China Samuel Johnson,2025-08-05 Reprint of the original first published in 1877 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage      Oriental Religions and Christianity A Course of Lectures Delivered on the Ely Foundation Before the Students of Union Theological Seminary, New York, 1891 Frank F. Ellinwood,1896-01-01 It is said that the very latest among the sciences is the Science of Religion Without pausing to inquire how far it admits of scientific treatment certain reasons which may be urged for the study of the existing religions of the world will be considered in this lecture It must be admitted in the outset that those who have been the pioneers in this field of research have not as a rule been advocates of the Christian faith The anti Christian theory that all religions may be traced to common causes that common wants and aspirations of mankind have led to the development of various systems according to environment has until recently been the chief spur to this class of studies Accordingly the religions of the world have been submitted to some preconceived philosophy of language or ethnology or evolution with the emphasis placed upon such facts as seemed to comport with this theory Meanwhile there has been an air of broad minded charity in the manner in which the apologists of Oriental systems have treated the subject They have included Christ in the same category with Plato and Confucius and have generally placed Him at the head and this supposed breadth of sentiment has given them a degree of influence with dubious and wavering Christians as well as with multitudes who are without faith of any kind In this country the study of comparative religion has been almost entirely in the hands of non evangelical writers We have had The Ten Great Religions from the pen of Rev James Freeman Clarke The Oriental Religions written with great labor by the late Samuel Johnson and Mr Moncure D Conway s Anthology with its flowers gathered from the sacred books of all systems and so chosen as to carry the implication that they all are equally inspired Many other works designed to show that Christianity was developed from ancient sun myths or was only a plagiarism upon the old mythologies of India have been current among us But strangely enough the Christian Church has seemed to regard this subject as scarcely worthy of serious consideration With the exception of a very able work on Buddhism and several review articles on Hinduism written by Professor S H Kellogg very little has been published from the Christian standpoint The term heathenism has been used as an expression of contempt and has been applied with too little discrimination      The Anthropology of Eastern Religions Murray J. Leaf,2014-05-21 The world s great religions depend on traditions of serious scholarship dedicated to preserving their key texts but also to understanding them and therefore to debating what understanding itself is and how best to do it They also have important public missions of many kinds and their ideas and organizations influence many other important institutions including government law education and kinship Anthropology of Eastern Religions Ideas Organizations and Constituencies is a comparative survey of the world's major religious traditions as professional enterprises and often as social movements Documenting the principle ideas behind eastern religious traditions from an anthropological perspective Murray J Leaf demonstrates how these ideas have been used in building internal organizations that mobilize or fail to mobilize external support Readings in Eastern Religions Harold Coward, Ronald Neufeldt, Eva K. Neumaier, 2006-12-08 Originally developed for use in introductory courses on Eastern religious traditions this popular anthology offers a selection of readings from primary texts of India China and Japan For the second edition the editors have added excerpts and have written introductions that provide a more comprehensive context for the readings A section on Chan Zen and excerpts from the writings of Ge Hong representing the central concerns of Daoism are included A section on modern China includes a poem written by Mao exhibiting his Daoist sensibilities A revised chapter on Buddhism presents the voices of modern Buddhist writers including the Dalai Lama Throughout the volume reflections on the role of women in Eastern religions as well as women's voices themselves are added Oriental Religion and Their Relations to Universal Religion: China. 1877 Samuel Johnson, 1877
