Orphans of the Pacific Florence Horn, 1941      Orphans of the Pacific, the Philippines ... With ... Photographs by Fenno Jacobs. (Second Printing.). Florence Horn, 1941      A Pocket Guide to the Philippines, 1961      Angels of the Underground Theresa Kaminski, 2016

Angels of the Underground makes a significant contribution to the work on women's wartime experiences through the lens of Utinsky and Phillips who never wavered in their belief that it was their duty as patriotic American women to aid the Allied cause. Kaminski highlights how women have always been active participants in war whether or not they wear a military uniform. An impressive work of scholarship grounded in archival research and personal interviews, this is also a stunning story of courage and heroism in wartime. Point Four, Far East United States. Department of State. Division of Library and Reference Services, 1951      Prisoners in Paradise Theresa Kaminski, 2000

Draws on letters, diaries of American wives, missionaries, teachers, nurses, and spies to uncover their heroic tales while captives of the Japanese during World War II. The Pacific Historical Review Anna Marie Hager, 1976      Modern Times in Southeast Asia, 1920s-1970s, 2018-09-04

This book reveals how everyday experiences of being modern c 1920s-70s indexed continuity and change in the transition from colonialism to independence and after in Southeast Asia. In the Philippines, Myanmar, Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore, Thailand, and Vietnam, the contributors to this interdisciplinary volume recover modern times at the intersection of public and private domains encompassing sex, religion, art, film, literature, and urban space. The authors examine the conditions and representations of modernity as shaped by elites and the governed by actors, artists, novelists, and non-fiction writers. Plural encounters in cities through spiritual communities, art, high and popular culture, saw Southeast Asians fashioning modern times in dialogue with global capitalism, consumer culture, and second-wave feminism.

Philippine Yearbook, 1978      Remodelling to Prepare for Independence Ian Morley, 2023-12-01

Remodelling to Prepare for Independence: The Philippine Commonwealth Decolonisation Cities and Public Works c 1935-46 illuminates the implications of the USA's final phase of colonial rule in the Philippine Islands. It explores the Filipino side of decolonisation and the management of the built environment in the years immediately prior to self-rule. This book shakes off the collaboration vs resistance paradigm that empire histories generally follow and consequently yields an original vantage point to comprehend transition within an Asian society in the years immediately prior to, during, and after World War Two. This will not only deepen insight of the American Empire but also grants the opportunity to tie Philippine political/cultural change to the global history of urban planning's advancement. Accordingly, it opens a new window to rethink Filipino ethno-history and societal evolution alongside the opportunity to compare the Philippines with other nations that undertook planning projects as part of their decolonisation process and early postcolonial advancement. The book utilises theoretical frames in order to help creatively excavate the era 1935-46 for the purpose of not just revealing what public works occurred but to also uncover what those projects meant to the Commonwealth Government, the BPW's staff, and the public who benefitted from public
