Obra poética completa: Siete árboles contra el atardecer y otros poemas Pablo Antonio Cuadra, 1983 Nicaraguan Poetry Steven F. White, 1993 This work demonstrates that twentieth century Nicaraguan poetry can not be comprehended in its fullest dimension without an understanding of the literary traditions of France and the United States Ever since Ruben Dario established Hispanic America's literary independence from Spain in the nineteenth century with his modernista revolution poets in Nicaragua actively have engaged in a dialogue with the works of French and North American authors as a means of assimilating and transforming them and thereby inventing a profoundly Nicaraguan literary identity This process has resulted in what might be called a double genealogy in Nicaraguan poetry certain poets attracted to the alchemical properties of the poetic word and a transcendent mythic meta reality seem to have descended from French literary forebears others interested in an expansive poeticized version of history and verisimilitude have roots that might be traced to North American soil This division is a provisional experimental means of grouping Nicaraguan poets based not on the traditional compartmentalization of literary generations but on the family resemblances of poetic affinities Presented here is an effective analysis of the familial nature of the Nicaraguan poets achieving their own literary independence by taking into account socio political and historical considerations common literary themes as well as the intertextual relations that form the basis of international literary dialogues This rigorous but flexible approach to modern Nicaraguan poetry enables the reader to accompany the poets on their journeys toward God and the end of the world into a timeless Nicaraguan landscape invaded by U S Marines beyond a contemporary urban portrait of Los Angeles through the horrifying European battlefields of World War I and the trenches of Nicaragua's revolution against the Somoza dictatorship The English speaking reader probably will be unfamiliar with most of the seven preeminent Nicarguan poets whose works are the subject of this book but it is hoped that the reader will realize that the poetry of Nicaraguans Alfonso Cortes Salomon de la Selva Jose Coronel Urtecho Pablo Antonio Cuadra Joaquin Pasos Carlos Martinez Rivas and Ernesto Cardenal is worthy of serious study Furthermore the poems of these authors take on a richer meaning when they are studied as co presences in relation to certain texts by Baudelaire Rimbaud Mallarme and Supervielle or in an American context by poets such as Whitman Pound Eliot and Masters A relatively small country with a rich diverse tradition in poetry Nicaragua has maintained high literary standards generation after generation and has produced poets of a world class stature whose time has come for greater Thomas Merton Mario Aguilar, 2011-03-18 A fresh exploration of Merton's life and thought focusing on his recognition role as a Christian activist Written by an author who combines a contemplative life with political action this is an inspirational book that will encourage readers to work towards a more just world Modernity at Gunpoint Sophie Esch, 2018-11-06 2019 Best Book in the Humanities Mexico section of the Latin American Studies Association Modernity at Gunpoint provides the first study of the political and cultural significance of weaponry in the context of major armed conflicts in Mexico and Central America In this highly original study Sophie Esch approaches political violence through its most direct but also most symbolic tool the firearm In novels songs and photos of insurgency firearms appear as artifacts tropes and props through which artists negotiate conceptions of modernity citizenship and militancy Esch grounds her analysis in important re readings of canonical texts by Mart n Luis Guzman Nellie Campobello Omar Cabezas Gioconda Belli Sergio Ramirez Horacio Castellanos Moya and others Through the lens of the iconic firearm Esch relates the story of the peasant insurgencies of the Mexican Revolution the guerrilla warfare of the Sandinista Revolution and the ongoing drug related wars in Mexico and Central America to highlight the historical cultural gendered and political significance of weapons in this Handbook of Latin American Environmental Aesthetics Jens Andermann, Gabriel Giorgi, Victoria volatile region Saramago, 2023-09-05 The Handbook of Latin American Environmental Aesthetics offers a comprehensive overview of Latin American aesthetic and conceptual production addressing the more than human environment at the intersection between art activism and critique Fields include literature performance film and other audiovisual media as well as their interactions with community activisms Scholars who have helped establish environmental approaches in the field as well as emergent critical voices revisit key concepts such as ecocriticism post extractivism and multinaturalism while opening new avenues of dialogue with areas including critical race theory and ethnicity energy humanities queer trans studies and infrastructure studies among others This volume both traces these genealogies and maps out key positions in this increasingly central field of Latin Americanism at the same time as they relate it to the environmental humanities at large By showing how artistic and literary productions illuminate critical zones of environmental thought articulating urgent social and material issues with cultural archives historical approaches and conceptual interventions this volume offers cutting edge critical tools for approaching literature and the arts from new angles that call into question the nature culture boundary Culture and Customs of Nicaragua Steven F.
