Origins Of Multiculturalism In Australian Politics 1945 1975:

The Origins of Multiculturalism in Australian Politics, 1945-1975 Mark Lopez, 2000 This book answers such fundamental questions as what is multiculturalism how did it originate and how did it become a basis for the Australian government's ethnic affairs policy Researched from primary evidence much of it made available to the author exclusively— it is an essential and solid foundation for future research and policy work in this field Multiculturalism continues to stir emotions and excite passionate public debate This work presents new accurate ideologically neutral historically based definitions of multiculturalism It also provides accurate and analytically useful definitions and explanations of assimilationism and integrationism thus establishing a valuable framework for analysis and debate The Public Life of Australian Multiculturalism Anthony Moran, 2016-11-26 This book argues that in a globalising world in which nation states have to manage population flows and intensifying cultural diversity within their borders multicultural policy and approaches have never been more important The author takes an extended case study approach examining Australia's experiments with pragmatic forms of multiculturalism and multicultural policy since the early 1970s up to the present The Public Life of Australian Multiculturalism challenges some larger assumptions about multiculturalism either that it undermines national identity or that it is and should strive to be a post national approach to identity issues Instead it argues that framing multiculturalism by inclusive national identity has been the key to multiculturalism's continuity and general success in Australia The book also directly challenges the claim that we have entered a post multicultural world making a case instead for the continuing relevance of pragmatic approaches to multiculturalism Students and scholars researching in sociology politics migration multiculturalism ethnic and racial studies nationalism and identity studies will find this study of interest

Malcolm Fraser Margaret Simons, Malcolm Fraser, 2010-11-01 The great task of statesmanship is to apply past lessons to new situations to draw correct analogies to understand and act upon present forces to recognise the need for change — Malcolm Fraser Malcolm Fraser is one of the most interesting and possibly most misunderstood of Australia's Prime Ministers In this part memoir and part authorised biography Fraser at the age of 79 years talks about his time in public life From the Vietnam War to the Dismissal and his years as Prime Minister through to his concern in recent times for breaches in the Rule of Law and harsh treatment of refugees Fraser emerges as an enduring liberal constantly reinterpreting core values to meet the needs of changing times Written in collaboration with journalist Margaret Simons Malcolm Fraser's political memoirs trace the story of a shy boy who was raised to be seen and not heard yet grew to become one of the most persistent insistent and controversial political voices of our times The book offers insight into Malcolm Fraser's substantial achievements He was the first Australian politician to describe Australia's future as multicultural and his federal government was the first to pass Aboriginal Land Rights and Freedom of Information legislation also establishing the Human Rights Commission After his parliamentary career Fraser continued to be an important player in public life playing a key role in persuading the USA Congress to impose sanctions on South Africa as part of the battle against apartheid He was also the founding chair of CARE Australia one of our largest aid agencies

Multiculturalism in the British Commonwealth Richard T. Ashcroft, Mark Bevir, 2019-07-12 A free open access ebook is available upon publication Learn more at www.luminosoa.org

Multiculturalism as a distinct form of liberal democratic governance gained widespread acceptance after World War II but in recent years this consensus has been fractured Multiculturalism in the British Commonwealth examines cultural diversity across the postwar Commonwealth situating modern multiculturalism in its national international and historical contexts Bringing together practitioners from across the humanities and social sciences to explore the legal political and philosophical issues involved these essays address common questions What is postwar multiculturalism Why did it come about How have social actors responded to it In addition to chapters on Australia Britain Canada and New Zealand this volume also covers India Malaysia Nigeria Singapore and Trinidad tracing the historical roots of contemporary dilemmas back to the intertwined legacies of imperialism and liberalism In so doing it demonstrates that multiculturalism has implications that stretch far beyond its current formulations in public and academic discourse

The Poor Relation Stuart Macintyre, 2010 What are the social sciences What do they do How are they practised in Australia The Poor Relation examines the place of the social sciences from economics and psychology to history law and philosophy in the teaching and research conducted by Australian universities Across sixty years The Poor Relation charts the changing circumstances of the social sciences and measures their contribution to public policy In doing so it also relates the arrangements made to support them and explains why they are so persistently treated as the poor relation of science and technology

Jews and Australian Politics Geoffrey Brahm Levey, 2004-12-13 Explains the contemporary politics of Australian Jewry This book situates the politics of Australian Jews through comparisons with general patterns in Australian politics the politics of other minorities in Australia and the politics of other Western Jewish communities It contains an appendix of Jewish Parliamentarians

White Backlash and the Politics of Multiculturalism Roger Hewitt, 2005-06-23 The murder of Stephen Lawrence led to the widest review of institutional racism seen in the UK Sections of the white working class communities in south London near to the scene of the murder however displayed deep hostility to the equalities and multiculturalist practice of the local state and other agencies Drawing on extensive ethnographic research this book relates these phenomena to the backlash to multiculturalism evident during the 1990s in the USA Australia Canada the UK and other European countries It examines these within the unfolding social and political responses to race equalities in the UK and the USA from the 1960s to the present in the context of changes in social class and national political agendas This book is unique in linking a detailed study of a community at a time of its critical importance to national debates over racism and multiculturalism to historically wider international economic and social trends

Australia Anthony Moran, 2005-07-05 In this book Anthony Moran traces the development of contemporary Australian society in the global age focusing on four major themes settler indigenous relations economics and culture since the 1980s and their impact on national identity the effects of increasing diversity fostered by globalization and the transformation of Australian social space wrought by globalization The Hawke Legacy Gerry Bloustien, Barbara Comber, Alison Mackinnon, 2009 Bob Hawke was a popular and effective Prime Minister whose economic and social reforms are acknowledged to have shaped modern Australia The book offers a timely look at the legacy of the Hawke era 1983 1991 by considering both the achievements of his ministry and what remains as unfinished business The Hawke Legacy includes interviews with Bob Hawke with his former speechwriter Graeme Freudenberg and with former Senator Rosemary Crowley contributions from two former members of the Hawke Government and scholarly accounts from historical political economic educational and Indigenous perspectives In the Face of Diversity Nathan D. Gardner Molina, 2025-05-01 The unity or uniformity of the Chinese Australian community has been frequently referenced in many recent political popular and even academic discussions The oneness of the community is often described as latent and inevitable if not already a fact Yet many Chinese Australians have also aspirationally used collective terms to refer to themselves there have been perennial calls to unite and advance the community or have it speak with one voice But has a united or unitary Chinese Australian community ever actually existed If so would a united community be a means to an end or an end in itself And where would this community sit in contemporary multicultural Australia I Am You Are We Are attempts to answer to these questions it is a history of more than a dozen Chinese Australian community organisations from across the country over five decades that draws on the English and Chinese language materials these organisations have produced over the years as well as interviews with ten past and present leaders Instead of a single community the evidence demonstrates the existence of many diverse Chinese Australian communities Consequently the book advances two ideas Chinese Australian unity presents itself as a chimera that inhabits the social space shared by Chinese Australians and has only ever been momentarily or partially grasped by community organisations Imagining the Chinese Australian community has nonetheless produced real world outcomes the most prominent being a highly participatory style of Australian multiculturalism These two ideas are woven through six moments in recent history that have been highly decisive for Chinese Australian communities I Am You Are We Are conveys Chinese Australian history in clear and evocative prose while remaining academically authoritative and socially conscious The result is a work that dismantles the prevailing myth of a single Chinese bloc to rebuild an appreciation of multiculturalism in Australia along with specific contributions made by Chinese Australian communities Multiculturalism, Whiteness and Otherness in Australia Jon Stratton, 2020-07-17 This book examines the experience of race and ethnicity in Australia after the withering away of official multiculturalism The first chapter looks at the formation of the Australian state the role that multiculturalism has played and the impact of neoliberal ideas The second chapter takes nightclubbing in the city of Perth during the 1980s the peak period for official multiculturalism to exemplify how diversity and exclusion functioned in everyday life The third chapter considers the imbrication of Christianity in the Australian socio cultural order and its impact on the limits of multiculturalism with particular concentration on Islam and the Australian Muslim experience Subsequent chapters discuss the exclusionary experience of various groups identified as non white through the lens of films popular music and television programs A Companion to Australian Literature Since 1900 Nicholas Birns, Rebecca McNeer, 2007 A fresh twenty first century look at Australian literature in a broad inclusive and multicultural sense

Beyond Turkey's Borders Banu Senay, 2012-12-05 In an increasingly connected world the engagement of diasporic communities in transnationalism has become a potent force Instead of pointing to a post national era of globalised politics as one might expect Banu Senay argues that expanding global channels of communication have provided states with more scope to mobilise their nationals across borders Her case is built around the way in which the long reach of the proactive Turkish state maintains relations with its Australian diaspora to promote the official Kemalist ideology Activists invest themselves in the state to see both for and like the state and as such Turkish immigrants have been politicised and polarised along lines that reflect internal divisions and developments in Turkish politics This book explores the way in which the Turkish state injects its presence into everyday life through the work of its consular institutions its management of Turkish Islam and its sponsoring of national celebrations The result is a state engineered transnationalism that mobilises Turkish migrants and seeks to tie them to official discourse and policy Despite this individual Kemalist activists dissatisfied with the state s transnational work have appointed themselves as the true cultural attach s of the Turkish Republic It is the actions and discourses of these activists that give efficacy to trans Kemalism in the unique migratory context of Australian multiculturalism Vital to this engagement is its Australian backdrop where ethnic diversity policies facilitate the nationalising initiatives of the Turkish state as well as the bottom up activism of Atatürkists On the other hand it also complicates and challenges trans Kemalism by giving a platform to groups such as Kurds or Armenians whose identity politics clash with that of Turkish officialdom An original and insightful contribution on the scope of transnationalism and cross border mobilisation this book is a valuable resource for researchers of politics nationalism and international migration

Reason, Religion and the Australian Polity Stephen Chavura, John Gascoigne, Ian Tregenza, 2019-02-04 How did the concept of the secular state emerge and evolve in Australia and how has it impacted on its institutions This is the most comprehensive study to date on the relationship between religion and the state in Australian history focusing on the meaning of political secularity in a society that was from the beginning marked by a high degree of religious plurality This book tracks the rise and fall of the established Church of England the transition to plural establishments the struggle for a public Christian secular education system and the eventual separation of church and state throughout the colonies The study is unique in that it does not restrict its concern with religion to the churches but also examines how religious concepts and ideals infused apparently secular political and social thought and movements making the case that much Australian thought and institution building has had a sacral secular quality Social welfare reform nationalism and emerging conceptions of citizenship and civilization were heavily influenced by religious ideals rendering problematic traditional linear narratives of secularisation as the decline of religion Finally the book considers present day pluralist Australia and new understandings of state secularity in light of massive social changes over recent generations

When Migrants Fail to Stay Ruth Balint, Joy Damousi, Sheila Fitzpatrick, 2023-09-07 The aftermath of the Second World War marked a radical new moment in the history of migration For the millions of refugees stranded in Europe China and Africa it offered the possibility of mobility to the new world of the West for countries like Australia that accepted them it marked the beginning of a radical reimagining of its identity as an immigrant nation For the next few decades Australia was transformed by waves of migrants and refugees However two of the five million who came between 1947 and 1985 later left When Migrants Fail to Stay examines why this happened This innovative collection of essays explores a distinctive form of departure and its importance in shaping and defining the reordering of societies after World War II Esteemed historians Ruth Balint Joy Damousi and Sheila Fitzpatrick lead a cast of emerging and established scholars to probe this overlooked phenomenon In doing so this book enhances our understanding of the migration and its history

Possible Spaces of Somali Belonging Vivian Gerrand, 2016-06-13 What happens when Somalis migrate to countries with which they have few cultural ties What helps Somalis to feel at home in their new Western countries of residence Possible Spaces of Somali Belonging explores representations of Somali resettlement to understand the mechanics of contemporary belonging and the challenges faced by Western societies as they attempt to integrate Somali migrants How do particular representations contribute to or detract from Somali belonging In the contexts of Australia and Italy taken as case studies Somalis are marginalised in different ways With a multi disciplinary approach this book examines different forms of Somali representation in Australia and Italy that engender a sense of belonging and expands exclusive definitions of nationhood Islamic Studies Series Volume 21

Experience and Representation Keith Jacobs, 2016-04-15 Experience and Representation Contemporary Perspectives on Migration in Australia provides a critical overview of influential theoretical perspectives and recent empirical material in the fields of migration race culture and politics With a primary focus on Australia the book explores the complexities surrounding migration sets out the most appropriate frameworks to understand ethnicity and racism and assesses the utility of the concepts of globalisation transnationalism and multiculturalism for interpreting contemporary society Specific chapters explore the experiences of migrants within the context of urban environments the vexed issue of national identity the meaning of home and the ways that migrants are currently represented in the media literature and film Experience and Representation will be of interest to scholars of migration and those studying social theory politics and the media

International Perspectives John Biles, 2012-05-17 The international trend towards migration is growing rapidly and becoming increasingly complex As the first wave generation of migrants ages their children and even grandchildren are reaching adulthood having spent their entire lives in the countries their families chose long ago International Perspectives Integration and Inclusion is a wide ranging exploration of this new global reality While many countries have been and remain resistant to migration the sheer volume of people moving from one country to another is forcing public policy and perceptions to change Migrant inclusion and integration however remains an issue in many locales Insightful and timely this volume brings together contributions from various countries and levels of the migrant experience in order to consider the ways in which states can facilitate the integration and inclusion of newcomers and minorities Post-Multicultural Writers as Neo-cosmopolitan Mediators Sneja Gunew, 2017-02 Post Multicultural

Writers as Neo Cosmopolitan Mediators is the first book to bring together global debates in neo cosmopolitanism over the last decade and Australian minority writers linking them to globalisation and transnationalism in cultural studies The SBS Story Ien Ang, Gay Hawkins, Lamia Dabboussy, 2008 The Special Broadcasting Service SBS is Australias multicultural and multilingual public broadcaster Its radio and television services broadcast in more languages than any other network in the world it is the voice of multicultural Australia The SBS Story investigates the impact of SBS as a force in Australian media culture and society Using SBS as a case study the authors investigate how other democratic countries have embraced the fact of cultural difference Ang Hawkins and Dabboussy explore how public broadcasters manage the changing nature of migration and multiculturalism and ask What is media s role and potential to address issues of difference and give voice to diverse opinions They examine the way SBS has used the culture of difference as a resource for innovation and how these innovations have kept it at the forefront of changes in media practice The book does not shy away from controversy tackling issues such as the stations encroaching commercialization insufficient government funding and the uproar prompted by SBSs reduction in non English broadcasting Provided by publisher

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
