

PUBLIC PERSONNEL ADMINISTRATION

First Semester, AY 2022-2023

- Accountability, which includes integrity, transparency, and independent oversight; and
- Inclusiveness, which includes leaving no one behind, non-discrimination, participation, subsidiarity, and intergenerational equity.

Described below are some principles of effective governance that relate to PPA:

- Competence - To perform their functions effectively, institutions are to have sufficient expertise, resources and tools to deal adequately with the mandates under their authority;
- Integrity - To serve in the public interest, civil servants are to discharge their official duties honestly, fairly and in a manner consistent with soundness of moral principle;
- Transparency - To ensure accountability and enable public scrutiny, institutions are to be open and candid in the execution of their functions and promote access to information, subject only to the specific and limited exceptions as are provided by law;
- Independent oversight - To retain trust in government, oversight agencies are to act according to strictly professional considerations and apart from and unaffected by others;
- Non-discrimination - To respect, protect and promote human rights and fundamental freedoms for all, access to public service is to be provided on general terms of equality, without distinction of any kind as to race, colour, sex, language, religion, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth, disability or other status; and
- Subsidiarity - To promote government that is responsive to the needs and aspirations of all people, central authorities should perform only those tasks which cannot be performed effectively at a more intermediate or local level.
