Long Term Care For Older Persons A Policy Perspective:

Long-term Care for Older Persons Nancy N. Eustis, Jay N. Greenberg, Sharon K. Patten, 1984 Long-term care for older people: A global perspective Bo Hu, Ricardo Rodrigues, YongJoo Rhee, Raphael Wittenberg, 2023-05-04 The OECD Health Project Long-term Care for Older People OECD, 2005-06-30 This study reports on the latest trends in long term care policies in nineteen OECD countries and studies lessons learned from countries that undertook major reforms over the past decade Care of Older Persons Mala Kapur Shankardass, 2024-10-23 This book explores the implications and significant ethical social economic and health challenges that an ageing world population presents It provides valuable insights on concerns related to providing organizing planning and managing care for older persons in both formal and informal settings As the number of older persons increases rapidly around the globe caring for them is a very important aspect of all ageing and aged societies While in most countries the care of older persons is provided informally by family members the changing social scene family structures and work and employment patterns are leading many nations to create provisions for formal care through institutions or paid services of caregivers This book offers perspectives on formal and informal care from countries such as Japan the Netherlands the USA India South Africa and Poland among others The essays in this book underline a rights based approach and focus on ethical social economic health and legal aspects of care as they pertain to the universal phenomena of ageing as well as the specific demographic and epidemiological realities of the selected countries They discuss concerns such as long term care provisions catering to the needs of people affected by dementia providing residential care taking the needs of family care providers into account the growing requirement for paid care workers and channelizing training of both skilled and semi skilled care providers to suit the needs of older people This volume would be of interest to scholars and those working in the fields of sociology health studies age and ageing psychology social work medical sciences nursing and public policy It will also be useful to NGO sector workers administrators as well as grassroots workers involved with the care of older persons Effective Management of Long Term Care Facilities Douglas Singh, 2010-02-18 Effective Management of Long Term Care Facilities explores the complex operations of the long term care facility and offers critical skills to current and future nursing home administrators for delivering quality cost effective services The Second Edition has been thoroughly revised and reorganized to offer a more cohesive presentation of the material New chapters that have been added cover the long term care industry long term care policy and supportive case studies that incorporate management and patient care issues The Graying of the World Laura Katz Olson, 1994 This unique book studies America's frail older population relative to the elderly in ten other nations It contains a cross national assessment of approaches to long term care for the elderly and explains the nature and extent of current and future problems related to caring for the functionally impaired elderly By studying and analyzing the ongoing struggles of other nations in their attempts to cope with growing populations of frail elderly readers in the U S can expand the parameters of their own national debate on the subject The Graying of the World shows the political economic and social context in which decisions on elder care are based and evaluates how successful various countries programs have been Chapters outline alternative approaches taken by disparate types of national systems highlighting unique and creative solutions to provide useful information on new and alternative ways to respond to personal and public issues related to elder care The elderly and their care in Finland France Germany Great Britain Israel Japan People s Republic of China Sweden and Yugoslavia are discussed as are the elderly in Canada and the United States Chapters cover the following topics for each country the increasing number of frail elderly and their costly health needs the current and future role of the state in elder care the current and future role of the family in elder care types of support services offered for the elderly including in home care community based care and institutional care the relationship of a nation s political economy to its attitude and policy on long term care innovative approaches to elder care Practitioners decision makers and the concerned general public will all find The Graying of the World an interesting and informative book that expands the discussion of health care options available for the elderly As such the book is also a helpful text for undergraduate and beginning graduate students of gerontology public policy and comparative politics as well as for social service practitioners It provokes much needed conversation on developing a healthcare plan for the future that meets the needs of a large elderly population National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), A Study of Public Long-term Care Financing Sharon K. Patten,1987

Continuing Care United States. Congress. House. Select Committee on Aging,1985 Palliative care for older people Lieve Van den Block,Gwenda Albers,Sandra Martins Pereira,Bregje Onwuteaka-Philipsen,Roeline Pasman,Luc Deliens,2015-05-07 Current projections indicate that by 2050 the number of people aged over 80 years old will rise to 395 million and that by this date 25 30% of people over the age of 85 will show some degree of cognitive decline Palliative care for older people A public health perspective provides a comprehensive account of the current state of palliative care for older people worldwide and illustrates the range of concomitant issues that as the global population ages will ever more acutely shape the decisions of policy makers and care givers The book begins by outlining the range of policies towards palliative care for older people that are found worldwide It follows this by examining an array of socio cultural issues and palliative care initiatives from the care implications of health trajectories of older people to the spiritual requirements of palliative care patients and from the need to encourage compassion towards end of life care within communities to the development of care pathways for older people Palliative care for older people A public health perspective is a valuable resource for professionals and academics in a range of healthcare and public health fields to understand the current state of policy work from around the world The book also highlights the social cultural considerations that influence the difficult decisions that those involved in palliative care face not least patients themselves and offers examples of good practice and recommendations to inspire support and direct healthcare policy and decision making at organisational regional national and international levels

Long-term Care for Older People Manfred Huber, Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development, Patrick Hennessy, 2005 Long term care is a cross cutting policy issue that brings together a range of services for persons who are dependent on help with basic activities of daily living When the cohorts of the baby boom generation will reach the oldest age groups over the next three decades demand for long term care will rise steeply How do governments in OECD countries respond to this growing demand What has been done to improve access to long term care improve quality of services and make care affordable Are there examples of successful strategies to improve the mix of services and policies to enable a larger number of older persons to stay in their homes And has this helped contain the costs of caring for the elderly This study reports on the latest trends in long term care policies in nineteen OECD countries Australia Austria Canada Germany Hungary Ireland Japan Korea Luxembourg the Netherlands New Zealand Norway Mexico Poland Spain Sweden Switzerland the United Kingdom and the United States It studies lessons learned from countries that undertook major reforms over the past decade Trends in expenditure financing and the number of care recipients are analyzed based on new data on cross country differences Special attention is given to experience with programs that provide consumers of services with a choice of care options including cash to family caregivers Concise country profiles of long term care systems and an overview on demography and living situations of older persons make this complex policy field more accessible Aging and Disabilities James Callahan, 2019-04-11 This book helps in building a bridge between the networks The topics of aging and disabilities are multifaceted and therefore may be approached in many ways The editors have chosen to focus on four systems and areas of common ground aging developmental disabilities independent living movement and rehabilitation to investigate the emerging intersection of the two fields Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 Ageing and Effecting Long-term Care in China Sabrina Ching Yuen Luk, Hui Zhang, Peter Pok-Man Yuen, 2021-12-19 Recognizing rapidly ageing population is one key concern faced by cities and the challenge it would present to healthcare system this book looks at ageing in China s population as well as the delivery and financing of long term care LTC in China The book compares key features of long term care insurance LTCI schemes in 15 pilot cities and evaluates the sustainability of various financing models adopted by the cities in the LTCI schemes The book uses an interpretive case study approach to give an in depth look into the LTC models in three pilot cities Qingdao Nantong and Shanghai The three cities represent three different models of financing and delivering LTC To assess how effective the LTC models in these three cities are the book uses five criteria including utilization of medical resources cost equity quality of care and sustainability Also the authors discuss how the financing and delivery of LTC can be improved in China the impact of the 2019 coronavirus COVID 19 pandemic on older adults in need of LTC in the country and the implications of China s LTCI reform for other countries The book will be a useful reference to scholars and policy makers who look at urban ageing and healthcare costs and delivery Journal of Human Services Abstracts , 1984 The Psychology of Aging Prof. Dr.
