The Oxford Handbook of Modern African History John Parker, Richard Reid, 2013-10-10 The Oxford Handbook of Modern African History represents an invaluable tool for historians and others in the field of African studies This collection of essays produced by some of the finest scholars currently working in the field provides the latest insights into and interpretations of the history of Africa a continent with a rich and complex past An understanding of this past is essential to gain perspective on Africa's current challenges and this accessible and comprehensive volume will allow readers to explore various aspects political economic social and cultural of the continent's history over the last two hundred years Since African history first emerged as a serious academic endeavour in the 1950s and 1960s it has undergone numerous shifts in terms of emphasis and approach changes brought about by political and economic exigencies and by ideological debates This multifaceted Handbook is essential reading for anyone with an interest in those debates and in Africa and its peoples While the focus is determinedly historical anthropology geography literary criticism political science and sociology are all employed in this ground breaking study of Africa's past City Diplomacy and the Europeanisation of Local Government Antonios

Karvounis, 2023-06-10 This book assesses the processes and outcomes of international urban networks in Europe from 2007 to the present day Focusing on Greece in particular it examines 162 municipalities involved in more than 240 European city networks to shed light on the various factors that affect cities' capacities to act as international actors The book demonstrates that the participation of Greek municipalities in European city networks has entailed changes to local political structures policies and procedures as well as the strengthening of a European identity and the creation of long term partnerships At the same time these changes have often clashed with bureaucratic traditions and unfavorable economic conditions which have mitigated the reformatory potential of European city networking Providing important insights into city diplomacy and Europeanization the book will appeal to scholars and students of public administration European integration and political science as well as professionals and practitioners Proceedings of the American Association for the Advancement of Science ,1886 Proceedings of the American Association for the Advancement of Science American Association for the Advancement of Science,1886 American City Government William Anderson,1925 New Urban Configurations Nicola Marzot,Meta Berghauser Pont,2014-04-15 Urban areas have been caught up in a turbulent process of transformation over the past 50 years and changes have been rapid with issues such as mobility nature water management energy use and public space featuring prominently In each Olympic year since 1988 the Faculty of Architecture at Delft University of Technology has held an international conference focusing on the connection between research and design exploring the field of tension between science technology and art This book presents the proceedings of the latest in this series of conferences New Urban Configurations held in Delft the Netherlands in October 2012 in collaboration with the European Association for Architectural Education EAAE and the International Seminar on Urban Form ISUF This edition of the conference discussed the role and critical potential of the architectural project in the transformation process of cities and territories that leads to new urban configurations The publication contains all 140 accepted papers and a selection of the keynote lectures presented at the conference The papers have been grouped into five main themes innovation in building typology infrastructure and the city complex urban projects green spaces and delta urbanism Four of these major topics are further divided into several subtopics This book will be of interest to everyone involved in designing building thinking about as well as managing the urban landscape and territory Pandemics and Urban Planning: Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Cities, Planning and Disease Helka-Liisa Hentilä,Aale Luusua,Emilia Rönkkö,Annukka Sailo,Anna Suorsa,2025-09-26 Although the environment has long been recognized as a key factor for human health the linkages between infectious diseases and urban environments are not well known Consideration of infectious disease prevention and control in contemporary urban planning has largely been neglected The proposed book discusses in a multidisciplinary manner the role of urban living environments and prevention of infectious disease epidemic and thus pandemic outbreaks in history and presently in the post Covid era From historical studies of urban outbreaks to present issues and charting pathways into the future urban planning the edited book curates a collection of timely research from the fields of environmental research environmental health health history information studies public health and urban planning The book offers research based insights into the linkages between urban living environments and human health serving as inspiration for researchers students and professionals The Emerging Asian City Vinayak Bharne,2013 Asian cities create concomitant imagery polarizations of poverty and wealth blurry lines between formality and informality and stark juxtapositions of ancient historic places with shimmering new skylines With Asia s re emergence on the global stage there is an acute focus on its multifarious urban issues and identities

What are Asian cities going to become Will they surpass the economic and environmental debacles of the West This collection of twenty four essays surveys the most dominant issues shaping the Asian urban landscape today It offers scholarly reflections and positions on the forces shaping Asian cities and the forces that they in turn are shaping Municipal Reference Library Notes ,1932 American Political Scientists Glenn H. Utter,Charles Lockhart,2002-10-30 This dictionary offers the only comprehensive collection of profiles of American political scientists each of whom contributed significantly to the intellectual development of American political science from its beginnings in the late 19th century to the present This second edition includes 22 new and 110 revised entries reflecting new scholarship that emerged during the 1990s Numerous experts helped the editors develop this consensus group of the 193 political scientists who have made the most important theoretical contributions over the years with attention to varied approaches and the different subfields Alphabetically arranged entries focus on the main ideas and major works by each scholar listing list the most important publications by and about the individual There are numerous cross references to show how the work of one scholar has influenced another in the discipline Appendices list the political scientists by degree granting institutions and by major fields A short bibliography points to important general readings about the profession A general index makes this major reference easily accessible for broad interdisciplinary research Bulletin University of Minnesota,1914 Catalog of Copyright Entries.
