Return Of The Omahony:

The Return of the O'Mahony Harold Frederic, 1899 The Return of the O'Mahony Harold Frederic, 2019-12-18 In Harold Frederic's novel The Return of the O Mahony readers are immersed in a compelling narrative that intertwines themes of identity, belonging, and the struggle between tradition and modernity. Set against the backdrop of 19th-century America, the book utilizes a rich descriptive literary style that evokes the era's complexities, drawing heavily on Frederic's nuanced understanding of both Irish immigrant culture and American societal dynamics. The story follows the protagonist, an Irish American man grappling with his dual heritage as he returns to his roots, embodying a broader exploration of cultural assimilation and the quest for self-discovery. Frederic, an American author born to Irish descent, brings a unique sensibility to his writing, informed by his own experiences as a journalist and a resident of England. His intimate understanding of the challenges faced by immigrants, particularly during a time of social upheaval, undoubtedly influenced his portrayal of the O Mahony family's struggles and triumphs. Frederic's dual perspective enables him to bridge worlds, reflecting the cultural tensions that defined his era. For readers interested in literature that probes the depths of human experience and cultural dislocation, The Return of the O Mahony offers a captivating exploration of identity and belonging. Frederic's deft storytelling and profound character development make this novel a compelling read that resonates with contemporary discussions about immigrant experiences and the enduring search for one's place in the world.

The Return of the O'Mahoney Harold Frederic, 1892 The Return of the O'Mahony Harold Frederic, 2017-09-10 The Return of The O Mahony The Return of the O'mahony Harold Frederic, 2015-06-14 Excerpt from The Return of the O mahony A Novel But Zeke though his mud-colored hair and beard bore scarcely a trace of gray and neither his placid unwrinkled face nor his lithe elastic form suggested age somehow produced an impression of seniority upon all his comrades young and old alike. He had been in the company from the beginning for one thing but that was not all. It was certain that he had been out in Utah at the time of Albert Sidney Johnston's expedition perhaps had fought under him. It seemed pretty well established that before this Mormon episode he had been with Walker in Nicaragua. Over the mellowing canteen he had given stray hints of even other campaigns which his skill had illumined and his valor adorned. Nobody ever felt quite sure how much of this was true for Zeke had a child's disregard for any mere veracity which might mar the immediate effects of his narratives but enough passed undoubted to make him the veteran of the company. And that was not all. For cold-blooded intrepidity in battle for calm clear-headed rashness on the skirmish line Zeke had a fame extending beyond even his regiment and the division to which it belonged.
