Memory Narrative And Identity:

Memory, Narrative, Identity Nicola King, 2000 This book explores the complex relationships that exist between memory nostalgia writing and identity Memory, Narrative, and Identity Amritjit Singh, Joseph T. Skerrett, Robert E. Hogan, 1994 Some of the essays consider a single writer while others adopt a comparative approach Some are multi disciplinary drawing on insights from anthropology or semiotics while others provide close textual analysis Memory, Narrative, and Identity Amritjit Singh, Joseph T. Skerrett, Robert E. Hogan, 1996-01 A look at how American writers of African Mexican Irish Chinese South Asian Jewish and Native American descent reclaim suppressed pasts facilitating the emergence of newly empowering ethnic identities Narrative and Identity Athena E. Gorospe, 2007 Using key features of Ricoeur's narrative theory this creative Asian re reading of Moses reverse migration in Exodus 4 18 26 charts the way for a multi dimensional OT hermeneutic which explores the theme of identity formation in light of the liminal experience of migration Autobiographical Memory, Narrative Identity, and Mental Health Shamsul Haque, Jorge Javier Ricarte, Laura Jobson, Fabrice Berna, 2022-07-04 Memory, Identity, Community Lewis P. Hinchman, Sandra Hinchman, 1997-01-01 This multidisciplinary volume documents the resurrection of the importance of narrative to the study of individuals and groups and argues that narrative may become a lingua franca of future debates in the human sciences Identity and Differences, 2005 Ethnic Subjectivity in Intergenerational Memory Narratives Mónica Fodor, 2019-11-05 In this interdisciplinary study M nika Fodor explores how intergenerational memory narratives embedded in the speaker's own stories impact ethnic subjectivity construction Working with thematically selected life experiences from interviews conducted with second and late generation European Americans Fodor demonstrates how the storytellers position themselves in a range of social cultural and political discourses to claim or disclaim ethnicity as part of their subjectivity Tying narrative content structural and performance analysis to the sociological and sociolinguistic concepts of symbolic capital and investment Fodor unpacks the changing levels of identifying with one's ancestral ethnic heritage and its potential to carry meaning for late generation descendants In doing so she reveals the shared features of identification among individuals through narrative meaning making which may be the basis of real or imagined heterolocal discourse community formation and sustained ethnic subjectivity The narrative analysis demonstrates how the cohesive force among members of the community is the shared knowledge of story frames and the personalized retelling of these Ethnic Subjectivity in Intergenerational Memory Narratives draws on inherited often moving personal experiences that offers new insights into the so far largely unexplored terrain of the narrative structure of intergenerationally transferred memory retellings that will be of great interest to students and scholars of ethnic studies migration and identity studies Collective Memory Narratives in Contemporary Culture Antonella Pocecco, Estrella Gualda, Emiliana Mangone, 2023-11-27 Starting from the central importance of memory in contemporary societies this book encourages a transdisciplinary reflection on how the presentification of the past is never a simple reenactment but corresponds to the interaction between memory and cultural sensitiveness present beliefs and needs expectations and forecasts for the future It studies cultural re construction through collective stories including academic debates media narratives collective mobilizations state narratives of history architectural reconstructions and artistic expressions It looks at how technological innovations have profoundly changed the practices of conservation and dissemination of collective memory with particular reference to cultural digitization Finally it shows that the relevance and selection of events the organization of connections and cross references between past present and future as well as the importance of diversified collective imaginaries are the keys to narrative constructions of memory that prove to be sensitive and decisive for its continuity and its intergenerational transmission This interdisciplinary collection is for students and scholars of the social sciences cultural studies and the humanities interested in memory studies

Memory, Narrative and the Great War David Taylor, 2013-04-03 This is a detailed study of an important figure whose differing perceptions of the Great War throw valuable light on the way in which war is remembered and narrated

Life Writing and Politics of Memory in Eastern Europe Simona Mitroiu, 2015-08-25 This volume addresses the issues of remembering and performing the past in Eastern European ex communist states in the context of multiplication of the voices of the past The book analyzes the various ways in which memory and remembrance operate it does so by using different methods of recollecting the past from oral history to cultural and historical institutions and by drawing on various political and cultural theories and concepts Through well documented case studies the volume showcases the plurality of approaches available for analyzing the relationship between memory and narrative from an interdisciplinary and international perspective

The Fragile Truth: Memory, Identity, and the Stories We Tell Fay Jackson, What if the truth you remember was never quite what happened In The Fragile Truth psychologist Fay Jackson unpacks the fascinating fallible nature of memory and how it shapes who we are Blending cognitive science with moving human stories Jackson explores how memories are formed rewritten and sometimes invented all in service of the stories we tell ourselves about ourselves From childhood recollections to identity defining moments this book reveals how memory is less a record of the past and more a construction of the present malleable emotional and deeply personal Insightful and often surprising The Fragile Truth challenges what we think we know about our own minds Our memories may be fragile but their power is undeniable

Narrative Identity and Dementia

Marie A Mills,2018-08-10 First published in 1998 this book is a study on the influence of emotions on autobiographical memory in dementia Based on eight in depth case studies of older people with dementia collected over a two year period the general findings of this innovative study reveal the strength and durability of the personal narrative even as cognitive processes decline Using a psychotherapeutic approach the author is able to demonstrate that the retention of a personal past give a sense of narrative identity and well being to sufferers of dementia and has an important part to play in dementia care training Researchers teachers and students will find this book a useful resource together with those who work in the field of ageing and dementia care

Documents on the Balkans - History, Memory, Identity Margit Rohringer,2020-06-01

This book explores historical discourses on the various forms of identity production in film that are based on memory and shows how these narratives get mediated by documentary film Most films about the Balkans produced in the last two decades were in fact made in response to immediate concerns about the economic crises and political conflicts that struck the region during the 1990s These new forms of communication about history mostly show a rather self critical approach The book s case studies give the reader a clear idea of how processes informing identity formations are directly launched and later on maintained in peoples real and everyday lives Thus the case studies principal objective is to integrate the study of private space with existing macro debates in politics as well as with dominant discourses within the academic community The included case studies focus on several topics i e migration the reproduction and protection of personal as well as collective identities in post socialist societies revolutionary processes towards the official end of the Cold War the re creation of politically constructed narratives generational conflicts in the post socialist period and the fate of women during the war The multifaceted view of the region under focus in this study shows that common grounds and differences co exist in the Balkan space be it on a cultural economic social or geo political level Apart from the field of film studies this work is a powerful contribution to cultural history as well as to the growing field of visual history

Intertextuality, Intersubjectivity, and Narrative Identity Péter Gaál-Szabó,2017-01-06

Intertextuality Intersubjectivity and Narrative Identity presents recent findings and opens new vistas for research by mapping the potential interconnections of intertextuality and intersubjectivity across a range of fields Multidisciplinary in its focus it incorporates various research foci and topoi across time and space It is largely orchestrated around issues of identity in the fields of narration gender space and trauma in British Irish American South African and Hungarian contexts The contributions here centre on narrative identity mediality and spatiotemporality modernism and revivalism cultural memory counter histories and place female K nstlerdramas and war testimonies and parasitical intersubjectivity trauma and multiple captivities in slave narratives The volume brings together the seasoned insight of established researchers and the vivacious freshness of young scholars providing an engaging read Ultimately it will prove to be relevant to researchers teachers and the general public given its unique approaches and the diversity of the topics explored

Social Memory in Ex 16 and the Identity of Exilic/Post-Exilic Israel Ogochukwu Daniel

Onuorah,2023-10-09 The destruction of the Temple and the humiliation of the exile not only shook the foundations of Israel s pride as God s chosen people but also brought about the danger of losing their identity as a people To survive this the people had to develop and highlight an identity reinforcing theology built upon the collective memory of their constitutive past Ogochukwu Daniel Onuorah applies the tools of the social memory theory to the exegetical analysis of Ex 16 an approach which necessarily entails both synchronic and diachronic inquiries In six chapters the author argues that the collective memory of the manna experience as recounted in Ex 16 served as a socio theological tool of identity preservation in the difficult exilic early post exilic period Succinctly noted also are the implications of this for the discussion on the composition of the Pentateuch

Narrative Development in Adolescence Kate C. McLean,Monisha Pasupathi,2009-11-11 Monisha

Pasupathi and Kate C McLean Where Have You Been Where Are You Going Narrative Identity in Adolescence How can we help youth move from childhood to adulthood in the most effective and positive way possible This is a question that parents educators researchers and policy makers engage with every day In this book we explore the potential power of the stories that youth construct as one route for such movement Our emphasis is on how those stories serve to build a sense of identity for youth and how the kinds of stories youth tell are informed by their broader contexts from parents and friends to nationalities and history Identity development and in part ular narrative identity development concerns the ways in which adolescents must integrate their past and present and articulate and anticipate their futures Erikson 1968 Viewed in this way identity development is not only unique to adol cence and emergent adulthood but also intimately linked to childhood and to adulthood The title for this chapter borrowed from the Joyce Carol Oates story highlights the precarious position of adolescence in relation to the construction of identity In this story the protagonist poised between childhood and adulthood navigates a series of encounters with relatively little awareness of either her childhood past or her potential adult futures Her choices are risky and her future at the end looks dark

Memory and Identity in Canadian Fiction Sharon

Selby,2018-09-26 Covering the works of Canadian authors Alistair Macleod Michael Ondaatje Jane Urquhart Margaret Atwood and Drew Hayden Taylor the author explores how the themes of memory storytelling and identity develop in their fiction For the narrative voices in these works the past is embedded in the present and a wider cultural history is written over with personal significance The act of storytelling shapes the characters lives letting them rewrite the past and be haunted by it Storytelling becomes an existential act of everyday connection among ordinary people and daily often unrecognized acts of heroism Pastoral, Identity, and Memory in the Works of John Banville Alexander G.Z. Myers, 2018-08-27 John Banville's works waver indecisively between modernism and postmodernism. This study offers a hitherto unexplored vista on his works and argues that Banville is a post-modern pastoralist. The pastoral lens opens new vistas to Banville's central concerns: the collusion of ethics and aesthetics, self-identification in narrative, and the topography of the troubled mind. Banville's characters harbour an Arcadia of the unconscious conditioned by a subtext of nostalgia. Caught in a crisis, his characters explore, subvert, and transform the pastoral mode into an ambiguous quest for a stable self.
