language to today and the extent to which we occupy time through our communication Drawing together studies from a wide variety of disciplines and topics that provide quantitative estimates of how much daily time is expended communicating and relating to others the author demonstrates that in an increasingly accelerating mediated and information overloaded ecosystem we spend most of our time both socially and occupationally engaged in various forms of communication He examines the nature of time in the context of our increasingly overloaded and mediated information and communication ecosystem the extent to which our increasing screen time displaces face to face interaction and the implications this trend has for our quality and quantity of life particularly for younger populations In addition a case is made for the importance of developing standardized measures of time made all the more feasible with digital technologies already available for quantifying behavior at population scales This book will appeal to graduate students scholars and researchers interested in time communication theory new media and media studies and communication and personal relationships Time's Up Janey Mack,2015 Expelled from the police academy and forced to work as a meter maid Maisie follows the trail of conspiracy after she stumbles across the body of a City Hall staffer with two bullets in his chest Wit's End James Combs,2010-08-11 This book is a study of the Great

Movies that fluid category of feature films deemed by various authorities film societies critics academics and movie enthusiasts to be the enduring and memorable works of cinematic history But what are they about In Wit s End the author attempts to make sense of these films in order to understand their greatness in the context of their relation to other films and to the worlds they come from and recreate on screen To that end we employ the conceptual power of pragmatic social theory and the rich idea of aesthesis to explore and arrange these films as a means of understanding what they express about the universality of human life in our keen use of wit organization of social wont and direction of cultural way It is hoped that such an inquiry will illuminate the glory of the great films and contribute to the advance of film studies Third Time's the Bride! Merline Lovelace,2016-07-01 Third time lucky Take a vacation to Italy and land a husband Well at least fianc number three Dawn McGill s fear of marriage has halted two weddings but millionaire Brian Ellis and his adorable little boy might change all that After all a marriage based on convenience is less frightening than one based on love Brian will do anything for his young son and what Tommy wants even more than a puppy is a mom Dawn is great with his boy and she s even beginning to fill a void in his own heart Yet he can t shake the feeling that his bride to be is getting cold feet What will it take to get Dawn all the way down the aisle this time A Country Called Childhood Jay Griffiths,2014-10-20 While traveling the world in order to write her award winning book Wild Jay Griffiths became increasingly aware of the huge differences in how childhood is experienced in various cultures One central riddle in particular captured her imagination why are so many children in Euro American cultures unhappy and why is it that children in traditional cultures seem happier In A Country Called Childhood Griffiths seeks to discover why we deny our children the freedoms of space time and the natural world Visiting communities as far apart as West Papua and the Arctic as well as the UK and delving into history philosophy language and literature she explores how children s affinity for nature is an essential and universal element of childhood It is a journey deep into the heart of what it means to be a child and it is central to all our experiences young and old

Machine Times Joke Brouwer,2000 At least since Einstein s theory of relativity and Bergson s conception of duration and especially since the advent of personal technology such as the iPod and the cellphone we have been aware that the modern experience of temporality is continually in redefinition Published on the occasion of the DEAF 2000 festival in Rotterdam Machine Times takes a close look at the role of time in the constitution of our technological reality investigating temporality through a variety of formats interactive image manipulation sound performances and virtual environments in art projects stage events essays and interviews A sequel to The Art of the Accident 1998 Machine Times includes essays interviews and projects by Francisco Varela Detlef Linke Isabelle Stengers Peter Weibel Perry Hoberman Cybernetic Culture Research Unit Helga Nowotny Woody Vasulka Eduardo Kac tx transform Atau Tanaka and several others Transatlantic Conversations Mary Evans,2016-02-24 The second wave of feminism which challenged and changed many assumptions about the world in which we live was a product of various western cultures with no single country possessing a monopoly on the writing of the texts that became the canonical statements of the new feminism Though many of the contributions to feminist scholarship that went on to become internationally significant hailed from Europe and the United States these works were often formed within the context of local debates and framed within traditions of feminism and other political engagements specific to these nations Transatlantic Conversations explores the differences yielded by such conditions and their consequences for the meaning of feminism Examining the meaning and implications of the different ways in which various shared categories have been treated on both sides of the Atlantic this volume both analyses differences within feminism and provides a framework for the wider discussion of what is sometimes assumed to be the homogeneity of The West With leading scholars from either side of the Atlantic presenting brand new work Transatlantic Conversations suggests directions for future research which will be of interest to scholars of feminism gender studies sociology political science and international relations geography and cultural studies as well as anyone concerned with the ways in which the different political and intellectual traditions of Europe and the US have shaped current political and intellectual debates

The New Utopian Politics of Ursula K. Le Guin's The Dispossessed Laurence Davis, Peter Stillman, 2005-11-22 The Dispossessed has been described by political thinker Andre Gorz as The most striking description I know of the seductions and snares of self managed communist or in other words anarchist society To date however the radical social cultural and political ramifications of Le Guin's multiple award winning novel remain woefully under explored Editors Laurence Davis and Peter Stillman right this state of affairs in the first ever collection of original essays devoted to Le Guin's novel Among the topics covered in this wide ranging international and interdisciplinary collection are the anarchist ecological post consumerist temporal revolutionary and open ended utopian politics of The Dispossessed The book concludes with an essay by Le Guin written specially for this volume in which she reassesses the novel in light of the development of her own thinking over the past 30 years

Subjectivity In-Between Times Chenyang Wang, 2019-09-19 This book is the first to systematically investigate how the notion of time is conceptualised in Jacques Lacan's work Through a careful examination of Lacan's various presentations of time Chenyang Wang argues that this notion is key to a comprehension of Lacan's psychoanalytic thinking and in particular to the way in which he theorises subjectivity This book demonstrates that time is approached by Lacan not only as consciously experienced but also as pre reflectively embodied and symbolically generated In an analysis that begins with Lacan's Logical Time essay Chenyang Wang articulates three temporal registers that correspond to Lacan's Real Symbolic Imaginary triad and also demonstrates how Lacan's elaboration of other major themes including consciousness body language desire and sexuality is informed by his original perspectives on time Filling a significant gap in contemporary Lacanian studies this book will provide essential reading for students and scholars of psychoanalytic theory continental philosophy and critical theory

The Music of Creation, with CD Arthur Robert Peacocke, Ann Pederson, 2006 Here Peacocke and Pederson compose a rhapsody on divine creativity in three movements Through an extended analogy they reveal how Christian understandings of creation can be brightly lit by scientific insights and approached analogously through examining musical creativity They also include relevant selections on an accompanying CD ROM Composition fugal arrangement rhythm and tempo jazz improvization all shed light on creation Creation from nothing continual creation incarnate creativity communal or ecclesial creativity open ended future creativity new ways of thinking about the Christian teaching are illumined and exemplified in musical creativity from Bach to Monk Prelude First Movement Creation with Time Second Movement Creation in Time Bridge Passage Creation Fulfilled Third Movement Working at Creation Coda Ongoing Creation

Beyond the Sea Nina Purtee, 2023-04-17 Reduced to a state of grief and loss of direction Annie Harrison is offered an opportunity to board her grandfather's lavish sailing vessel the Porto Banus in Marbella Spain and begin an international adventure to restore her confidence and sense of balance Along the way Annie encounters two dashing suitors a brave and romantic Spanish matador and a mesmerizing and generous Moroccan businessman Her gifted ability to mesh architectural style with layers of historical elements is enhanced by the places she visits and her inner horizons are expanded by the new friends she makes However intrigue surfaces with the reappearance of her father serving in the British secret service after two years missing and Annie questions who she can trust to save her father And to find true happiness Annie must learn to conquer her fear The story is so fabulous found myself crying and laughing during various points in the story It is so awesome to be able to see pictures of the actual people who were written about in the story Nina keep them coming

Craig Williams I highly recommend this book I was privileged to be one of the first to read this book when it was in its infancy Only getting a few chapters at a time as they were being written all I could say was more more more I was so caught up in the travel the culture romance and mystery I felt like I was on the journey experiencing each country food and fashion with Annie Now that it has all come together it is an amazing book filled with inspiration Can't wait to have the finished book in hand and a sequel Bonnie Lins Beyond the Sea by Nina Purtee is a must read It is a novel full of travel adventure friendship romance and choices I was amazed by the beautiful places Annie travels to the friends she makes along her journey and the many different cultures she experiences Nina's writing is influenced by her own love of travel and adventure Her writing style is so descriptive I felt like I was right there with Annie enjoying a fabulous dinner sightseeing or giggling with her while shopping in Paris I found myself swept away in the excitement of Annie's journey and I can't wait for the sequel so I can find out what happens next

Lisa Dunn Nina Purtee's novel Beyond the Sea is written in such a manner and style of descriptiveness and detail that it makes the reader feel as if they're actually right there experiencing it and not just reading it You'll find many twists and turns as you turn the pages all of which will keep you captivated that you will not want interruptions that would delay you from finding out what is next going to happen I'm truly hoping Nina will write a sequel to this novel and look forward to reading all of her books in the future Michele Ryder Nina Purtee's passion for travel is what makes her novel so moving It is a captivating blend of romance travel personal growth intrigue and more I'm excited to see its official publication in February 2023 Ana Hernandez Beyond the Sea is such a wonderful adventure so beautifully written by Nina Purtee As I read along I feel like I am traveling with Annie to exotic destinations and joining her in her love of life and adventure The mix of new destinations friends beautiful scenery and history love of sailing and the excitement with such fun characters make us feel we are part of her journey Looking forward for the adventure to continue and for more books to enjoy Mickie Schuerger The book is exciting heart wrenching action packed and adventurous It makes you have empathy and fall in love with the characters from the start It is vividly descriptive creating imagery awakening all your senses while reading I would love to follow Annie s path of travels even though I felt like I was there Charlotte Kennedy
