Oriental Silverwork Malay And Chinese:

Oriental Silverwork, Malay and Chinese, with Over 250 Original Illustrations Henry Ling Roth, 1910 Malay silverwork As we pass from dish to cup from vase to saucer from belt buckle to casket every one with its appropriate design we are bewildered with the varying devices and novel combinations laid before us Masterliness of execution here goes hand in hand with exquisite delicacy and refinement Oriental Silverwork H. Ling Roth, 1910 Oriental Silverwork, Malay and Chinese H. Ling Roth, 1993 Oriental Silverwork Henry Ling Roth, 1993 There are two distinct traditions of silverwork in Malaysia that of the indigenous Malay craftsman who worked under royal patronage and that of immigrant Chinese silversmiths from Southern China whose products were used by the prosperous long established Malaysian Chinese families This book first published in 1910 is copiously illustrated with over 250 examples of Malay and Chinese silverwork of a quality rarely found these days outside museums and private collections This new edition includes a lengthy introduction by Sylvia Fraser Lu the author of Silverware of South East Asia OUP 1989 Oriental Silverwork. Malay and Chinese. A Handbook for Connoisseurs, Collectors, Students and Silversmiths. [Mit Abb. U. Ktskizzen.] (Repr.) H. Ling Roth, 2015-08-04 Excerpt from Oriental Silverwork Malay and Chinese With Over Original Illustrations A Handbook for Connoisseurs Collectors Students and Silversmiths Malay Silverwork Few people in England have ever heard of it South Kensington is poor in half a dozen pieces One or two collectors are rich in a few specimens Two connoisseurs are opulent in the possession of over one hundred and fifty pieces and will part with none Can we blame them Such treasures are as rare as fairy visits and a collection takes a lifetime to gather Chance pieces may be bought deliberate search is useless We may systematically hunt all the pawnshops of the Peninsula and they will yield nothing On the other hand a casual visit may result in the acquisition of a gem at the price of a dollar or a friendly action long since forgotten by all but the beneficiary suddenly brings forth fruit in the shape of a cup or dish and another treasure is added to the collection It is some years since I stumbled on a large collection and I shall never forget how my fingers trembled with delight as I opened packet after packet of this beautiful work when the owner kindly let me find a temporary home for it at Bankfield Museum It was a sad day when

I had to return it and now in the happy assurance that if I know little about Malay Silverwork few know more I proceed to reveal some of its beauties to the public As we pass from dish to cup from vase to saucer from belt buckle to casket every one with its appropriate design we are bewildered with the varying devices and novel combinations laid before us Masterliness of execution here goes hand in hand with exquisite delicacy and refinement We see at once that artists have been at work The reduplication which characterises the production of the modern European silversmith is hardly to be found It is present only in the pillow plates where for some unexplained reason the designs always run in pairs About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
