Looking In Looking Out Redefining Child Care And Early Education In A Diverse Society:

Looking In, Looking Out Hedy Nai-Lin Chang, Amy Muckelroy, Dora Pulido-Tobiassen, 1996 Noting the profound demographic changes affecting the nature of how young children are raised and socialized in the United States this book discusses how child care must be redefined in order to support the development of a next generation with the skills and capacities to thrive in an increasingly multicultural world based on interviews with child caregivers in child care centers and family child care homes and interviews with trainers and resource and referral agency personnel Chapter 1 of the book discusses how parents providers and trainers perceive the role of child care in a diverse society Taking into account these perspectives a set of common Principles of Quality Care in a Diverse Society is presented Details on each of these principles is provided in chapters 2-6 including a discussion of importance and strategies and challenges for implementation These principles for action are 1 combat racism and foster positive racial identity in young children 2 build upon the cultures of families and promote respect and cross cultural understanding among children 3 preserve children's family languages and encourage all children to learn a second language 4 work in partnership with parents to respond to issues of race language and culture and 5 engage in dialogue and reflection about race language and culture on an ongoing basis Chapters 7 and 8 call for support of an early childhood workforce which reflects the racial backgrounds of children and families participating and for continuation of the ongoing research in this field The book's appendices include a profile of the child care centers family child care homes trainers and resource and referral agencies interviewed Contains 62 references AA Roots and Wings Stacey York, 2016-06-27 Use the updated activities examples and research to improve your anti bias and multicultural education programs This clear and practical guide includes expanded information on English language learners family engagement culturally responsive teaching and staff training Stacey York teaches child development at Rochester Community and Technical College and established E-LECT a collaborative effort between thirteen Minnesota community and technical colleges to provide e learning for early childhood teachers Early Childhood Education Kimberly A. Gordon Biddle, Ana Garcia-Nevarez, Wanda J. Roundtree Henderson, Alicia Valero-Kerrick, 2013-01-02 Turning passion into practice as a professional early childhood educator Early Childhood Education Becoming a Professional is an inspiring introduction to the world of early childhood education preparing the teachers of tomorrow to reach their full potential in their schools and communities Written by a diverse and experienced author team this text engages readers to connect contemporary educational and developmental theory and research to developmentally appropriate practices and applications that are easily implemented in the classroom In response to today's ever changing educational environment the text focuses on both the importance of taking personal and professional responsibility as well as today's issues in diversity from supporting children with exceptionalities to supporting children and families in broader cultural contexts The Politics of Early Childhood Education Lourdes Diaz Soto, 2000 As the conservative political mood of our nation eliminates programs for the increasing numbers of bilingual children educators are nevertheless expected to teach linguistically and culturally diverse learners with limited background knowledge and resources This edited volume challenges mainstream educators to critically examine how to best meet the needs of bilingual bicultural children in contemporary America Anti-Bias Education in the Early Childhood Classroom Katie Kissinger,2017-03-27 Anti Bias Education in the Early Childhood Classroom provides a useful clearly outlined guide for implementing anti bias and anti oppression practices in early childhood education settings Throughout the book you ll find Stories from the field Strategies for keeping teaching practices in touch with growing social justice movements Tasks and questions to spark your professional growth in this important area Katie Kissinger uses her personal experience as a longtime educator to highlight both the challenges and the potential for transformative learning in the anti bias classroom and gives other teachers the tools they need to create classrooms that welcome all students and families Beginnings & Beyond Ann Miles Gordon,Kathryn Williams Browne,2004 Beginnings Beyond is the tool students need to develop vital skills necessary to become successful teachers and caregivers They will come to thoroughly understand the fundamentals of early childhood education through a discussion of the topic from an historical perspective present day issues and future trends In this sixth edition the authors have emphasized multiculturalism and NAEYC s developmentally appropriate practice to support the viewpoint that there is more than one correct way to care for and educate young children

Resources in Education ,2000-04 At A Loss For Words Betty Bardige,2011-02-07 Drawing on the latest research on development among toddlers and preschoolers At a Loss for Words lays out the importance of getting parents policy makers and child care providers to recognize the role of early literacy skills in reducing the achievement gap that begins before three years of age Readers are guided through home and classroom settings that promote language contrasting them with the merely mediocre child care settings in which more and more young children spend increasing amounts of time Too many of our young children are not receiving the level of input and practice that will enable them to acquire language skills the key to success in school and life Bardige explains how to build better community support systems for children and better public education in order to ensure that toddlers learn the power of language from their families and teachers Guidelines for
