Return Of Science Evolution History And Theory:

The Return of Science Philip Pomper, David Gary Shaw, 2002 In this collection of essays historians discuss the applications of evolutionary theory to cultural social economic and political phenomena William H McNeill presents a magisterial statement about the convergence of the sciences toward an evolutionary worldview Several contributors offer support for this thesis Anthropologist Donald Brown and archaeologist Albert Naccache bring together the realms of biology and culture in examinations of evolved human features and modes of evolution Demographer Noel Bonneuil and neuroscientist Alonso Pena apply mathematics to historical evolutionary processes such as the decision making of human agents and cultural diffusion Beyond Science in Historical Theory, 2006 A Companion to the Philosophy of History and Historiography Aviezer Tucker, 2011-06-28 A COMPANION TO THE PHILOSOPHY OF HISTORY AND HISTORIOGRAPHY The philosophy of historiography examines our representations and knowledge of the past the relation between evidence inference explanation and narrative Do we possess knowledge of the past Do we just have probable beliefs about the past or is historiography a piece of convincing fiction The philosophy of history is the direct philosophical examination of history whether it is necessary or contingent whether it has a direction or whether it is coincidental and if it has a direction what it is and how and why it is unfolding The fifty entries in this Companion cover the main issues in the philosophies of historiography and history including natural history and the practices of historians Written by an international and multi disciplinary group of experts these clearly written entries present a cutting edge updated picture of current research in the philosophies of historiography and history This Companion will be of interest to philosophers historians natural historians and social scientists Deep History, Secular Theory Luther Martin, 2014-05-21 Over the course of his career Luther H Martin has primarily produced articles rather than monographs This approach to publication has given him the opportunity to experiment with different methodological approaches to an academic study of religion with updates to and different interpretations of his field of historical specialization namely Hellenistic religions the subject of his only monograph 1987 The contents of this collected volume represent Martin s shift from comparative studies to socio political studies to scientific studies of religion and especially to the cognitive science of religion He currently considers the latter to be the most viable approach for a scientific study of religion within the academic context of a modern research university The twenty five contributions collected in this volume are selected from over one hundred essays articles and book chapters published over a long and industrious career and are representative of Martin s work over the past two decades A Companion to American Environmental History Douglas Cazaux Sackman, 2010-02-12 A Companion to American Environmental History gatherstogether a comprehensive collection of over 30 essays that examinethe evolving and diverse field of American environmental history Provides a complete historiography of American environmentalhistory Brings the field up to date to reflect the latest trends andencourages new directions for the field Includes the work of path breaking environmental historians from the founders of the field to contributions from innovative young scholars Takes stock of the discipline through five topically themed parts with essays ranging from American Indian Environmental Relations to Cities and Suburbs

Networks Marc Amstutz, Gunther Teubner, 2009-05-26 In the last 20 years interest in network phenomena has grown immensely among anthropologists psychologists political scientists economists and lawyers Empirical observation shows that network arrangements can be found in many branches of business This is often linked to rapid changes in today's markets and technologies but it is not the only reason Legal institutions have been at the centre of private law since the industrial revolution but today contracts and corporations cannot cope with the risks and opportunities posed by networks Legal practice needs solutions which go beyond the classical traditions of thinking in the dichotomy of contract and corporation This volume is the outcome of a conference held in Fribourg Switzerland which focused on the legal treatment of contractual networks in particular questions of network expectations the fragility of network institutions and the question of how law can minimise network specific risks towards third parties The contributors among them many of the world's leading scholars in this field include Roger Brownsword Simon Deakin Gunther Teubner Hugh Collins and Marc Amstutz The book will be of interest to scholars of contract corporate law and legal theory

Inventing the Modern American Family Isabel Heinemann, 2012-05-14 Die USA durchliefen im 20. Jahrhundert einen enormen sozialen Wandel im Zuge dessen auch Familienwerte und Geschlechternormen neu ausgehandelt wurden Die Autorinnen und Autoren analysieren die damit einhergehende Veränderung von Weiblichkeits- und Männlichkeitskonzepten sowie von Mutter- und Vaterrollen Am Beispiel von Immigration Jugendkriminalität Wohlfahrtspolitik Reproduktion und Medien liefern die Beiträge ein anschauliches Bild von der Bedeutung der Familie als nationaler Kerneinheit

Evolutionary Thinking Across Disciplines Agathe du Crest, Martina Valković, André Ariew, Hugh Desmond, Philippe Huneman, Thomas A. C. Reydon, 2023-06-26 This volume aims to clarify the epistemic potential of applying evolutionary thinking outside biology and provides a survey of the current state of the art in research on relevant topics in the life sciences the philosophy of science and the various areas of evolutionary research outside the life sciences By bringing together chapters by evolutionary biologists systematic biologists philosophers of biology philosophers of social science complex systems modelers psychologists anthropologists economists linguists historians and educators the volume examines evolutionary thinking within and outside the life sciences from a multidisciplinary perspective While the chapters written by biologists and philosophers of science address theoretical aspects of the guiding questions and aims of the volume the chapters written by researchers from the other areas approach them from the perspective of applying evolutionary thinking to non-biological phenomena Taken together the chapters in this volume do not only show how evolutionary thinking can be fruitfully applied in various areas of investigation but also highlight numerous open problems unanswered questions and issues on which more clarity is needed As such the volume can serve as a starting point for future research on the application of evolutionary thinking across disciplines Higher

History, Philosophy and Science Teaching Michael R. Matthews, 2017-08-30 This anthology opens new perspectives in the domain of history philosophy and science teaching research Its four sections are first science culture and education second the teaching and learning of science third curriculum development and justification and fourth indoctrination The first group of essays deal with the neglected topic of science education and the Enlightenment tradition These essays show that many core commitments of modern science education have their roots in this tradition and consequently all can benefit from a more informed awareness of its strengths and weaknesses Other essays address research on learning and teaching from the perspectives of social epistemology and educational psychology Included here is the first ever English translation of Ernst Mach's most influential 1890 paper on The Psychological and Logical Moment in Natural Science Teaching This paper launched the influential Machian tradition in education Other essays address concrete cases of the utilisation of history and philosophy in the development and justification of school science curricula These are instances of the supportive relation of HPS a subject long discussed in philosophy of education but inadequately in science education This book is a timely reminder of why history and philosophy of science are urgently needed to support understanding of science From major traditions such as the Enlightenment to the tensions around cultural studies of science the book provides a comprehensive context for the scientific endeavour drawing on curriculum and instructional examples Sibel Erduran University of Oxford UK The scholarship that each of the authors in this volume offers deepens our understanding of what we teach in science and why that understanding matters This is an important book exploring a wide set of issues and should be read by anyone with an interest in science or science education Jonathan Osborne Stanford University USA This volume presents new and updated perspectives in the field such as the Enlightenment Tradition Cultural Studies Indoctrination in Science Education and Nature of Science Highly recommended Mansoor Niaz Universidad de Oriente Venezuela This volume provides an extremely valuable set of insights into educational issues related to the history and philosophy of science Michael J Reiss University College London UK      Economics--Mathematical Politics Or Science of Diminishing Returns? Alexander Rosenberg, 1992 Economics will never be able to move beyond these vague predictions because it treats human behavior individual and social

as the product of expectations and preferences beliefs and desires the variables that cannot be measured independently of the actual choices we want to predict These factors combined with the economist s commitment to the search for equilibrium solutions to theoretical problems condemn economic theory to permanent predictive weakness In the end Rosenberg s analysis is not merely a critique His aim is to redefine the scope and value of neoclassical theory suggesting that its character and most important accomplishments need to be correctly understood to defend economics against the charge that it is a science of diminishing returns BOOK JACKET

Brazilian Studies in Philosophy and History of Science Décio Krause, Antonio Videira, 2011-01-27 This volume The Brazilian Studies in the Philosophy and History of Science is the first attempt to present to a general audience works from Brazil on this subject The included papers are original covering a remarkable number of relevant topics of philosophy of science logic and on the history of science The Brazilian community has increased in the last years in quantity and in quality of the works most of them being published in respectable international journals on the subject The chapters of this volume are forwarded by a general introduction which aims to sketch not only the contents of the chapters but it is conceived as a historical and conceptual guide to the development of the field in Brazil The introduction intends to be useful to the reader and not only to the specialist helping them to evaluate the increase in production of this country within the international context
